Material Explorations African Archaeology Timothy:

Material Explorations in African Archaeology Timothy Insoll, 2015 Material Explorations in African Archaeology examines materiality in African archaeology by exploring concepts of material agency and material engagement and entanglement in relation to their manifest presence in persons animals objects substances and contexts of the African past Islamization and Archaeology José C. Carvajal López, 2023-05-04 This fresh approach to the study of Islamization proposes an innovative conceptual framework that treats the subject as a particular case of cultural change The aim of the volume is to make Islamization amenable to archaeological and historical analyses of changes in material conditions of life without forsaking the specific history of Islam Islam and Islamization must be understood in their particular social context but also in relation to the conditions that hold them together over large geographical and chronological expanses Archaeologists and historians have considered Islamization from a range of different perspectives from conversion to cultural change though these studies have tended to be underpinned by a normativist conception of Islam In contrast Jos C Carvajal L pez takes a hermeneutical stance wherein Islam is the result of exploration and adopts a New Materialist theoretical analysis to explore Islamization and its impact on identities communities and their material culture The consequences for the study of Islamization are examined through examples that include some of the author s own experiences This innovative take on Islamization is not exclusively interested in the spread of the religion or of the polity and therefore it overcomes the theoretical limits imposed by the concepts of religious conversion and ideological imposition This book will appeal to scholars interested in associating cultural and religious change and in particular those working on Islam whether within or outside the discipline of archaeology Divine Consumption Stephen A. Dueppen, 2022-12-31 Kirikongo is an archaeological site composed of thirteen remarkably well preserved discrete mounds occupied continually from the early first to the mid second millennium AD It spans a dynamic era that saw the growth of large settlement communities and regional socio political formations development of economic specializations intensification in interregional commercial networks and the effects of the Black Death pandemic The extraordinary preservation of architectural units activity areas and industrial zones provides a unique opportunity to discern the cultural practices that created stratified mounds tells in this part of West Africa Building from a new detailed zooarchaeological analysis and refinements in stratigraphic precision this book argues that repeated ritual activity was a significant factor in the accumulation of stratified archaeological deposits The book details consistencies in form and content of discrete loci containing animal bones food remains and broken and unbroken objects and suggests that these are the remnants of sequential ancestor shrines created when domestic spaces were converted to tombs or dedicated mortuary monuments were constructed Continuities and transformations in ancestral rituals at Kirikongo inform on earlier West African ritual practices from the second millennium BC as well as political and social transformations at the site More broadly this case study provides new insights on anthropogenic mound tell formation processes social zooarchaeology material culture theory historical ontology and the analysis of ritual and religion in the archaeological record Winner of the 2023 SAfA Book Prize for a book that has been successful in taking African archaeology to a world audience Children of the Soil Tasha Rijke-Epstein, 2023-09-08 In Children of the Soil Tasha Rijke Epstein offers an urban history of the port city of Mahajanga Madagascar before during and after colonization Drawing on archival and ethnographic evidence she weaves together the lives and afterlives of built spaces to show how city residents negotiated imperial encroachment colonial rule and global racial capitalism over two centuries From Mahajanga's hilltop palace to the alluvial depths of its cesspools the city's spaces were domains for ideological debates between rulers and subjects French colonizers and indigenous Malagasy peoples and Comorian migrants and Indian traders In these spaces Mahajanga's residents expressed competing moral theories about power over people and the land The built world was also where varying populations reckoned with human ancestral and ecological pasts and laid present and future claims to urban belonging Migrants from nearby Comoros harnessed built forms as anticipatory devices through which they sought to build their presence into the landscape and transform themselves from outsiders into children of the soil zanatany In tracing the centrality of Mahajanga's architecture to everyday life Rijke Epstein offers new ways to understand the relationships between the material world the more than human realm and the making of urban life

In My Time of Dying John Parker, 2021-03-16 Why do people die and where do they go when they are dead How should the dead be buried and mourned in order to ensure that they continue to work for the benefit of the living How have perceptions and experiences of death and the ends of life changed over the centuries In My Time of Dying considers these questions from the perspective of African history In what is the first history of death in Africa John Parker examines mortuary culture and the ongoing relationship between the living and the dead over a four hundred year period Focusing anecdotally on West Africa but with a comparative awareness of comparable practices throughout the continent Parker highlights how Africans developed the world's most vibrant and recognizable cultures of death

