Havana Mark Kurlansky, 2018-03-06 A city of tropical heat ramshackle beauty and its very own cadence a city that always surprises Havana is brought to pulsing life by New York Times bestselling author Mark Kurlansky Award winning author Mark Kurlansky presents an insider's view of Havana the elegant tattered city he has come to know over more than thirty years Part cultural history part travelogue with recipes historic engravings photographs and Kurlansky's own pen and ink drawings throughout Havana celebrates the city's singular music literature baseball and food its five centuries of outstanding neglected architecture and its extraordinary blend of cultures Like all great cities Havana has a rich history that informs the vibrant place it is today from the native Taino to Columbus's landing from Cuba's status as a U S protectorate to Batista's dictatorship and Castro's revolution from Soviet presence to the welcoming of capitalist tourism Havana is a place of extremes a beautifully restored colonial city whose cobblestone streets pass through areas that have not been painted or repaired since long before the revolution Kurlansky shows Havana through the eyes of Cuban writers such as Alejo Carpentier and Jos Mart and foreigners including Graham Greene and Hemingway He introduces us to Cuban baseball and its highly opinionated fans the city's music scene alive with the rhythm of son its culinary legacy Through Mark Kurlansky's multilayered and electrifying portrait the long elusive city of Havana comes stirring to life Havana Alfredo José Estrada, 2025-09-23 Alfredo José Estrada's intimate ties to Havana form the basis for this autobiography written as though from the city's own heart Covering the island's five hundred year history Estrada portrays the adventurers and dreamers who left their mark on Havana including Jos Mart martyr for Cuban independence and Ernest Hemingway the most American of writers who became an unabashed Habanero Deeply personal and affecting Havana is the accessible and complete story of the city for the history buff and armchair traveler alike

Aesthetics and the Revolutionary City James Clifford Kent, 2018-09-22 Aesthetics and the Revolutionary City engages in alternative ways of reading foreign visual representations of Havana through analysis of advertising images documentary films and photographic texts It explores key narratives relating to the projection of different Havana imaginaries and focuses on a range of themes including pre revolutionary Cuba the dream of revolution and the metaphor of the city frozen in time The book also synthesizes contemporary debates regarding the notion of Havana as a real and imagined city space and fleshes out its theoretical insights with a series of stand alone important case studies linked to the representation of the Cuban capital in the Western imaginary The interpretations in the book bring into focus a range of critical historical moments in Cuban history including the Cuban Revolution and the Special Period and consider the ways in which they have been projected in advertising documentary film and photography outside the island American Colonisation and the City Beautiful Ian Morley, 2019-10-30 Winner of the 2020 IPHS Koos Bosma Prize American Colonisation and the City Beautiful explores the history of city planning and the evolution of the built environment in the Philippines between 1916 and 1935 In so doing it highlights the activities of the Bureau of Public Works Division of Architecture as part of Philippine national development and decolonisation Morley provides new archival materials which deliver significant insight into the dynamics associated with both governance and city planning during the American colonial era in the Philippines with links between prominent American university educators and Filipino architecture students The book discusses the two cities of Tayabas and Iloilo which highlight the significant role in the urban design of places beyond the typical historiographical focus of Manila and Baguio These examples will aid in further understanding the appearance and meaning of Philippine cities during an important era in the nation's history Including numerous black and white images this book is essential for academics researchers and students of city and urban planning the history and development of Southeast Asia and those interested in colonial relations Exporting American Architecture 1870-2000 Jeffrey W. Cody, 2005-06-27 The export of American architecture began in the nineteenth century as a disjointed set of personal adventures and commercial initiatives It continues today alongside the transfer of other aspects of American life and culture to most regions of the world Jeffrey Cody explains how why and where American architects planners building contractors and other actors have marketed American architecture overseas In so doing he provides a historical perspective on the diffusion of American building technologies architectural standards construction methods and planning paradigms Using previously undocumented examples and illustrations he shows how steel frame manufacturers shipped their products abroad enabling the erection of American style skyscrapers worldwide by 1900 and how this phase was followed by similar initiatives by companies manufacturing concrete components

Great Houses of Havana Hermes Mallea,2011-11-08 Great Houses of Havana celebrates one hundred years of creativity design and style that made the city the Paris of the Caribbean For four hundred years Havana was the center of Spanish trade in the western hemisphere With the expansion of the sugar industry independence from Spain and North American investment Havana became a city of great wealth great style and great houses in a vocabulary that was a unique amalgam of European American and Caribbean elements Great Houses of Havana traces the evolution of the Cuban home from the classic Spanish colonial courtyard house to the Tropical Modernist villas of the 1950s houses reflecting international architecture trends while remaining true to the Cuban tradition Cuba s social history is woven throughout the book Vintage photographs illustrate Havana s sophisticated lifestyle the masked balls yacht club picnics and dynastic weddings of fashionable Cubans and their international guests Popular cafes hotels theaters and weekend resorts are also featured creating a view of the privileged life inside the gated mansions of the city s grandest neighborhoods

