

The background of the book cover is a dramatic illustration. A large, reddish-brown planet with a white equatorial band is shown in the lower-left. A dinosaur, possibly a Spinosaurus, is depicted leaping from the planet's surface into the dark void of space. The dinosaur is in mid-air, with its front limbs extended forward and its body angled upwards. A large, bright, white splash of light or energy emanates from the point of the dinosaur's leap, creating a sense of motion and impact. The sky above the planet is a deep blue with some lighter, wispy clouds.