Pilgrimage and England's Cathedrals Dee Dyas, John Jenkins, 2020-08-07 A brilliant breakthrough in pilgrimage studies An exemplary study that shows how to bring together different academic and institutional interests in a common cause understanding the relationship between pilgrimage and English cathedrals over time A publication that will hopefully inspire similar collaborative studies around the globe John Eade Professor of Sociology and Anthropology University of Roehampton UK People who oversee minister lead worship guide welcome manage market promote and maintain cathedrals will find this book an indispensable treasure It is aware of the awesome complexity inherent in cathedral life but it doesn't duck the issues its clear eyed focus is on the way people experience cathedrals and how these extraordinary holy places can speak and connect with all the diversity represented by the people who come to them In a spiritually hungry age this book shows us how to recognise and meet that hunger This book will be required reading for all us insiders trying to invite and signpost access to holy ground The Very Reverend Adrian Dorber Dean of Lichfield Chair of the Association of English

Cathedrals This book looks at England's cathedrals and their relationship with pilgrimage throughout history and in the present day The volume brings together historians social scientists and cathedral practitioners to provide groundbreaking work comprising a historical overview of the topic thematic studies and individual views from prominent clergy discussing how they see pilgrimage as part of the contemporary cathedral experience The Oxford Handbook of Prehistoric Figurines Timothy Insoll, 2017 The Oxford Handbook of Prehistoric Figurines is the first text to offer a comparative survey of figurines from across the globe bringing together myriad contemporary research approaches to provide invaluable insights into their function context meaning and use as well as past thinking on the human body gender and identity Animal Ethos Lesley A. Sharp, 2018-12-04 What kinds of moral challenges arise from encounters between species in laboratory science Animal Ethos draws on ethnographic engagement with academic labs in which experimental research involving nonhuman species provokes difficult questions involving life and death scientific progress and other competing quandaries Whereas much has been written on core bioethical values that inform regulated behavior in labs Lesley A Sharp reveals the importance of attending to lab personnel's quotidian and unscripted responses to animals Animal Ethos exposes the rich yet poorly understood moral dimensions of daily lab life where serendipitous creative and unorthodox responses are evidence of concerted efforts by researchers animal technicians veterinarians and animal activists to transform animal laboratories into moral scientific worlds

Current Perspectives in the Archaeology of Ghana Anquandah, James, Kankpeyeng, Benjamin, 2015-04-26 This collection of essays on archaeology and heritage studies is authored by local and expatriate scholars who are either past or current practitioners in archaeological work in Ghana They are from Ghana UK US and Canada The subject matter covered includes the history and evolution of the discipline in Ghana the method and theory or how to do it in archaeology field research reports and syntheses on findings from past and recent investigations The eclectic or multidisciplinary strategy has been the research vogue in Ghanaian archaeology recently and this is reflected in the various chapters The essays engage with current theoretical trends in global archaeology and also focus on the role and status of archaeology as a discipline in Ghanaian society today Archaeology is a relatively novel subject to many in Ghana This Reader will therefore be a huge asset to local students and experts alike Foreign scholars will also find it very useful

The Oxford Handbook of Islamic Archaeology Bethany Walker, Timothy Insoll, Corisande Fenwick, 2020-10-27 Born from the fields of Islamic art and architectural history the archaeological study of the Islamic societies is a relatively young discipline With its roots in the colonial periods of the late 19th and early 20th centuries its rapid development since the 1980s warrants a reevaluation of where the field stands today This Handbook represents for the first time a survey of Islamic archaeology on a global scale describing its disciplinary development and offering candid critiques of the state of the field today in the Central Islamic Lands the Islamic West Sub Saharan Africa and Asia The international contributors to the volume address such themes as the timing and process of Islamization the problems of periodization and regionalism in material culture cities and countryside cultural hybridity cultural and religious diversity natural resource management international trade in the later historical periods and migration Critical assessments of the ways in which archaeologists today engage with Islamic cultural heritage and local communities closes the volume highlighting the ethical issues related to studying living cultures and religions Richly illustrated with extensive citations it is the reference work on the debates that drive the field today

