Prepare to be Amazed Mary Schendlinger, 2005 The story of modern magic through the lives of recent history's most gifted magicians While the art of magic may be as old as human beings its golden age arrived in the mid 1800s when Jean Eug ne Robert Houdin performed onstage in a tailored evening suit and tidy haircut The image of magicians was forever transformed Houdin was famous for his thrilling act of Second Sight where his blindfolded son would identify articles held up by the audience Other artists had their own specialties Adelaide Herrmann first woman to run her own magic show brought the fun and flash of show business Chung Ling Soo an American who led a double life as a dazzling Chinese conjuror The Great Lafayette a flamboyant quick change artist P C Sorcar revived the ancient traditions of his native India Harry Blackstone performed small magic simple tricks by sleight of hand Doug Henning revived the popularity of modern magic Siegfried and Roy combined special effects technology with natural magic David Copperfield uses cutting edge technology to create powerful stage illusions After each magician's story kids will find great tricks they can learn and they'll love the full color reproductions of theatrical posters and photographs that capture all the excitement

The Lost World of Classical Legal Thought William M. Wiecek, 2001 This text examines the ideology of elite lawyers and judges from the Gilded Age to the New Deal Between 1866 and 1937 this coherent outlook or legal orthodoxy shaped the way the American bar interpreted and understood the law The Cumulative Book Index, 1996 A world list of books in the English language Revisiting

Classical Economics Heinz Kurz, Neri Salvadori, 2014-08-07 The financial crisis and the economic crisis that followed triggered a crisis in the subject of economics as it is typically being taught today especially in macroeconomics and related fields A renewed interest in earlier authors especially the classical economists from Adam Smith to David Ricardo and John Maynard Keynes developed This book may also be seen as a response to this interest What can we learn from the authors mentioned what we could not learn from the mainstream This volume contains a selection of essays which deepens and widens the understanding of the classical approach to important problems such as value and distribution growth and technical progress and exhaustible natural resources It is the fourth collection in a row and reflects an on going discussion of the fecundity of the classical approach A main topic of the essays is a comparison between the classical approaches with modern theory and thus an identification of what can be learned by elaborating on the ideas of Smith and Ricardo and Marx above and beyond and variously in contradiction to certain mainstream view Since the work of Piero Sraffa spurred the revival of classical economic thought his contributions are dealt with in some detail The attention then focuses on economic growth and the treatment of exhaustible resources within a classical framework of the analysis Revisiting The Tempest Silvia Bigliuzzi, 2014-02-20 Revisiting The Tempest offers a lively reconsideration of how The Tempest encourages interpretation and creative appropriation It includes a wide range of essays on theoretical and practical criticism focusing on

The Greatest Works of G. K. Chesterton G. K.

Chesterton,2023-12-09 In The Greatest Works of G K Chesterton readers are invited into an expansive literary universe where profound philosophical inquiry meets a playful narrative style Chesterton often celebrated for his wit employs a masterful blend of irony and humor while addressing serious themes ranging from faith and morality to social justice and the nature of existence The collection showcases his signature use of paradox making complex ideas accessible and engaging By weaving together essays fiction and poetry Chesterton creates a vibrant tapestry that reflects the intellectual landscape of the early 20th century demonstrating the interplay between spirituality and the modern world G K Chesterton 1874 1936 a prolific British writer journalist and theologian emerged as a prominent voice in the literary movement of his time His personal journey transformed him from a skeptic to a committed Christian deeply influencing his worldview and literary output Chesterton's background in art and philosophy allowed him to approach writing with a unique perspective exploring the tensions between faith and reason tradition and innovation thus enriching his works with depth and insight This collection is essential for those wishing to explore the intersections of theology philosophy and literature It not only highlights Chesterton's brilliance but also invites readers to reflect on their beliefs and the complexities of life Whether you are a long time admirer or a new reader Chesterton's insights continue to resonate making this anthology a timeless treasure

Law's History David M. Rabban,2013 This is a study of the central role of history in late nineteenth century American legal thought In the decades following the Civil War the founding generation of professional legal scholars in the United States drew from the evolutionary social thought that pervaded Western intellectual life on both sides of the Atlantic Their historical analysis of law as an inductive science rejected deductive theories and supported moderate legal reform conclusions that challenge conventional accounts of legal formalism Unprecedented in its coverage and its innovative conclusions about major American legal thinkers from the Civil War to the present the book combines transatlantic intellectual history legal history the history of legal thought historiography jurisprudence constitutional theory and the history of higher education

American Standard Ross Warner, 2024-09-03 They've sold more than 20 million albums they were inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and they're one of Homer Simpson's favorite bands but even today fifty years after they first formed Cheap Trick remains to many a club band with a cult following They certainly started out that way with a carnival like stage show featuring four perfectly mismatched characters guitarist Rick Nielsen in bowtie sweater and baseball cap stood next to blonde dreamboat Robin Zander while the mysterious chestnut haired bassist Tom Peterson held down the bottom end with drummer Bun E. Carlos never seen without his cigarette or tie American Standard Cheap Trick from the Bars to the Budokan and Beyond tells the unlikely story of the band's path to greatness from their origins in Rockford Illinois to their massively successful live album At Budokan to the many many ups and downs that followed This is a rollicking tale of artistic genius rock excess hilarious misbehavior chance encounters with music's biggest names and international stardom that brought new meaning to the phrase big in Japan Drawing on exhaustive research and interviews American Standard gives an intimate look at a truly original band whether you consider them rock icons or criminally underrated

The Colonizing Trick David Kazanjian, 2003 An illuminating look at the concepts of race nation and equality in eighteenth and nineteenth century America The idea that all men are created equal is as close to a universal tenet as exists in American history In this hard hitting book David Kazanjian interrogates this tenet exploring transformative flash points in early America when the belief in equality came into contact with seemingly contrary ideas about race and nation The Colonizing Trick depicts early America as a white settler colony in the process of becoming an empire one deeply integrated with Euro American political economy imperial ventures in North America and Africa and pan American racial formations Kazanjian traces tensions between universal equality and racial or national particularity through theoretically informed critical readings of a wide range of texts the political writings of David Walker and Maria Stewart the narratives of black mariners economic treatises the personal letters of Thomas Jefferson and Phillis Wheatley Charles Brockden Brown's fiction congressional tariff debates international treaties and popular novelettes about the U.S. Mexico War and the Yucatan's Caste War Kazanjian shows how emergent racial and national formations do not contradict universalist egalitarianism rather they rearticulate it making equality at once restricted formal abstract and materially embodied
