Show Me a Story! Leonard S. Marcus,2013-09-10 Will inspire inform and delight those of any age who areengaged in or by the arts The Horn Book Renowned children s literature authority Leonard S Marcus speaks with twenty one of the world s most celebrated illustrators of picture books asking about their childhood their inspiration their creative choices and more Amplifying these richly entertaining and thought provoking conversations are eighty eight full color plates revealing each illustrator's artistic process in fascinating detail. This inspiring collection confirms that picture books matter because they make a difference in our children's lives. From Children's Literature to Readers Theatre Elizabeth A. Poe, 2013-03-19 How do you get children excited and engaged with books? Get them onstage! Readers Theatre is a staged reading of literature with participants reading from scripts conveying the book's story using voice and facial expressions. In this book Poe introduces and shows how to implement the concept, demonstrating how Readers Theatre offers educators an innovative opportunity to acquaint children and young people with quality literature, develop their public speaking skills, and teach teamwork in an activity that is as entertaining as it is educational. A veteran of many Readers Theatre programs, she explains how to create successful programs, providing detailed instruction for ways librarians can help children and teens develop and perform their own Readers Theatre scripts. An annotated bibliography of 100 books suggested for their Readers Theatre potential, with excerpts from scripts and the passages from which they were adapted. Programming ideas that can be adapted for use across different age levels from preschool to YA. Comments from prominent children's authors who have shared Readers Theatre experiences with Poe. Combining the theoretical and the practical, Poe's book helps children and YA librarians assist young people in developing a lifelong love of literature.

Language Arts Pamela J. Farris, Donna E. Werderich, 2019-01-08 From the first edition to the latest, Language Arts: Process, Product, and Assessment for Diverse Classrooms has presented sound language arts theory and methodology in a nonthreatening, straightforward manner at a reasonable price. Coverage focuses on the 2017 Standards for Literacy Professionals. Each chapter identifies and addresses the standards applicable to that chapter's topics. Farris and Werderich infuse their foundational guidelines with the latest research, teaching practices, and assessment and evaluation techniques. Ideas for lesson plans, use of technological applications, internet resources, and comprehensive up-to-date listings of children's, young adult, and multicultural fiction and nonfiction titles are among the text's outstanding features. Other features geared expressly for pre- and inservice teachers include: Engaging real-life classroom anecdotes; Instructional activities for reading, writing, listening, speaking, viewing, and visually representing; Boxes containing teaching hints and mini-lessons; Section on Response to Intervention (RTI) with the various tiers of intervention; Theories, instruction, and teaching activities for English language learners (ELLs); Guidelines to meet the needs of special needs learners; Suggestions for literacy-based interdisciplinary instruction, including STEM and STEAM; Examples of children's work to help readers understand what to expect from different ages and ability levels; Questions and assignments to strengthen readers' aptitude, awareness, and application of topics to real life.
