Clitic Doubling in the Balkan Languages Dalina Kallulli, Liliane Tasmowski, 2008 This volume is a collection of articles on clitic doubling a phenomenon that has preoccupied generative linguists since the 1980s when its theoretical importance was noted Clitic doubling is prevalent in the Balkan languages However generative studies initially dealt with its properties in Romance languages with the Balkan patterns coming increasingly into focus Since the mid nineties these patterns presented a variety of challenges to the generalisations reached on the basis of Romance while also raising new research questions The volume deals among other things with the following aspects of the phenomenon its extension within and outside the Balkan Sprachbund and the observed variation its realizational possibilities and the constraints on the status of the doubled DP direct or indirect object pronominal or non pronominal its semantics definite specific presupposed neither and pragmatics topic or not D linked or not its temporal and locational genesis the relationship between the clitic and its associate

Challenging Clitics Christine Meklenborg Salvesen, Hans Petter Helland, 2013-06-15 Challenging Clitics deals with multiple sides of cliticisation from different theoretical frameworks and with data from a number of different languages Unlike many other books on clitics where clitics are considered from a mere syntactical point of view this book also discusses the acquisition of clitics the role of the PF in cliticisation the morphophonological aspects of cliticisation and historical change to name but a few of the approaches presented As such this collection presents cutting edge theoretical considerations as well as new data on clitics Taken together the contributions in this volume not only provide insight into the extremely complex nature of clitics but also into derivations and structures in language that go beyond the study of clitics themselves

Performing Mexicanidad Laura G. Gutiérrez, 2010-06-23 Using interdisciplinary performance studies and cultural studies frameworks Laura G Gutiérrez examines the cultural representation of queer sexuality in the contemporary cultural production of Mexican female and Chicana performance and visual artists In particular she locates the analytical lenses of feminist theory and queer theory in a central position to interrogate Mexican female dissident sexualities in transnational public culture This is the first book length study to wed performance studies and queer theory in examining the performative performance work of important contemporary Mexicana and Chicana cultural workers It proposes that the creations of several important artists Chicana visual artist Alma Lopez the Mexican political cabareteras Astrid Hadad Jesusa Rodríguez Liliana Felipe and Regina Orozco the Chicana performance artist Nao Bustamante and the Mexican video artist Ximena Cuevas unsettle heterosexual national culture In doing so they are not only challenging heterosexist and nationalist discourses head on but are also participating in the construction of a queer world making project Treating the notion of discomfort as a productive category in these projects advances feminist and queer theories by offering an insightful critical movement suggesting that queer worlds are simultaneously spaces of desire fear and hope Gutierrez demonstrates how arenas formerly closed to female performers are now providing both an artistic outlet and a powerful political tool that crosses not only geographic borders but social sexual political and class boundaries as well and deconstructs the relationships among media hierarchies of power and the cultures of privilege
