The Greys Have Been Framed Jack Brewer, 2015-12-16 The Greys Have Been Framed Exploitation in the UFO Community explores the ways deception sensationalism and questionable ethics characterize the UFO genre and distort public perception of the UFO phenomenon Activities of credulous investigators of alleged alien abduction are considered as are the roles of intelligence agencies in the theatrics including thought provocative relationships and similarities between the UFO and intelligence communities With interviews and insights from James Carrion Leah Haley Dr Tyler Kokjohn Simone Mendez Carol Rainey Emma Woods and others The Greys Have Been Framed takes readers through the exploitation of ufology as perpetrated by charlatans intelligence officials and researchers harboring unclear motives The circumstances existing from the very outset of the modern day UFO phenomenon prove relevant no matter what personal opinion one may hold on the mystery of UFOs and their alleged occupants

The Believer Ralph Blumenthal, 2021-03-15 The Believer is the weird and chilling true story of Dr John Mack This eminent Harvard psychiatrist and Pulitzer Prize winning biographer risked his career to investigate the phenomenon of human encounters with aliens and to give credibility to the stupefying tales shared by people who were utterly convinced they had happened Nothing in Mack s four decades of psychiatry had prepared him for the otherworldly accounts of a cross section of humanity including young children who reported being taken against their wills by alien beings Over the course of his career his interest in alien abduction grew from curiosity to wonder ultimately developing into a limitless unwavering passion Based on exclusive access to Mack s archives journals and psychiatric notes and interviews with his family and closest associates The Believer reveals the life and work of a man who explored the deepest of scientific conundrums and further leads us to the hidden dimensions and alternate realities that captivated Mack until the end of his life