The Palgrave Handbook of Transnational Women's Writing in the Long Nineteenth Century Claire Emilie Martin,Clorinda Donato,2024-03-14 This handbook explores the rich and as yet understudied field of women s writing during the nation building years that characterized the global politics of the long nineteenth century In the wake of the American and French Revolutions the waning of the Spanish Empire subsequent Latin American uprisings and the Italian Risorgimento nineteenth century women writers cracked wide open the myths of gender race and class that had sustained the ancien r gime This volume shows that the transnational networks of women writing about politics sexuality economics and the forging of the modern nation were much broader and more inclusive at a global level than has previously been understood The handbook uniquely foregrounds French Italian Latin American and Spanish women writers focusing on the transnational nature of their relationships and cultural production within a growing body of research that casts an ever wider net in the effort to document women s voices

Havana Joseph L. Scarpaci,Roberto Segre,Mario Coyula,2002 Newly revised and redesigned this book assesses nearly 500 years of urban development and planning in Havana paying particular attention to the city s rich blend of Spanish Cuban Latin American North American architecture and design Beyond the Walled City Guadalupe Garcia,2016 Once one of the most important port cities in the New World Havana was a model for the planning and construction of other colonial cities This book tells the story of how Havana was conceived built and managed and explores the relationship between colonial empire and urbanization in the Americas Guadalupe Garc a shows how the policing of urban life and public space by imperial authorities from the sixteenth century onward was explicitly centered on politics of racial exclusion and social control She illustrates the importance of colonial ideologies in the production of urban space and the centrality of race and racial exclusion as an organizing ideology of urban life in Havana Beyond the Walled City connects colonial urban practices to contemporary debates on urbanization the policing of public spaces and the urban dislocation of black and ethnic populations across the region Provided by publisher Cuban Studies 31 Lisandro Perez,Uva de Aragon,2000-12-15 Cuban Studies has been published annually by the University of Pittsburgh Press since 1985 Founded in 1970 it is the preeminent journal for scholarly work on Cuba Each volume includes articles in both English and Spanish a large book review section and an exhaustive compilation of recent works in the field Cuban Palimpsests Jose Quiroga,2005 Four decades ago the Cuban revolution captured the world s attention and imagination Its impact around the world was as much cultural as geopolitical Within Cuba the state developed a strictly defined national and collective memory that led directly from a colonial past to a utopian future but this narrative came to a halt in the early 1990s The collapse of Cuba s sponsor the Soviet Union and the end of the Cold War preceded the so called Special Period in Times of Peace a euphemistic phrase that masked the genuine anxiety shared by leaders and people about the nation s future In Cuban Palimpsests Jos Quiroga explores the sites both physical and imaginative where memory bears upon Cuba s collective history in ways that illuminate this extended moment of uncertainty Crossing geographical political and cultural borders Quiroga moves with ease between Cuba Miami and New York He traces generational shifts within the exile community contrasts Havana s cultural richness with its economic impoverishment follows the cloak and dagger narratives of revolutionary and counterrevolutionary spy fiction and film and documents the world s ongoing fascination with Cuban culture From the nostalgic photographs of Walker Evans to the iconic stature of Fidel Castro from the literary expressions of despair to the beat of Cuban musical rhythms from the haunting legacy of artist Ana Mendieta to the death of Celia Cruz and the reburial of Che Guevara Cuban Palimpsests memorializes the ruins of Cuba s past and offers a powerful meditation on its enigmatic place within the new world order Jos Quiroga is professor and department chair of Spanish and Portuguese at Emory University He is the author of Understanding Octavio Paz and Tropics of Desire Interventions from Queer Latino America

