on the ways in which the justice of God is taking shape in its own community How does an ecclesial context shape the theological apprehension and praxis of justice This question orientates the book In particular it asks how in view of its members having been admitted into God's restoring justice in Christ the church might embody in the world this same justice of restoring right relationships While Christian reflection on the nature of justice has tended to favour a judicial and retributive conception of justice it will be argued that the biblical understanding of the justice of God is best understood as a saving liberating and restorative justice It is this restorative conception that ought to guide the community that reads Scripture so that it might be embodied in life
