and regulations Formally and according to most popular accounts responsibility lies with European politicians who are directly elected MEPs or indirectly accountable to elected bodies at the European or national level council In practice however as this book shows things can be very different The real makers of European legislation and rules are frequently unelected and far from the public gaze This book describes and evaluates the role of many such unseen lawmakers including commission officials experts from national governments and companies lobbyists secretaries of the council and others

Lobbying in the European Parliament Maja Kluger Dionigi, 2016-12-01 This book explains when and how interest groups are influential in the European Parliament which has become one of the most important lobbying venues in the EU Yet we know little about the many ways in which interest groups and lobbyists influence parliamentary politics The author offers insights on four key cases of lobbying based on the analysis of EU documents lobbying letters and 150 interviews She argues that lobbying success depends on a number of factors most notably the degree of counter lobbying issue salience and committee receptiveness These factors are brought together in the framework of Triple I interests issues and institutions to determine the success or failure of lobbying This book will be of use to students and scholars interested in EU politics and governance EU decision making and interest group politics along with policy makers and practitioners governments and how they are controlled

Governance and the Democratic Deficit Victor Bekkers, Geske Dijkstra, Menno Fenger, 2016-04-22 It is widely acknowledged that we are witnessing a major transformation of public policy making a transformation which has been labelled as a change from government to governance Governance is used to describe policy making and implementation without a central authority in a non hierarchical network like structure through negotiation and cooperation between public and private actors at one or across different political levels This comprehensive volume combines empirical analysis and normative assessment of governance practices providing a systematic approach based on a framework for assessing democratic legitimacy It addresses different modes of governance at the local regional national European and international levels The volume assesses the alleged democratic deficit of these new governance practices and as such is ideally suited to courses on public administration

Geopolitics and Expertise Merje Kuus, 2013-12-24 Geopolitics and Expertise is an in depth exploration of how expert knowledge is created and exercised in the external relations machinery of the European Union Provides a rare full length work on transnational diplomatic practice Based on a rigorous and empirical study involving over 100 interviews with policy professionals over seven years Focuses on the qualitative and contextual rather than the quantitative and uniform Moves beyond traditional political science to blend human geography international relations anthropology and sociology

The Real World of EU Accountability Mark Bovens, Deirdre Curtin, Paul 't Hart, 2010-06-24 The Real World of EU Accountability reports the findings of a major empirical study into patterns and practices of accountability in European governance The product of a 4 year path breaking project this book assesses to what extent and how the people that populate the key arenas where European public policy is made or implemented are held accountable Using a systematic analytical framework it examines not just the formal accountability arrangements but also documents and compares how these operate in practice In doing so it provides a unique empirically grounded contribution to the pivotal but often remarkably fact free debate about democracy and accountability in European governance With four empirical chapters covering the Commission and its agencies the European Council and Comitology committees it shows that a web of formal accountability arrangements has been woven around most of them but that the extent to which the relevant accountability forums actually use the oversight possibilities offered to them varies markedly some forums lack the institutional resources others the willingness But in those cases where both are on the increase as in the European Parliament's efforts vis à vis the European Commission fundamentally healthy accountability relationships are developing Although ex post accountability is only part of the larger equation determining the democratic quality of European governance this study suggests that at least in this area the EU is slowly but surely reducing its democratic deficit

Analyzing the European Union Policy Process Esther Versluis, Mendeltje van Keulen, Paul Stephenson, 2010-10-15 Readers are provided with a practical insight into how to analyze policies and policy making in the EU Using case studies to deepen readers' understanding this book examines the various stages of the policy process from the moment the issue reaches the agenda through to drafting implementation and evaluation

EU Foreign Policy and Post-Soviet Conflicts Nicu Popescu, 2010-12-10 The European Union is still emerging as a fully fledged foreign policy actor The vagaries of this process are clearly visible yet insufficiently explained in the EU policies towards the post Soviet space EU Foreign Policy and Post Soviet Conflicts examines EU intervention and non intervention in conflict resolution with a specific focus on the EU's role in the post soviet conflicts in the South Caucasus and Moldova Abkhazia South Ossetia Nagorno Karabakh and Transnistria It explains how EU foreign policy affected these conflicts but more importantly what EU intervention in these conflicts reveal about the EU itself Based on extensive field research the author argues that the reluctant EU intervention in post Soviet conflicts results from a dichotomous relationship between EU institutions and some EU member states Popescu argues this demonstrates that EU institutions use policies of stealth intervention where they seek to play a greater role in the post Soviet space but they do so through relatively low profile uncontroversial and depoliticised actions in order to avoid visible Russian opposition Exploring an array of questions related to the EU as a foreign policy actor this book traces the politics of conflict intervention by EU institutions using original empirical data related to the EU decision making process and will be of interest to students and scholars of European politics conflict resolution foreign policy and Post Soviet politics