Postcolonial Literatures in the Local Literary Marketplace Jenni Ramone,2020-08-06 This book asks what reading means in India Nigeria the UK and Cuba through close readings of literary texts from postcolonial spatial architectural cartographic materialist trauma and gender perspectives It contextualises these close readings through new interpretations of local literary marketplaces to assert the significance of local not global meanings The book offers longer case studies on novels that stage important reading moments Alejo Carpentier s The Lost Steps 1953 Leonardo Padura s Adios Hemingway 2001 Tabish Khair s Filming 2007 Chibundhu Onuzo s Welcome to Lagos 2017 and Zadie Smith s Swing Time 2016 Chapters argue that while India's literary market was disrupted by Partition literature offers a means of moving beyond trauma in post Revolutionary Cuba the Special Period led to exploitation of Cuban literary culture resulting in texts that foreground reading spaces in Nigeria the market hosts meeting negotiation reflection and trade including the writer's trade while Black consciousness bookshops and writing in Britain operated to challenge the UK literary market a project still underway This book is a vindication of reading and of the resistant power and creative potential of local literary marketplaces It insists on located reading enabling close reading of world literatures sited in their local materialities La Belle Créole Alina García-Lapuerta, 2014-09-01 The adventurous woman nicknamed La Belle Cr ole is brought to life in this book through the full use of her memoirs contemporary accounts and her intimate letters The fascinating Mar a de las Mercedes Santa Cruz y Montalvo also known as Mercedes and later the Comtesse Merlin was a Cuban born aristocrat who was years ahead of her time as a writer a socialite a salon host and a participant in the Cuban slavery debate Raised in Cuba and shipped off to live with her socialite mother in Spain at the age of 13 Mercedes triumphed over the political chaos that blanketed Europe in the Napoleonic days by charming aristocrats from all sides with her exotic beauty and singing voice She married General Merlin in Napoleon's army and discussed painting with Francisco de Goya In Paris she hosted the city's premier musical salon where Liszt Rossini and great divas of the day performed for Rothschilds Balzac and royalty Celebrated as one of the greatest amateur sopranos of her day Mercedes also achieved fame as a writer Her memoirs and travel writings introduced European audiences to 19th century Cuban society and contributed to the debate over slavery Mercedes has recently been rediscovered as Cuba's earliest female author and one who deserves a place in the canon of Latin American literature

Cuba Ted A. Henken, Miriam Celaya, Dimas Castellanos, 2013-10-29 Written by some of the best known independent scholars citizen journalists cyber activists and bloggers living in Cuba today this book presents a critical complete and unbiased overview of contemporary Cuba In this era of ever increasing globalization and communication across national borders Cuba remains an isolated island oddly out of step with the rest of the world And yet Cuba is beginning to evolve via the important if still insufficient changes instituted by Raul Castro who became president in 2008 This book supplies a uniquely independent accurate and critical perspective in order to evaluate these changes in the context of the island's rich and complex history and culture Organized into seven topical chapters that address geography history politics and government economics society culture and contemporary issues readers will gain a broad insightful understanding of one of the most unusual fascinating and often misunderstood nations in the Western Hemisphere Historic Cities of the Americas David F. Marley, 2005-09-12 With rare maps prints and photographs this unique volume explores the dramatic history of the Americas through the birth and development of the hemisphere's great cities Written by award winning author David F Marley Historic Cities of the Americas covers the hard to find information of these cities earliest years including the unique aspects of each region's economy and demography such as the growth of local mining trade or industry The chronological layout aided by the numerous maps and photographs reveals the exceptional changes relocations destruction and transformations these cities endured to become the metropolises they are today Historic Cities of the Americas provides over 70 extensively detailed entries covering the foundation and evolution of the most significant urban areas in the western hemisphere Critically researched this work offers a rare look into the times prior to Christopher Columbus arrival in 1492 and explores the common difficulties overcome by these European conquered or founded cities as they flourished into some of the most influential locations in the world The House on G Street Lisandro Pérez, 2023-10-10 Through the intimate lens of one family the dramatic history that led to the Cuban Revolution is brought to life in this highly personal and moving story that combines memoir oral history family papers and archival research Afro-Cuban Religious Arts Kristine Juncker, 2014-07-15 This book profiles four generations of women from one Afro Cuban religious family From a plantation in Havana Province in the 1890s to a religious center in Spanish Harlem in the 1960s these women were connected by their prominent roles as leaders in the religions they practiced and the dramatic ritual artwork they created Each woman was a medium in Espiritismo communicating with dead ancestors for guidance or insight and also a santera or priest of Santería who could intervene with the oricha pantheon Kristine Juncker argues that by creating art for more than one religion these women shatter the popular assumption that Afro Caribbean religions are exclusive organizations Most remarkably the portraiture sculptures and photographs in Afro Cuban Religious Arts offer rare glimpses into the rituals and iconography of these religions Santería altars are closely guarded limited to initiates and typically destroyed upon the death of the santera while Espiritismo artifacts are rarely considered valuable enough to pass on The unique and protean cultural legacy detailed here reveals insights into how ritual art became popular imagery sparked a wider dialogue about culture inheritance attracted new practitioners and enabled the movement to explode internationally
