gap in research has resulted in shocks being poorly understood with no fundamental explanation of their inciting conditions. It is a system forming problem that cannot be investigated without dynamic ideas about the economy but an incomplete understanding of this event leaves economic systems vulnerable to collapse. Theory of Shocks COVID 19 and Normative Fundamentals for Policy Responses is an essential publication that explores the factors that cause economic shocks and the mechanisms of their implementation. The book serves as a resource for the development of policy oriented frameworks for achieving and maintaining national and international strategies to properly manage future global shocks. Featuring coverage of a wide range of topics including dialectics, self-evolvement and structural relationships, this book is ideally designed for economists, executives, managers, entrepreneurs, academicians, students and researchers in the areas of finance, macroeconomics, economic theory and risk assessment.

Developing New Products and Services Lawrence Sanders, 2011-10-14. This book will focus on the up front activities required for product and service differentiation, the learning methodologies that contribute to arriving at that differentiation and the role that technology plays in implementing the process. The book will show how technology factors into such entrepreneurial activities as engaging in business planning and utilizing creativity and innovation and how creative innovation in turn is achieved and enhanced through an understanding of two different modes of learning: learning about and learning by doing. A successful product introduction depends on an efficient supply chain, a strong brand and the ability of a manufacturer or provider to differentiate it successfully in the marketplace. New Product and Services Development demonstrates how differentiation, this last critical component, can be secured by the strategic use of technology and by engaging in two key learning methodologies.

The New Economic Criticism Martha Woodmansee, Mark Osteen, 2005-10-09. This collection brings together twenty-seven essays by influential literary and cultural historians as well as representatives of the vanguard of postmodernist economics. Contributors include Jean Joseph Goux and Marc Shell. This is a pathbreaking work which develops a new form of economic analysis. It will appeal to economists and literary theorists with an interest beyond the narrower confines of their subject.
