Geoliturgy and Ecological Crisis Jeffrey S. Lamp, 2024-12-15 Geoliturgy and Ecological Crisis The Spiritual Practice of Caring for Creation examines sources and select practices within Christian tradition Scripture the Nicene Creed the Eucharist and fasting from an ecological perspective in order to develop a practical spirituality for living in an ecologically responsible way in the world This spirituality which Jeffrey S Lamp labels Geoliturgy describes a way to read the Bible ecologically and to understand the doctrinal content of the Nicene Creed in ecological terms Lamp then examines the Eucharist and fasting as liturgical and devotional practices that form the structure of a spirituality that extends from church services into the daily lives of the faithful The resulting vision of this study is the reclamation of the biblical mandate for human beings to function as benevolent priestly co-rulers with God in creation to prepare creation to become the dwelling place of God

Love in a Time of Climate Change Sharon Delgado, 2017-06-30 Love in a Time of Climate Change challenges readers to develop a loving response to climate change which disproportionately harms the poor threatens future generations and damages God's creation This book creatively adapts John Wesley's theological method by using scripture tradition reason and experience to explore the themes of creation and justice in the context of the earth's changing climate By consciously employing these four sources of authority readers discover a unique way to reflect on planetary warming theologically and to discern a faithful response The book's premise is that love of God and neighbor in this time of climate change requires us to honor creation and establish justice for our human family for future generations and for all creation From the introduction As we entrust our lives to God we are enabled to join with others in the movement for climate justice and to carry a unified message of healing love and solidarity as we live into God's future offering hope in the midst of the climate crisis that another world is possible God is ever present always with us Love never ends
