ABOUT THE BOOK

God Is Responsible For Existence Of Life (He Does It A Responsibility And Duty To Provide For Us)

The existence of life on earth is full of mysteries. However, many religious bodies, organizations, and governments have come to exist because of mysteries surrounding the existence of life.

Nobody knows better than both the kind of parents, family, tribe, country, wife, and the like he is born to and who. Also who supports of his birth before he was born, and still many are struggling to find out the source of existence of life on earth. There have been many philosophies, views of theories, and beliefs which try to answer the question who is the source of life?

This book provides details of the mysteries that surround the existence of life. It states that if GOD is responsible for existence of life then He owes it a duty to provide. It also provides answers to most frequently asked questions about life. Some of the questions are:

Who is really responsible for your life? Why were you born? The meaning of life or creation? Who should provide for you in other words who is the source of your supply? The meanings of 6666? Reasons for the suffering of the world? What to do and what not to do (Principles)? What a lady and female women, and What are the sources of all afflictions.

It is a book that is designed to help preachers, teachers, theologians, pastors, Bible students, Christians, and all the discernment-minded of all age groups.

God Responsible Existence Life Responsibility:

Responsibility and Christian Ethics William Schweiker, 1999-03-11 Schweiker develops a powerful new theory of responsibility articulated in terms of Christian faith      The Clarity of God's Existence Owen Anderson, 2008-07-23 The Clarity of God's Existence examines the need for theistic proofs within historic Christianity and the challenges to these since the Enlightenment Historically and scripturally Christianity has maintained that unbelief is inexcusable If failing to know God is a sin the implication is that humans can and should know God Humans should know God because his eternal power and divine nature are clearly revealed in the things that are made And yet Anderson argues more time is spent on avoiding the need for clarity to establish inexcusability than on actually providing an argument or proof Proofs that rely on Aristotle or Plato and that establish a Prime Mover or designer are thought to be sufficient But the adequacy of these not only to prove the God of theism but also to prove anything at all has been called into question by Enlightenment thinkers like David Hume After considering the traditional proofs and tracing the history of challenges to theistic proofs from Hume to Kant and down to the twentieth century Anderson argues that the standard methods of apologetics have failed to sufficiently respond Classical Apologetics Evidentialism Presuppositionalism Reformed Epistemology and others fail to adequately answer the challenges of the Enlightenment If this is the case what is the outcome for Christianity Anderson offers an explanation as to why traditional proofs have failed and for what is necessary to offer a proof that not only responds to Hume and Kant but also establishes the clarity of God's existence The traditional proofs failed precisely in not aiming at the clarity of God's existence and They failed in this because of a faulty view of the goal of Christian life If the blessed life is to be attained in a direct vision of God in heaven then there is little to no reason to ask for more than the bare minimum required to get into heaven justification Furthermore if the highest blessing is this direct vision then the glory of God revealed in his work is considered as less important and even set aside By way of contrast if God's eternal power and divine nature are clearly revealed in his works and the blessing comes in knowing God then it is of the utmost importance for Christianity to demonstrate the clarity of God's existence This is an exciting book that advances the status of philosophy of religion by analyzing and probing some fundamental issues in contemporary philosophy and theology The emphasis on clarity is to me new and fresh and provocative I'm really surprised that the constellation of clarity responsibility and inexcusability has not been examined in detail before Stephen Webb Wabash College      The Limit of Responsibility Esther D. Reed, 2018-08-23 This volume frames the question of responsibility as a problem of agency in relation to the systems and structures of globalization According to Ricoeur responsibility is a shattered concept when considered too narrowly as a problem of act agency and individual freedom To examine this Esther Reed develops a short genealogy of modern liberal and post liberal concepts of responsibility in order to understand better the relationship dominant modern framings of the meanings of responsibility Reed engages with writings by major modern Schleiermacher Hegel Marx Weber and post liberal Buber Levinas Derrida

