shepherd their flock and exalt our Saviour in the midst of bereavement Grieving, Hope and Solace Albert N. Martin, 2011-08-01 Here is a tender blending of memoir and theology a joining of heart and mind a sober yet joyful consideration of Scripture in the face of one of life's deepest and most grievous trials What exactly happens to those who die as Christians What do they immediately experience What is their existence like right now What will happen to them when Christ returns to earth These questions can be especially acute for grieving loved ones who remain What comfort and assurance does Scripture offer you What can you truly know and be confident of These are the questions and concerns that faced Pastor Albert N. Martin following the death of his wife of nearly 50 years He knew that if he were to grieve in a way that glorified God he needed to know the answers to those questions as clearly as possible directly from Scripture This book is the product of his grief his tears his travails his prayers and his concentrated study of God's Word A beloved pastor and widely respected preacher for half a century Albert Martin handles Scripture with the greatest of skill care wisdom and respect In this book you will learn what God tells us with regard to the burning questions that so often accompany the death of a loved one in Christ There is comfort for the grief There are answers to the questions The Bible does offer hope solace healing and confidence Pastor Albert Martin has been there Let him share with you the deep comfort encouragement and joy that he found through Scripture in the midst of his grieving Grieving with Hope The Chaplain, 2018-09-07 Only those that have lost a loved one understand what you are going through only those can listen to you This journal is can be your best companion as you share your thoughts with it when you write It has lines to write and blank pages for you to draw if feel like Take a look inside you might like it When Tragedy Strikes Laura Diehl, 2016-01-26 If you have suffered great tragedy and struggle to connect with God in your grief and disappointment When Tragedy Strikes was written for you Wayne Jacobsen author of He Loves Me Learning to Live in the Father's Affection After the death of a child there is no closure It is like learning how to live with an amputation you are forever changed and need to learn how to live a new normal There can be a feeling of desperation to find someone farther ahead on the path who can understand the crushing pain that makes you feel like you can't even breathe at times Laura Diehl was plunged into that place with the death of her daughter and meets the deep need to connect with others who have experienced what cannot be put into words When Tragedy Strikes is the raw account of her journey from deep darkness back into light and life extending a hand of hope to those traveling on the path behind her who need to rebuild their lives after the death of a child Remembering with Love Elizabeth Levang, Sherokee Ilse, 1995-11 A collection of more than three hundred short writings that offer compassion comfort and guidance to people who have lost a loved one Markings on the Windowsill Ronald J. counselor to offer hope help and healing to people who are grieving Ron Greer has helped my wife and me grapple with many tough issues over the years But all of them pale by comparison to his own personal tragedy The loss of a child is the most devastating life changing event a parent would shudder to even envision But as I have learned through the years Ron has an uncanny ability to dig deep into our dark unexplored emotional mines turn on some lights and then find those precious veins of hope There are no good answers to why bad things happen to good people But there are good people who are able to use bad things as a lever to learn something profound about themselves and in rare cases to help others find the same emotional tools Ron Greer has that tremendous gift Thank God he is willing to share it with us Miles O'Brien CNN anchor For many years Ron Greer has skillfully counseled folks whose turn it was to walk through the valley of the shadow of death Then it was Ron's turn By faith transforming a terrible tragedy into a time of deepening faith Ron shows the rest of us the way when it's our time to walk through the desert of grief All of us are either preparing for grief or dealing with past grief and we need all the help we can get Ron can show you how to do grief with faith hope and love too William H Willimon author and United Methodist bishop Ron Greer touches our hearts and gives us some great insights into healing and hope with this book Ron writes from the depths of his own grief and his journey to healing as he and his wife dealt with the death of their two year old son I have known Ron for thirty five years and he is made of the real stuff He enables the reader to deal with real stuff with his book The reader will be amazed at the hope the book produces on each page Don Harp senior minister Peachtree Road United Methodist Church Markings on the Windowsill is sacred ground When a person of Ron Greer's depth and compassion bares his soul and that of his amazing wife Karen one treads with reverence and rapt attention Be careful with this book When you pick it up go to a very quiet place and plan to be there awhile God will speak to you Your life will be changed I promise Bill Curry ESPN sports analyst and speaker The Mourner's Book of Hope Alan D Wolfelt, 2010-08-01
