

The background of the cover is a dark, almost black, space. It is populated with various microscopic organisms. Numerous blue, thread-like structures resembling fungi or bacteria are scattered throughout. Interspersed among these are many yellow, rod-shaped bacteria, some appearing in pairs. A large, translucent blue sphere, possibly representing a cell or a virus, is positioned in the center. Below this sphere, there are green, cloud-like or smoke-like formations. In the bottom left corner, a portion of a red, oval-shaped object is visible. The overall aesthetic is scientific and high-tech.