Invoking the Beyond: Paul D. Collins, Phillip D. Collins, 2020-11-22 The Gnostic revival of the Enlightenment witnessed the erection of what could be called the Kantian Rift an epistemological barrier between external reality and the mind of the percipient Arbitrarily proclaimed by German philosopher Immanuel Kant this barrier rendered the world as a terra incognita Suddenly the world out there was deemed imperceptible and unknowable In addition to the outer world the cherished metaphysical certainties of antiquity the soul a transcendent order and God swiftly evaporated The way was paved for a new set of modern mythmakers who would populate the world out there with their own surrogates for the Divine Collectively these surrogates could be referred to as the Beyond because they epistemologically and ontologically overwhelm humanity In recent years the Beyond has been invoked by theoreticians literary figures intelligence circles and deep state operatives who share some variant of a technocratic vision for the world In turn these mythmakers have either directly or indirectly served elitist interests that have been working toward the establishment of a global government and the creation of a New Man Their hegemony has been legitimized through the invocation of a wrathful earth goddess a technological Singularity a superweapon and extraterrestrial gods All of these are merely masks for the same counterfeit divinity the Beyond      The Organisation of Crime and Harm in the Construction Industry Jon Davies, Hanna Malik, 2024-04-30 Drawing on empirical work and secondary analysis from the UK and Finnish construction industries this book contributes a deep rooted analysis of construction industry harms that originate from corporate industrial state processes The UK context arguably represents a classic neoliberal system categorised by privatisation of services and minimal regulation whereas Finland broadly provides a social democratic alternative with its relatively strong national regulation and public sector oversight of industry These concepts interlink strongly with the notion of state corporate crime since this perspective shifts attention away from individualistic explanations for crime and harm towards symbiosis between states and corporations This book argues that existing explanations based on organised crime and individual rogues are insufficient to account for the wider range and subtlety of harms that occur in construction and therefore offers a unique perspective into organisational industry and state dynamics in this sector An accessible and compelling read this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology sociology organized crime and those interested in harms in the construction industry      The Oxford Handbook of Refugee and Forced Migration Studies Elena Fiddian-Qasmiyeh, Gil Loescher, Katy Long, Nando Sigona, 2014-06-12 Refugee and Forced Migration Studies has grown from being a concern of a relatively small number of scholars and policy researchers in the 1980s to a global field of interest with thousands of students worldwide studying displacement either from traditional disciplinary perspectives or as a core component of newer programmes across the Humanities and Social and Political Sciences Today the field encompasses both rigorous academic research which may or may not ultimately inform policy and practice as well as action research focused on advocating in favour of refugees needs and rights This authoritative Handbook critically evaluates the birth and development of Refugee and Forced Migration Studies and analyses the key contemporary and future challenges faced by academics and practitioners working with and for forcibly displaced populations around the world The 52 state of the art chapters written by leading academics practitioners and policymakers working in universities research centres think tanks NGOs and international organizations provide a comprehensive and cutting edge overview of the key intellectual political social and institutional challenges arising from mass displacement in the world today The chapters vividly illustrate the vibrant and engaging debates that characterize this rapidly expanding field of research and practice      Climate change and sustainable development Thomas Potthast, Simon Meisch, 2012-08-13 Climate change is a major framing condition for sustainable development of agriculture and food Global food production is a major contributor to global greenhouse gas emissions and at the same time it is among the sectors worst affected by climate change This book brings together a multidisciplinary group of authors exploring the ethical dimensions of climate change and food Conceptual clarifications provide a necessary basis for putting sustainable development into practice Adaptation and mitigation demand altering both agricultural and consumption practices Intensive vs extensive production is reassessed with regard to animal welfare efficiency and environmental implications Property rights play an ever increasing role as do shifting land use practices agro energy biotechnology food policy to green consumerism And last but not least tools are suggested for teaching agricultural and food ethics Notwithstanding the plurality of ethical analyses and their outcome it becomes apparent that governance of agri food is faced by new needs and new approaches of bringing in the value dimension much more explicitly This book is intended to serve as a stimulating collection that will contribute to debate and reflection on the sustainable future of agriculture and food production in the face of global change working of panchayats at state district and block levels The present volume Status of Panchayati Raj in the States and Union Territories of India 2013 Provides an in depth analysis of the structures and functioning of the Panchayati raj institutions since 2000 Apart from an introduction which gives an overview of the Panchayati raj system the volume has special articles such as An Appraisal of Panchayats in Fifth Scheduled Areas Panchayats and Women and Fiscal Decentralization What is unique about this encyclopedic publication is that it provides exhaustive data on Blocks Talukas Mandals and Districts based on the 2001 and 2011 Census along with maps demographic data on the Districts and Blocks as also the socio economic profiles of each State and Union Territory Pennsylvania Speech Communication Annual ,1975-07 Hotel Lobbies and Lounges Tom Avermaete, Anne Massey, 2013-01-25 This series investigates the historical theoretical and practical aspects of interiors The volumes in the Interior Architecture series can be used as handbooks for the practitioner and as a critical introduction to the history of material culture and architecture Hotels occupy a particular place in popular imagination As a place of exclusive sociability and bohemian misery a site of crime and murder and as a hiding place for illicit liaison the hotel has embodied the dynamism of the metropolis since the eighteenth century This book explores the architectural significance of hotels throughout history and how their material construction has reflected and facilitated the social and cultural practices for which they are renowned Contemporary developments in the planning and design of hotels are addressed through a series of interviews and case studies Illustrated throughout this book is an innovative and important contribution to architectural and interior design theory literature Bulletin of the Garden Club of America ,1925 Notes from 39,000 Feet Dale Rominger, 2010-11-11 In Notes from 39 000 Feet Dale Rominger has put together a collection of poignant observations from his experiences around the world With extraordinary clarity he describes both everyday moments and historical events including the fall of the Berlin Wall and the first elections in South Africa In describing personal encounters in places as far afield as Reykjavik and Luanda and reflecting on social and political events from Harare to Seoul Rominger presents an array of details which most of us would miss and interprets them in such a way that they haunt us long after we finish reading Perhaps this is the true value of his work it is not just a fascinating read it challenges us to question In the first section of the book Making Meaning the Notes are presented in chronological order beginning in Reykjavik in 1986 passing through places such as Harare Varanasi Gaza City Seoul Istanbul Prague San Salvador and Kingston and ending in London in 2010 Some Notes are transcriptions of presentations and lectures given at international gatherings and events Some are journalistic reflections and some sermon like meditations Some are directly associated with church work and others are not Others are reflections on books he came across on his travels While there is no central theme there is a background hum that is hard to miss a hum that hints at ethical philosophical theological points of view that make up a system of meaning thoughts feelings beliefs observations understandings all of which combine to reveal a way of seeing the world and how we choose to live within it The last section of the book Making Believe is comprised of two fictitious short stories The first The Poetry of

Being Human was written after Romingers return from Central America The second Martha Goes to Paris is a response to George W Bushs rightwing Christian fundamentalist America While the first places an intense love story within the social and political upheaval and often tragedy of Central America in the 1980s the second is in Romingers words An absurd story for an absurd time At its heart Notes is both an observation of the world we live in and a personal journey Rominger does not pull his punches and behind almost every word there is a shadow of anger at the injustices he has witnessed in his travels But the book is also a personal account of the effect such a life can have on a person He ends the chapter Swanning Around the World or Passing Through the International Non Places of Planet Earth with these words Either none of us is special or we are all special But the point is the universe global economics global warming international injustice contemporary slave trade sex trafficking disease poverty HIV AIDS tsunamis hurricanes droughts and warlords don t give a damn about us If God does he she it keeps it a good secret I have a friend in Washington D C who travelled for the church more than I ever have and has been around the world a couple more times than I have I asked him once if he were happy He said that he wasnt That he d seen too much and knew too much And like me he couldnt forget a damn thing And yet this chapter as well as many others is also filled with the laughter and absurdity of life A quick glance at the bibliography at the end of the book gives the reader some sense of its mood and tone Rominger cites authors from Woody Allen to Don DeLillo Chung Hyun Kyung to Paul Ricoeur Henri Nouwen to Tony Judt Notes from 39 000 Feet is a tribute to the worlds people in their profound striving for justice and the joy they embrace whatever the circumstances It is a testament to the human spirit