Islamisation A. C. S. Peacock, 2017-03-08 The spread of Islam and the process of Islamisation meaning both conversion to Islam and the adoption of Muslim culture is explored in the twenty four chapters of this volume Taking a comparative perspective both the historical trajectory of Islamisation and the methodological problems in its study are addressed with coverage moving from Africa to China and from the seventh century to the start of the colonial period in 1800 Key questions are addressed What is meant by Islamisation How far was the spread of Islam as a religion bound up with the spread of Muslim culture To what extent are Islamisation and conversion parallel processes How is Islamisation connected to Arabisation What role do vernacular Muslim languages play in the promotion of Muslim culture The broad comparative perspective allows readers to develop a thorough understanding of the process of Islamisation over eleven centuries of its history

Case Studies in Paleoethnobotany Deborah Pearsall, 2018-07-06 Case Studies in Paleoethnobotany focuses on interpretation in paleoethnobotany In it the reader is guided through the process of analyzing archaeobotanical data and of using that data to address research questions Part I introduces archaeobotanical remains and how they are deposited preserved sampled recovered and analyzed Five issue oriented case studies make up Part II and illustrate paleoethnobotanical inference and applications A recurrent theme is the strength of using multiple lines of evidence to address issues of significance This book is unique in its explicit focus on interpretation for consumers of paleoethnobotanical knowledge Paleoethnobotanical inference is increasingly sophisticated and contributes to our understanding of the past in ways that may not be apparent outside the field or to all practitioners The case study format allows in depth exploration of the process of interpretation in the context of significant issues that will engage readers No other work introduces paleoethnobotany and illustrates its application in this way This book will appeal to students interested in ancient plant people interrelationships as well as archaeologists paleoethnobotanists and paleoecologists The short methods chapters and topical case studies are ideal for instructors of classes in archaeological methods environmental archaeology and ethnobiology

Cultural Heritage in the Arabian Peninsula Karen Exell, Trinidad Rico, 2016-04-22 Heritage projects in the Arabian Peninsula are developing rapidly Museums and heritage sites are symbols of shifting national identities and a way of placing the Arabian Peninsula states on the international map Global i e Western heritage standards and practices have been utilised for the rapid injection of heritage expertise in museum development and site management and for international recognition The use of Western heritage models in the Arabian Peninsula inspires two key areas for research which this book examines the obscuring of indigenous concepts and practices of heritage and expressions of cultural identity and the tensions between local community concepts of heritage and identity and the new national identities being constructed through museums and heritage sites at a state level

Out of Bounds Pamela A. Patton, Maria Alessia Rossi, 2023-10-03 Where are the limits of medieval art as a field of study What happens when conventionally trained art historians disregard the chronological geographical or cultural parameters that both direct and protect their scholarship Beginning with Thelma K Thomas and Alicia Walker's acute assessment of the need for a medieval art history for now the essays in Out of Bounds ask what happens when the study of medieval art disregards boundaries that it once obeyed The volume focuses on questions surrounding the production of knowledge and on how scholarly investigation beyond the conventional thematic boundaries of medieval art history is changing demonstrating how the field can address the ethics of scholarship today by positing a global turn in response to growing demands for socially responsible medieval studies Collectively the contributors demonstrate how going out of bounds can transform modern understanding of the people traditions and relationships that gave rise to medieval works As such this book argues for the necessity of reshaping scholarly discourse about the nature and significance of medieval art and generates fresh scholarly interpretations and important new critical tools for teaching and researching the Middle Ages The contributors to this volume are Suzanne Conklin Akbari Michele Bacci Jill Caskey Eva Frojmovic Sarah M Gu rin Christina Maranci Alice Isabella Sullivan Thelma K Thomas Michele Tomasi and Alicia Walker

Death Rituals and Social Order in the Ancient World Colin Renfrew, Michael J. Boyd, Iain Morley, 2016 This volume with essays by leading archaeologists and prehistorians considers how prehistoric humans attempted to recognise understand and conceptualise death

Ennedi, Tales on stone. Rock art in the Ennedi massif Roberta Simonis, Adriana Ravenna, Pier Paolo Rossi, 2017-12-18 In the last few decades a surprisingly large variety of subjects and styles of rock art have been brought to light in northern Chad by scholars and passionate travellers In the Ennedi region relatively recent painted scenes of daily life occur but also earlier human figures and rare events such as a leopard hunt However what is really characteristic of this region are the galloping mounted horses and camels painted in original styles Interestingly the DStretch plugin to ImageJ has recently made it possible to see that in some cases the visible paintings are superimposed on older faint images very different in style and barely discernible to the naked eye In some cases paintings in an archaic style are revealed where just blurry spots appear on rocks Farther to the east on the Ennedi plateau the Niola Doa groups of intricately decorated human figures stand out as a superlative example of Saharan art The focus of the volume is the most significant art blended into the spectacular landforms of the region We can only imagine the Ennedi landscape at the time the artists were decorating the rock surfaces with their pictograms and petroglyphs but it must have been a sensational sight