Badiou Butler Young Critchley theorists to illustrate the shift from an ethnic responsibility built on notions of accountability and attributions to an ethic responsibility that starts variously from the other Reed sees Dietrich Bonhoeffer as the most promising partner of this theological dialogue as his learning of responsibility from the risen Christ present now in the global church is a welcome provocation to new thinking about the meaning of responsibility learned from land distant neighbour global church and the bible Bonhoeffer's reflections on the centre boundaries and limits of responsibility remain helpful to Christian people struggling with an increasingly exhausted concept of accountability

The Divine Imperative Emil Brunner, 2002 One of the major works of the great German theologian Emil Brunner The Divine Imperative deals with what we ought to do People are unconvinced that there is an inviolable moral obligation governing human life because they do not believe that the good can be precisely and clearly known Haven't some generations called bad what others have called good Aren't moral standards relative Doesn't religion lack uniform and practical moral guidance Brunner discusses the moral confusion we face He analyses the nature of the Good showing why the Christian faith as understood by the Protestant Reformers provides the only true approach and answer to the ethical problem Philosophical ethics whether ancient or modern cannot correctly define the Good because the Good is regarded either as too abstract and absolute or as too concrete and relative Christianity by contrast sees the moral problem as one of responsibility between humans who are created so as to respond to God He created men for responsive fellowship with Him establishing orderly ways of acting in the world Correct understanding of the nature of society family state economic life is needed to discern one's duty Because Brunner's analysis is at once fundamental and comprehensive this book remains a fresh and compelling treatment of the moral problem It offers a provocative discussion and solution of a perennial human problem

Ethics in the Presence of Christ Christopher R. J. Holmes, 2012-02-02 An exploration of how the truth love and power of God revealed in Jesus Christ are contemporary to and transformative of human life

Power, Value, and Conviction William Schweiker, 2019-05-31 Schweiker's reflections are strikingly original and they ought to be required reading for everyone in the field of theological ethics Douglas F. Ottati Professor of Theology and Ethics Union Theological Seminary and Presbyterian School of Christian Education With this new work Schweiker continues his vital exploration of hermeneutical realism responsibility ethics moral formation and the lives we live in our complex late modern cultures This is a bracing complex text that richly rewards those who engage it with the care it requires Jean Bethke Elshtain Laura Rockefeller Professor of Social and Political Ethics University of Chicago and author of Augustine and the Limits of Politics Schweiker has a comprehensive knowledge of contemporary moral thought philosophical and theological applied and theoretical He brings a wealth of material together with a unifying theological perspective that sharpens our questions and renews our hope This is an outstanding achievement Robin W. Lovin Dean and Professor of Ethics Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University William Schweiker is the Edward L. Ryerson Distinguished Service Professor of Theological Ethics at the University of Chicago Born in Des Moines

Iowa 1953 he holds degrees from Simpson College Duke University and also the University of Chicago Besides teaching at Chicago he has also been guest professor at Uppsala University and the University of Heidelberg Schweiker's writings engage theological and ethical questions attentive to global dynamics comparative religious ethics the history of ethics and hermeneutical philosophy Schweiker has published five books numerous articles and award winning essays as well as edited and contributed to six volumes including A Companion to Religious Ethics 2004 a comprehensive and innovative work in the field of comparative religious ethics He is currently working on a volume Religious Ethics Meaning and Method Ongoing research is for a book on theological ethics and the integrity of life Biblical Inner Healing Mike Mendoza, 2015-11-03 Humans tend to be autonomous independent and self governing and psychology can't explain why because it's a spiritual sin problem The biblical view can incorporate the truth found by secular research and facts found by secular research about the psyche unknown world of a person their mind can also be incorporated to the biblical view and make better sense of it Many things religious people discover share no common ground with secular studies Secular psychology can't deal with the meaning of life moral standards and guilt which are all important to our psychological studies because they leave God out

