

The background of the entire slide is a photograph of the USS Constitution, a historic wooden-hulled sailing ship. The ship is docked at a pier, and its complex rigging of masts and ropes is clearly visible. The ship's hull is dark, with a prominent red stripe along the waterline. The name "U.S.S. CONSTITUTION" is visible on the side of the ship in the background. The title text is overlaid on a dark, semi-transparent rectangular area in the upper half of the image.

Great Fortunes, and How They Were Made James D. McCabe,2015-07-19 Excerpt from Great Fortunes and How They Were Made Or the Struggles and Triumphs of Our Self Made Men The physical industries of this world have two relations in them one to the actor and one to the public Honest business is more really a contribution to the public than it is to the manager of the business himself Although it seems to the man and generally to the community that the active business man is a self seeker and although his motive may be self aggrandizement yet in point of fact no man ever manages a legitimate business in this life that he is not doing a thousand fold more for other men than he is trying to do even for himself For in the economy of God s providence every right and well organized business is a beneficence and not a selfishness And not less is it so because the
