Like Angels on Jacob's Ladder Harvey J. Hames, 2012-02-01 This book explores the career of Abraham Abulafia ca 1240 1291 self proclaimed Messiah and founder of the school of ecstatic Kabbalah Active in southern Italy and Sicily where Franciscans had adopted the apocalyptic teachings of Joachim of Fiore Abulafia believed the end of days was approaching and saw himself as chosen by God to reveal the Divine truth He appropriated Joachite ideas fusing them with his own revelations to create an apocalyptic and messianic scenario that he was certain would attract his Jewish contemporaries and hoped would also convince Christians From his focus on the centrality of the Tetragrammaton the four letter ineffable Divine name to the date of the expected redemption in 1290 and the coming together of Jews and Gentiles in the inclusiveness of the new age Abulafia's engagement with the apocalyptic teachings of some of his Franciscan contemporaries enriched his own worldview Though his messianic claims were a result of his revelatory experiences and hermeneutical reading of the Torah they were to no small extent dependent on his historical circumstances and acculturation

Jacob's Ladder Sergii Bulgakov, 2014 Few of the great Russian author Sergius Bulgakov's writings achieve the lyrical heights of Jacob's Ladder In this book originally published in 1929 Bulgakov explores the doctrine of angels and their importance for contemporary humanity He frames his work with meditations on the meaning of love not as a sentimental indulgence but as a way of understanding the deep tender self sacrificing personal knowledge that is both at the heart of a Trinitarian God and in the midst of relationships between human beings and their guardian angels These discussions on the creation function nature appearances and incorporeality of angels lead also to reflections on the incarnation and human nature especially the role of the sexes death and the Christian hope of resurrection Jacob's Ladder completes the development of Divine Sophia on the Wisdom of God in creation begun in The Burning Bush and The Friend of the Bridegroom which together constitute Bulgakov's first dogmatic trilogy

Ladder Sergius Bulgakov, 2010-11-16 Few of Sergius Bulgakov's professional writings achieve the lyrical heights of Jacob's Ladder. In it he discusses the doctrine of angels and their importance for contemporary humanity. He includes reflections on the meaning of love, the sexes, death, and the Christian hope of resurrection, meditating on the Wisdom of God in the creation.