Luminescence, Volume 1 C. K. Barrett, Fred Barrett, 2017-04-25 What is found in this series unveils an entirely different side of C K Barrett a side one might never have known about if one had knowledge only of his famous commentaries and monographs Herein lies a goodly selection of Kingsley's sermons preached largely in small and medium sized Methodist churches in the northeast of England though often elsewhere in England and around the world Fred Barrett was not the scholar his son was but on close inspection one can most definitely see the impact of the father on the son when it came to preaching It seems right to include as many sermons from both of these men as we can in this series One thing sorely lacking in much preaching these days is in depth engagement with both the biblical text and one's tradition and theology The sermons in these volumes demonstrate what such preaching can look like This first volume presents 100 sermons on the Gospels and Acts Kierkegaard's and Heidegger's Analysis of Existence and Its Relation to Proclamation Knud Ejler Løgstrup, Christopher Bennett, Jessica Leech, Joe Saunders, Mark Textor, 2020 In Kierkegaard's and Heidegger's Analysis of Existence and its Relation to Proclamation 1950 Løgstrup offers an original critique of these key thinkers Arguing against their idea that life in the crowd threatens individuality he proposes an ethic beyond social rules a requirement to care for a person whose life is placed in your hands Evil and the God of Love J. Hick, 2010-04-09 When first published Evil and the God of Love instantly became recognized as a modern theological classic widely viewed as the most important work on the problem of evil to appear in English for more than a generation Including a foreword by Marilyn McCord Adams this reissue also contains a new preface by the author The Problem of Omnipotence in Current Theology Riichirō Hoashi, 1918

Logos of Phenomenology and Phenomenology of The Logos. Book Two Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2006-06-30 The human being is today at the center of scientific social ethical and philosophical debates The Human Condition in the unity of everything there is alive under whose aegis the present selection of essays falls offers the urgently needed new approach to reinvestigating humanness While recent advances in the neurosciences genetics and bio engineering challenge the traditional abstract conception of human nature indicating its transformability thus putting in question the main tenets of traditional philosophical anthropology in the new perspective of the Human Creative Condition the human individual is seen in its emergence and unfolding within the dynamic networks of the logos of life and within the evolution of living types Just the same the creative logos of the mind lifts the human person into a sphere of freedom Within the networks of the logos we retrieve the classical principles human subject ego self body soul person reinterpret them to counter the naturalistic critique Tymieniecka Thus principles of a new philosophical anthropology satisfying the requirements of the present time are laid down

Education and Responsibility Tunis Romein, 2021-03-17 This book reveals the sources of the disquiet prevailing among educators over the apparent failure of the public school system to develop moral responsibility in America s youth The doctrine of separation of church and state has made sectarian religious training illegal in public schools and Tunis Romein shows that the task of providing moral guidance suddenly thrust upon educators has disclosed their deep schisms in educational philosophy basic contradictions which have split American education from top to bottom Romein explains the basic conflicts in education by examining three educational philosophies progressivism educational reconstructionism and classical humanism and comparing all of them with the traditional Christian view He holds that all educational philosophies whether secular or not are based on faith and that all can be tested with regard to their beliefs about the nature of man and about the kind of moral responsibility education should develop in man

