The Unnamable H. P. Lovecraft, 2017-11-30 This little piece is unusual for Lovecraft It is not so much a weird tale as a discussion about weird tales in which two men sitting on a dilapidated tomb in an old graveyard writer Randolph Carter H P surrogate and his friend high school principal Joel Manton debate whether a writer owes his readers an explicit description of horrors or whether it is better to leave the greatest horrors unnamable Goodreads L'Indicible Howard Phillips

Lovecraft, 2019-09-09 The Book Biography and Bibliography 6X9po Glossy Cover Finish My memories are very confused

There is even much doubt as to where they begin for at times I feel appalling vistas of years stretching behind me while at other times it seems as if the present moment were an isolated point in a grey formless infinity I am not even certain how I am communicating this message While I know I am speaking I have a vague impression that some strange and perhaps terrible mediation will be needed to bear what I say to the points where I wish to be heard My identity too is bewilderingly cloudy I seem to have suffered a great shock perhaps from some utterly monstrous outgrowth of my cycles of unique incredible experience

The Little Glass Bottle H.P. Lovecraft Howard Phillips Lovecraft, When I drew nigh the nameless city I knew it was accursed I was traveling in a parched and terrible valley under the moon and afar I saw it protruding uncannily above the sands as parts of a corpse may protrude from an ill made grave Fear spoke from the age worn stones of this hoary survivor of the deluge this great grandfather of the eldest pyramid and a viewless aura repelled me and bade me retreat from antique and sinister secrets that no man should see and no man else had dared to see Remote in the desert of Araby lies the nameless city crumbling and inarticulate its low walls nearly hidden by the sands of uncounted ages It must have been thus before the first stones of Memphis were laid and while the bricks of Babylon were yet unbaked There is no legend so old as to give it a name or to recall that it was ever alive but it is told of in whispers around campfires and muttered about by grandams in the tents of sheiks so that all the tribes shun it without wholly knowing why It was of this place that Abdul Alhazred the mad poet dreamed of the night before he sang his unexplained couplet That is not dead which can eternal lie And with strange aeons death may die I should have known that the Arabs had good reason for shunning the nameless city the city told of in strange tales but seen by no living man yet I defied them and went into the untrodden waste with my camel I alone have seen it and that is why no other face bears such hideous lines of fear as mine why no other man shivers so horribly when the night wind rattles the windows When I came upon it in the ghastly stillness of unending sleep it looked at me chilly from the rays of a cold moon amidst the desert s heat And as I returned its look I forgot my triumph at finding it and stopped still with my camel to wait for the dawn
