Making Friends with Death Laura Pritchett,2017-08-29 Death is a great and grand mystery and the actual act of dying is the last physical act of our lives We can do it well like a graceful well rehearsed piano solo or we can do it like that first awkward dance with a middle school crush But if anything deserves our full attention some preparation or some renewed clarity death might be it In this light hearted irreverent exploration of the one thing that is certain in all lives Making Friends with Death offers a look at all the uncertainty that precedes this final act A compelling mix of practical how to advice and personal narrative this book encapsulates our greatest quest to make peace with death Pritchett offers up wisdom she has gleaned from all sorts of places including a decade of traditional research and a lifetime of other related but less formal pursuits digging up a dead body watching her dog be necropsied on the lawn hosting Death Caf s and confronting the grim reaper himself Making Friends with Death broaches the sacred and the scary with warmth research and humor Interspersed with a variety of workbook like exercises this book will prove to be the go to companion for anyone who would rather be able to greet death as an old friend rather than a spooky stranger The Blue Hour Laura Pritchett,2018-02-27 Winner of the 2018 Colorado Book Award Pritchett writes with an evident love for the mountains and the people that call them home Westword The residents of Blue Moon Mountain form a tight knit community of those living off the land stunned by the beauty and isolation all around them So when at the onset of winter the town veterinarian commits a violent act the repercussions of that tragedy are felt all across the mountainside upending their lives and causing their paths to twist and collide in unexpected ways The housecleaner rediscovering her sexual appetite the farrier who must take in his traumatized niece the grocer and her daughter the therapist and the teacher reaching out to the world in new and surprising ways and the ragged couple trapped in a cycle of addiction and violence They will all rise and converge upon the blue hour the l heure bleu a time of desire lust honesty and learn to navigate the often confusing paths of mourning and love Writing with passion for rural lives and the natural world Laura Pritchett who has been called one of the most accomplished writers of the American West graces the land of desire in vivid prose exploring the lengths these characters some of whom we've met in Pritchett's previous work will traverse to protect their own

Smith investigates one of today's most pressing topics examining the causes of avoidable food waste across the supply chain and highlighting the ways in which everyone can do something to tackle this global concern