With sincerity and frankness Romein analyzes the moral and intellectual poverty of much of the thinking dominant in education today and he shows the necessity as well as the difficulty of making faith in God once more the underlying influence in American education      Man in Revolt Emil Brunner,2002 In the struggle of ideas the most fundamental and far reaching is that of the nature of mankind What are we Why are we not at peace with ourselves or our neighbours How does our understanding of our nature lead to personal and social well being We have followed the false leads of Darwin Nietzsche Marx and Freud in trying to understand ourselves Despite other differences they all interpret man in relation to nature rejecting transcendent metaphysical or religious understanding of the human condition They do not solve the contradiction between what we are and what we ought to be Brunner sees the human contradiction as comprehensible only in terms of a God to whose word we must respond This is not communication by language it refers to the fundamental character of personal relations People are persons in so far as they can freely say to each other what they think and feel This communication is possible in so far as we recognise that God speaks to us and respond to Him Brunner sees responsibility as the key to personality The Biblical doctrine of man created in the image of God and capable of responding to God's Word is the key to recovering an effective sense of responsibility With profound penetration and power Brunner applies his thesis to such vexed questions as individuality and community character relations between man and woman relations between soul and body Man in Revolt explains our frustration and confusion about ourselves and why the Christian view of man of his place in nature and history is the truth which man both needs and seeks in the search for himself      Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Christian Humanism Jens Zimmermann,2019-06-13 Jens Zimmermann locates Bonhoeffer within the Christian humanist tradition extending back to patristic theology He begins by explaining Bonhoeffer's own use of the term humanism and Christian humanism and considering how his criticism of liberal Protestant theology prevents him from articulating his own theology rhetorically as a Christian humanism He then provides an in depth portrayal of Bonhoeffer's theological anthropology and establishes that Bonhoeffer's Christology and attendant anthropology closely resemble patristic teaching The volume also considers Bonhoeffer's mature anthropology focusing in particular on the Christian self It introduces the hermeneutic quality of Bonhoeffer's theology as a further important feature of his Christian humanism In contrast to secular and religious fundamentalisms Bonhoeffer offers a hermeneutic understanding of truth as participation in the Christ event that makes interpretation central to human knowing Having established the hermeneutical structure of his theology and his personalist configuration of reality Zimmermann outlines Bonhoeffer's ethics as Christformation Building on the hermeneutic theology and participatory ethics of the previous chapters he then shows how a major part of Bonhoeffer's life and theology namely his dedication to the Bible as God's word is also consistent with his Christian humanism      Incompatibilism's Allure Ishtiyaque Haji,2008-11-03 The role of freedom in assigning moral responsibility is one of the deepest problems in metaphysics and moral theory Incompatibilism's Allure provides original analysis of the principal arguments for incompatibilism Ishtiyaque Haji incisively examines the consequence argument the direct argument the deontic argument the manipulation argument the impossibility argument and the luck objection He introduces the most important contemporary discussions in a manner accessible to advanced undergraduates but also suited to professional philosophers The result is a unique and compelling account for incompatibilism s continuing allure God's Kettledrum Kenneth Kuenster,2022-12-06

God s Kettledrum is an adventure into the world of avant garde theater performance and the lives of its players The narrator is the director of the theater group Two of the main characters are identical red head twin sisters Ada and Blain Ada is a dancer with impressive skills and feisty attitude Blain has been kidnapped from her school in Switzerland and the narrator is assigned the role of negotiating her release by the girl s step father and financial supporter of the dance company Blain is being held in Rome and Ada is to accompany the narrator at the insistence of Lucrezia a theater producer who is involved in the holding of Blain She is a midget beautiful and very accomplished and a tough negotiator She wants to co produce a theater piece with the narrator for inclusion in The Festival dei Due Mondi in Spoleto which has always been denied to her The mother of the twins is introduced and has a light X scar across her face done by a forger of early painting out of jealousy The forger is the father of the twins The forger locates the twins and arranges to have them model for him in a forged Lippi painting In the process he makes sexual moves on Ada and when she rejects him he attempts to scar her with a cut across her face but Blain kills him with a blow to the head one of many interactions between the varied characters in the course of the book The Origins of Responsibility François Raffoul,2010-04-13

Fran ois Raffoul approaches the concept of responsibility in a manner that is distinct from its traditional interpretation as accountability of the willful subject Exploring responsibility in the works of Nietzsche Sartre Levinas Heidegger and Derrida Raffoul identifies decisive moments in the development of the concept retrieves its origins and explores new reflections on it For Raffoul responsibility is less about a sovereign subject establishing a sphere of power and control than about exposure to an event that does not come from us and yet calls to us These original and thoughtful investigations of the post metaphysical senses of responsibility chart new directions for ethics in the continental tradition Mystery and Meaning Gebre Menfes Kidus,2011-08-05
