and an agenda for future research and practice The handbook answers the need expressed by the disability community for a thought provoking interdisciplinary international examination of the vibrant field of disability studies The book will be of interest to disabled people scholars policy makers and activists alike The book aims to define the existing field stimulate future debate encourage respectful discourse between different interest groups and move the field a step forward

Westernizing the Third World Ozay Mehmet,2002-01-22 The second edition of this successful and popular text has been updated and revised to include recent issues in development economics Significant new additions include Asian values and development democracy human rights and good governance globalization and development boxed summaries of key arguments and glossary Westernizing the Third World identifies the mainstream economic theories which have been employed in developing countries The author examines these and explains why Eurocentric concepts are not suitable for the developing world Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1979 British Books in Print ,1986 Library Journal ,1978

The Urban Caribbean in an Era of Global Change Robert B. Potter,2017-03-02 Based on the author's first hand field research this book addresses the twin processes of urbanization and globalization as they affect the contemporary Caribbean region One of the key aims of the book is to focus attention on the fact that contrary to popular perceptions the Caribbean is highly urbanized Indeed statistics show that the region is more highly urbanized than the world taken as a whole In addition the fact that the Caribbean region has always been affected by processes of globalization in respect of its economy polity and society is central to the text The chapters cover pressing topics such as urban change and the evolution of mini metropolitan regions the importance of the mercantile and plantopolis frameworks tourism post modernity and the urban nexus economic change and the dual processes of global convergence and divergence and the nature of the relationships existing between the state the informal sector housing and environmental conditions In reality it is shown that the development of tourism and enclave manufacturing is leading to new forms of urban concentration and not spatial dispersal Mass Higher Education Development in East Asia Jung Cheol Shin, Gerard A. Postiglione, Futao Huang,2015-02-16 This book discusses mass higher education development in East Asian countries by means of three main issues the strategy for higher education development the way professors and students in the region are experiencing the rapid developments and the challenges imposed by mass higher education These challenges include the quality of education as well as structural changes in the rapidly developing systems funding sources for supporting mass higher education and job markets for college graduates Part I discusses how the East Asian countries have accomplished or are in the process of accomplishing the rapid development of higher education Japan Korea China Taiwan Malaysia Singapore and Hong Kong serve as case studies of mass higher education in the region The case studies introduce and discuss national strategies to develop higher education funding sources and mechanisms and initiatives to assure quality of education in a period of rapid growth Part II and Part III of the book focus on the phenomena of mass higher education in the region and the influence on academia Mass higher education changes professors and students who are different from those in elite higher education Part III further discusses the challenges posed to Asian mass higher education The Comparative and International Education Society Higher Education HESIG has awarded Mass Higher Education Development in East Asia the Higher Education SIG Best Book Award 2015      Southern Economist ,1974
