Repertory Movie Theaters of New York City Ben Davis, 2017-03-14 New York's repertory movie houses specialized in presenting films ignored by mainstream and art house audiences Curating vintage and undistributed movies from various countries they educated the public about the art of film at a time when the cinema had begun to be respected as an art form Operating on shoestring budgets in funky settings each repertory house had its own personality reflecting the preferences of the often eccentric proprietor While a few theaters existed in other cities New York offered the greatest number and variety Focusing on the active years from 1960 through 1994 this book documents the repertory movement in the context of economics and film culture

Science and Affect in Contemporary Literature Shannon Lambert, 2024-11-14 Moving from the micro world of quantum physics to the macro scales of earth science and ecology this book considers how in contemporary literature affective experiences like desire suffering anxiety and joy shape scientific persons practices and products This book brings into dialogue close readings of scientific writing and contemporary literary works by authors like Jeanette Winterson Richard Powers Hanya Yanagihara Thalia Field and Jenny Offill Combining narrative and affect studies it uses formal strategies such as moving metaphor visceral or affective description plot level analogy contraction and rhythm to engage with western scientific epistemologies which still tends towards the impassive universal and objective While each chapter focuses on a different field or fields of science all foreground bodies human and nonhuman as a way of exploring knowledge production Through close readings the book argues that select scientific stories raise important questions about how knowledge is defined and who and what is invited into its processes of production

Livestock and Literature Liza B. Bauer, 2024-08-08 This book explores the past and current traces that cows pigs chickens and other animals used by humans have left in Anglophone literary fiction In times of accelerated global warming an acute pandemic and breakthroughs in bioengineering practices discussions on how to rethink the relationships to these animals have become as heated as perhaps never before Livestock and Literature examines what literature has to contribute to these debates In particular it draws on counter narratives to so called livestock animals commodification in selected science and speculative fiction SF works from the twenty first century These texts imagine what if scenarios where livestock practice resistance transform into biotechnologically modified postanimal beings or live in close companionship to humans Via these three points of access the study delineates the formal and thematic strategies SF authors apply to challenge anthropocentric and speciesist thought patterns The aim is to shed light on how these alternative storyworlds expand readers understanding of the lives of farmed animals seeking insight into how literature shapes human animal relationships beyond the page
