Lighter As We Go Virtues Character Strengths And Aging:

Lighter as We Go Mindy Greenstein, Jimmie Holland, 2014-08-26 The fears of aging have been one long cascading domino effect through the years twenty year olds dread thirty forty year olds fear fifty sixty fears seventy and so it goes And there is something to worry about though it isn't what you'd expect research shows that having a bad attitude toward aging when we're young is associated with poorer health when we're older These worries tend to peak in midlife but in Lighter as We Go Mindy Greenstein and Jimmie Holland show us that contrary to common wisdom our sense of well-being actually increases with our age often even in the presence of illness or disability For the first time Greenstein and Holland on a joint venture between an 85 year old and a fifty year old explore positive psychology concepts of character strengths and virtues to unveil how and why through the course of a lifetime we learn who we are as we go Drawing from the authors own personal intergenerational friendship as well as a broad array of research from many different areas including social psychology anthropology neuroscience humanities psychiatry and gerontology Lighter as We Go introduces compassion justice community and culture to help calm our cascading fears of aging

Lighter as We Go Mindy Greenstein, Jimmie Holland, 2017-12-12 Contrary to common wisdom and the fears of mid-lifers our sense of well-being actually goes up in older age even in the presence of illness or disability Lighter as We Go is the first book to explore how and why that is drawing on positive psychology and concepts of character strengths and virtues

Women and Positive Aging Lisa Hollis-Sawyer, Amanda Dykema-Engblade, 2016-03-03 Women and Positive Aging An International Perspective presents the noted research in the fields of psychology gerontology and gender studies reflecting the increasingly popular and pervasive positive aging issues of women in today's society from different cohorts backgrounds and life situations Each section describes a bridge between the theoretical aspects and practical applications of the theory that is consistent with the scientist-practitioner training model in psychology including case studies and associated intervention strategies with older women in each chapter In addition to incorporating current research on aging women's issues each section provides the reader with background about the topic to give context and perspective Examines a comprehensive range of issues for aging women Details current research trends Encompasses a holistic model of women's aging Ranges from physical and mental health in response to aging changes to social relationships and sexuality Presents a how-to put research into practice section in each chapter Focuses on topical issues that are relevant to women wanting to optimize their life outcomes as they live on average longer than ever before