African Archaeology Without Frontiers Chapurukha M Kusimba, Santores Tchandeu, Dirk Seidensticker, Adrienne Daggett, Marilee Wood, Laure Dussubieux, Tim Forssman, Kate Smuts, Nick Wiltshire, Akin Ogundiran, Matthew Davies, Caleb Adebayo Folorunso, Timothy Kipkeu Kipruto, Freda M'Mbogori, Henrietta L

Moore, Emubosa Orijemie, Alex Schoeman, Festo W Gabriel, Elinaza Mjema, Philip de Barros, Gabriella Lucidi, Narcisse, 2016-12-01 Confronting national linguistic and disciplinary boundaries contributors to African Archaeology Without Frontiers argue against artificial limits and divisions created through the study of ages that in reality overlap and cannot and should not be understood in isolation Papers are drawn from the proceedings of the landmark 14th PanAfrican Archaeological Association Congress held in Johannesburg in 2014 nearly seven decades after the conference planned for 1951 was re located to Algiers for ideological reasons following the National Party's rise to power in South Africa Contributions by keynote speakers Chapurukha Kusimba and Akin Ogundiran encourage African archaeologists to practise an archaeology that collaborates across many related fields of study to enrich our understanding of the past The nine papers cover a broad geographical sweep by incorporating material on ongoing projects throughout the continent including South Africa Botswana Cameroon Togo Tanzania Kenya and Nigeria Thematically the papers included in the volume address issues of identity and interaction and the need to balance cultural heritage management and sustainable development derived from a continent racked by social inequalities and crippling poverty Edited by three leading archaeologists the collection covers many aspects of African archaeology and a range of periods from the earliest hominins to the historical period It will appeal to specialists and interested amateurs

Das Theologoumenon der „Ahnenschaft“ Christi im Kontext der Sakramententheologie Gerald Gabriel Mutarubukwa, Die Frage der Inkulturation des Christentums in den afrikanischen Kontext gewinnt derzeit an Bedeutung Dazu muss die afrikanische Vorstellung der Ahnenschaft mit der römisch-katholischen Theologie ins Gespräch gebracht werden Dieses Buch basiert auf Nyamitis' anzeustraler Tauftheologie die die Taufe als Erweiterung der Bruder Ahnenschaft Christi betrachtet Im Mittelpunkt steht die im Sakrament begründete christliche Beziehung unter den Getauften und mit anderen Menschen Dadurch wird das theologische Konzept der Bruder Ahnenschaft Christi im Bezug zur kirchlichen Sakramentenlehre dargestellt

The Oxford Handbook of African Archaeology Peter Mitchell, Paul Lane, 2013-07-04 Africa has the longest and arguably the most diverse archaeological record of any of the continents It is where the human lineage first evolved and from where Homo sapiens spread across the rest of the world Later it witnessed novel experiments in food production and unique trajectories to urbanism and the organisation of large communities that were not always structured along strictly hierarchical lines Millennia of engagement with societies in other parts of the world confirm Africa's active participation in the construction of the modern world while the richness of its history ethnography and linguistics provide unusually powerful opportunities for constructing interdisciplinary narratives of Africa's past This Handbook provides a comprehensive and up to date synthesis of African archaeology covering the entirety of the continent's past from the beginnings of human evolution to the archaeological legacy of European colonialism As well as covering almost all periods and regions of the continent it includes a mixture of key methodological and theoretical issues and debates and situates the subject's contemporary practice within the discipline's history and the infrastructural challenges now facing its practitioners Bringing together essays on all these themes from over seventy contributors many of them living and working in Africa it offers a highly accessible contemporary account of the subject for use by scholars and students of not only archaeology but also history anthropology and other disciplines Caravans of Gold, Fragments in Time Kathleen Bickford Berzock, 2019-02-26 Issued in conjunction with the exhibition Caravans of Gold Fragments in Time held January 26 2019 July 21 2019 Mary and Leigh Block Museum of Art Northwestern University Evanston Illinois
