Harvesting The Fruits Basic Aspects Of Christian Faith In Ecumenical Dialogue:

Harvesting the Fruits Walter Kasper, 2009-12-14 Cardinal Kasper summarises the results of his intense dialogues with Anglican Orthodox Lutheran Reformed and Methodist Churches and sets out a blue print for consensus and convergence and sets out a map for the way forward Harvesting the fruits Walter Kasper, 2009 Vatican Council II Elizabeth Harrington, David Orr, Carmel Pilcher, 2013-08-31 Sacrosanctum Concilium opened the door to all Christians to understand the contemporary challenge to their life and health and it started with the reform of the liturgy In the words of Paul VI the liturgy is the first source of life communicated to us the first school of our spiritual life the first gift we can give to Christian people by our believing and praying and the first invitation to the world That is surely true for all of us Reconciling Theology Paul Avis, 2022-02-28 In Reconciling Theology leading thinker on Anglicanism and ecumenism Paul Avis focuses on the perennial Christian issues of argument debate polemic and conflict on the one hand and dialogue search for common ground working for agreement and harmony on the other Exploring the tension and interaction between them in a range of contexts in modern theology and the Church Avis offers a rigorous but accessible vision of church which moves beyond the usual dichotomy of liberal or orthodox A Light to the Nations Stanley M. Burgess, Paul W. Lewis, 2017-03-02 The essays in this volume which are written by friends colleagues and former students are dedicated to Gary B McGee as a memorial to his life work and service As a professor with a clear calling to teach he modeled this passion at the Open Bible College Des Moines Iowa Central Bible College Springfield Missouri and the Assemblies of God Theological Seminary Springfield Missouri He exuded the understanding that quality teaching superior scholarship a genuine Pentecostal spirituality and an irenic spirit can and should go together Within the title of this volume A Light to the Nations two aspects become clear First each person is called to be a light to the nations as Gary McGee modeled Second and foundational to the first is the reality that Jesus Christ is the ultimate light and our energies study discussions and life in general should rely on this fact As a reflection of Gary McGee s life and ministry these two aspects are focused through three lenses which are the three sections of this volume Ecumenism Missions and Pentecostalism The essays represent a diversity of subjects and denote various explorations by colleagues and friends of Gary B McGee Celebrating a Century of Ecumenism John A. Radano, 2012-04-30 Modern ecumenism traces its roots back to the 1910 World Missionary Conference in Edinburgh Celebrating a Century of Ecumenism brings readers up to date on one hundred years of global dialogue between many different church traditions including Anglican Lutheran Methodist Roman Catholic Pentecostal Evangelical Orthodox Baptist Disciples of Christ Oriental Orthodox and more Eighteen essays by authors representing a wide spectrum of denominational interests outline the achievements of this movement toward unity The first part of the book focuses on multilateral dialogue that involved a variety of churches attempting to delineate common ground with considerable progress reported The second part describes bilateral discussions between two churches or groups of churches Celebrating a Century of Ecumenism is one

Remembering the Reformation

Michael Root, James J. Buckley, 2017-12-13 In 1517 Martin Luther set off what has been called at least since the nineteenth century the Protestant Reformation Can Christians of differing traditions commemorate the upcoming 500th anniversary of this event together How do we understand and assess the Reformation today What calls for celebration What calls for repentance Can the Reformation anniversary be an occasion for greater mutual understanding among Catholics Orthodox and Protestants At the 2015 Pro Ecclesia annual conference for clergy and laity meeting at the Catholic University of America in Washington DC an array of scholars Catholic and Orthodox Evangelical Lutheran and American Evangelical as well as Methodist addressed this topic The aim of this book is not only to collect these diverse Catholic and Evangelical perspectives but also to provide resources for all Christians including pastors and scholars to think and argue about the roads we have taken since 1517 as we also learn to pray with Jesus Christ that all may be one John 17 21

The Oxford Handbook of Sacramental Theology Hans Boersma, Matthew Levering, 2015-08-06 As a multi faceted introduction to sacramental theology the purposes of this Handbook are threefold historical ecumenical and missional The forty four chapters are organized into the following parts five parts Sacramental Roots in Scripture Patristic Sacramental Theology Medieval Sacramental Theology From the Reformation through Today and Philosophical and Theological Issues in Sacramental Doctrine Contributors to this Handbook explain the diverse ways that believers have construed the sacraments both in inspired Scripture and in the history of the Church s practice In Scripture and the early Church Orthodox Protestants and Catholics all find evidence that the first Christian communities celebrated and taught about the sacraments in a manner that Orthodox Protestants and Catholics today affirm as the foundation of their own faith and practice Thus for those who want to understand what has been taught about the sacraments in Scripture and across the generations by the major thinkers of the various Christian traditions this Handbook provides an introduction As the divisions in Christian sacramental understanding and practice are certainly evident in this Handbook it is not thereby without ecumenical and missional value This book evidences that the story of the Christian sacraments is despite divisions in interpretation and practice one of tremendous hope

Revisioning, Renewing, Rediscovering the Triune Center Derek J. Tidball, Brian S. Harris, Dr Jason S Sexton, 2014-11-10 An international cast of theologians come together in this volume to offer essays in tribute to the late Stanley J Grenz one of the leading theologians of his generation Accordingly the volume includes timely explorations in some of the most exciting areas in contemporary theology It is only fitting that these very explorations revolve around the key motifs of Grenz s theology Trinity community eschatology and the key sources from which he drew for theology s construction Scripture tradition culture While engaging key features seen in Grenz's work some of the essays here interact with Grenz's own writings reflecting on his theological journey and his contributions to evangelical theology In these ways this volume highlights the kind of evangelical theology that so many have experienced in recent years and of which Stan Grenz was a leading proponent Revisioning Renewing Rediscovering the Triune Center then makes a significant contribution to discussions in contemporary theology while itself setting out to honor the life and work of an eminent theologian who did so much for evangelical theology

