Light Was Everywhere Poems By Richard Wehrman:

Light was Everywhere Richard Wehrman, 2010-12 Light was Everywhere poems by Richard Wehrman brings together for the first time poetry previously shared only with a small number of individuals working as he has on paths of awakening insight and inner illumination These poems always take as their touchstone the vibrant revealed earth the rebirth of soul and spirit and the continuous revelations of presence and awareness A support for those who travel any difficult road this small volume offers a confirmation of the challenges and rewards as we move towards spirit and open heart awareness Light was Everywhere points us toward the beauty and support we are continually given by the world and the growing recognition that what the Earth herself is we are The Book of the Garden Richard Wehrman, 2014-12-02 A narrative poetic journey into the heart of reality The Book of The Garden opens the possibility that the Imagination can be a vehicle to a reality neither exclusively internal nor completely external but situated between them both an intimate World that comes into being as we embrace and believe in its possibility not as an imaginative fiction but as an ontological actuality A world where our deepest longings find their resolution through their own creative arising where our True Nature magically manifests universe upon universe A poetic vision both alchemical and personally revealing The Book of The Garden speaks to the deepest heart in each individual opening the spiritual and transcendent through the simplest of presences in what becomes the Garden we have all since our childhood longed to re enter And where we find that through the heart of love and our own Creative Dialogues with Death Richard Wehrman, 2015-09-15 This is great Death said So begins our little Imagination we can story The Author and his long suffering friend Death set out to record their stimulating and edifying conversions enlightening us all to the real truth of what goes on behind closed doors where Life and Death get down to business if not hand to hand combat Transcribed from actual conversations these verbatin dialogues will delight the most jaded and skeptical intellects and be a most satisfying way to spend a rainy afternoon Always to the Light Allen Itz, 2015 A book of poetry reflecting Forms of Light Paul Neumann, 2003-01-01 Perfect bound elegant full color on the daily life and concerns of a poet cardstock cover