The Oxford Handbook of Ecumenical Studies † Geoffrey Wainwright, Paul McPartlan, 2021-05-25 The Oxford Handbook of Ecumenical Studies is an unparalleled compendium of ecumenical history information and reflection With essay contributions by nearly fifty experts in their various fields and edited by two leading international scholars the Handbook is a major resource for all who are involved or interested in ecumenical work for reconciliation between Christians and for the unity of the Church Its six main sections consider respectively the different phases of the history of the ecumenical movement from the mid nineteenth century to the present the ways in which leading Christian churches and traditions Orthodox Anglican Methodist Catholic Lutheran Reformed Baptist and Pentecostal have engaged with and contributed to the movement the achievements of ecumenical dialogue in key areas of Christian doctrine such as Christology and ecclesiology baptism Eucharist and ministry morals and mission and the issues that remain outstanding various ecumenical agencies and instruments such as covenants and dialogues the World Council of Churches the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity and the Global Christian Forum the progress and difficulties of ecumenism in different countries areas and continents of the world the UK and the USA Africa Asia South America Europe and the Middle East and finally two all important questions are considered by scholars from various traditions what would Christian unity look like and what is the best method for seeking it This is a remarkably comprehensive account and assessment of one of the most outstanding features of Christian history namely the modern ecumenical movement

For a Missionary Reform of the Church Antonio Spadaro, SJ, Carlos Maria

Galli, 2017 Thirty essays presented at a symposium that deals with reform of the church and reforms in the church according to the vision of Pope Francis

Fundamental Theology of the Priesthood, A Cardinal Ouellet, Marc, 2023 The Symposium for a Fundamental Theology of the Priesthood held at the Vatican from February 17 to 19 2022 inaugurated a new phase of theological and pastoral reflection in the context of contemporary questions regarding the ministry of priests and the priesthood of the baptized The deepening of the relationship between the two participations baptismal and ministerial in the one priesthood of Christ is fundamental for renewing the mission of the Church in the spirit of openness and dialogue of the Second Vatican Council This perspective is also pertinent for the promotion and communication of all vocations especially that of women whose charisms are yet to be fully recognized and integrated in their rightful place within the life of the Church Finally and no less important this reflection offers synodal practice a solid theological foundation for making the participation of the faithful dynamic which must not only correct the limitations and defects of the exercise of the ordained ministry but also actively and permanently exercise the gifts and charisms that the Holy Spirit has poured out on all baptized people

An Ecumenical Odyssey Stanley Jayakumar Yesudass, 2024 No less than two decades were needed for the composition of the ecumenical convergence document The Church Towards a Common Vision TCTCV which was published by the World Council of Churches in 2013 The document was intended to reflect a common vision of churches and ecumenical stakeholders on a myriad of ecclesiological themes The book investigates whether the convergence document TCTCV delivers on its promises The book focuses on the formation and the reception of TCTCV along with the two draft versions The Nature and Purpose of the Church 1998 and The Nature and Mission of the Church 2005 and uncovers whether the responses by the churches to TCTCV hold an affirmation of the convergences registered in the document Furthermore it seeks to establish whether the responses point towards a common vision concerning various ecclesiological themes that are still contested by the churches today The book also explores whether the responses to TCTCV reveal an advancement in the conversation surrounding several debated issues and examines to what extent the churches are willing to creatively engage with the ecclesial other

The Dialogic Evangelical Theology of Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen Peter Goodwin Heltzel, Patrick Oden, Amos Yong, 2022-02-21 In this book established scholars from different religions regions and disciplines continue the dialogue that Veli Matti Kärkkäinen began in his A Constructive Christian Theology for the Pluralistic World series and respond to his work in light of their diverse expertise and context Each of the three parts focuses on a key area of Kärkkäinen's engaging work 1 highlighting how his method shaped each volume 2 highlighting his commitment to global perspectives and 3 highlighting his interreligious and interdisciplinary dialogue partners Together these essays seek to deepen and extend the impact of Kärkkäinen's work taking it seriously as a substantive model for contemporary systematic theology in listening and engaging with this world

Spirit Flowing Like Water Nausikaa Haupt, Olle Kristenson, Michael Nausner, Gregory Ryan, 2025-06-19 What if churches focused less on wanting other Christian traditions to become more like theirs and more on exploring what they might learn from them Might this not only help churches to deepen faith mission and service but also revitalize the ecumenical landscape with new possibilities This is the provocative and inspiring vision presented by Receptive Ecumenism a movement which has crossed denominations and continents engaging church leaders ecumenists scholars and Christians in their everyday lives Spirit Flowing Like Water presents the latest conversations in this field It not only engages leading scholars and practitioners of Receptive Ecumenism between churches but also explores the possibility of learning from difference within a church community Internal Receptive Ecumenism and adapting the approach to a wider ecumenism beyond the visible church Church leaders ecumenists and theologians from five continents have contributed chapters on transforming ecumenism practicing mission in context and broadening the horizon They write not only for those already engaged in ecumenical work but with an invitation to all communities leaders and individuals to take a fresh look at what walking together in Christ means in our polarized world
