Mad Bad And Sad A History Of Women And The Mind Doctors:

Mad, Bad And Sad Lisa Appignanesi, 2011-10-06 Mad bad and sad From the depression suffered by Virginia Woolf and Sylvia Plath to the mental anguish and addictions of iconic beauties Zelda Fitzgerald and Marilyn Monroe From Freud and Jung and the radical breakthroughs of psychoanalysis to Lacan's construction of a modern movement and the new women centred therapies This is the story of how we have understood mental disorders and extreme states of mind in women over the last two hundred years and how we conceive of them today when more and more of our inner life and emotions have become a matter for medics and therapists

Mad, Bad and Sad Lisa Appignanesi, 2008 This brave and brilliantly researched intellectual history chronicles the relationship between women and mental illness since 1800 taking readers on a fascinating journey through the fragile extraordinary human mind 5 illustrations Mad, Bad and Sad Lisa

Appignanesi, 2008 From the depression suffered by Virginia Woolf and Sylvia Plath to the mental anguish and addictions of iconic beauties Zelda Fitzgerald and Marilyn Monroe From Theroigne de Mericourt Fury of the Gironde who descended from the bloody triumphs of the French Revolution to untameable insanity in La Salpetriere asylum to Mary Lamb sister of Charles who in the throes of a nervous breakdown turned on her mother with a kitchen knife From Freud and Jung to Lacan and the new women centred therapies This is the story of how we have understood extreme states of mind over the last two hundred years and how we conceive of them today when more and more of our inner life and emotions have become a matter for medics and therapists Here too is the story of the professions that have grown up to offer treatment of how over the years symptoms and diagnoses have developed together to create fashions in illness and how treatments have succeeded or sometimes failed even when those providing care were women too MAD BAD AND SAD takes us on a fascinating journey through the fragile extraordinary human mind

Monstrous Women and Ecofeminism in the Victorian Gothic, 1837-1871 Nicole C. Dittmer, 2024-04-08 Nicole C Dittmer offers a reimagining of the popular Gothic female monster figure in early to mid Victorian literature Regardless of the extensive scholarship concerning monstrosities these pre fin de si cle figurations have often been neglected by critical studies or interpreted as fragments of mind and body which create a division between culture and nature In Monstrous Women and Ecofeminism Dittmer deploys monism to delineate from and contest such dualism unifies the material immaterial aspects of fictional women and blurs the distinction between nature culture Blending intertextual disciplines of medical sciences ecofeminism and fiction she exposes female monstrosities as material and semiotic figurations This book then identifies how women in the Victorian Gothic are informed by the entanglement of both immaterial discourses and material conditions When repressed by social customs the monistic mind body of the material semiotic figure reacts to and disrupts processes of ontology transforming women into wild and monstrous re presentations The Routledge Handbook of International Development, Mental Health and Wellbeing Laura Davidson,2019-06-19 Mental health has always been a low priority worldwide Yet more than 650 million people are estimated to meet diagnostic criteria for common mental disorders such as depression and anxiety with almost three quarters of that burden in low and middle income countries Nowhere in the world does mental health enjoy parity with physical health Notwithstanding astonishing medical advancements in treatments for physical illnesses mental disorder continues to have a startlingly high mortality rate However despite its widespread neglect there is now an emerging international imperative to improve global mental health and wellbeing The UN s current international development agenda finalised at the end of 2015 contains 17 Sustainable Development Goals SDGs including SDG3 which seeks to ensure healthy lives and promote wellbeing for all at all ages Although much broader in focus than the previous eight Millennium Development Goals MDGs the need for worldwide improvement in mental health has finally been recognised This Handbook addresses the new UN agenda in the context of mental health and sustainable development examining its implications for national and international policy makers decision makers researchers and funding agencies Conceptual evidence based and practical discussions crossing a range of disciplines are presented from the world s leading mental health experts Together they explore why a commitment to investing in mental health for the fulfilment of SDG3 ought to be an absolute global priority Desperate Housewives, Neuroses and the Domestic Environment, 1945-1970 Ali Haggett,2015-10-06 Although the figure of the desperate housewife is familiar to us Haggett suggests that many women in the 1950s and 60s led satisfying lives and that gender roles while very different were often seen as equal Jungian and Interdisciplinary Interfaces Between Emotions Elizabeth Brodersen,Isabelle Meier,Valeria Céspedes Musso,2025-04-09 C G Jung stressed that emotions are the driving forces behind social and psychological lives enabling individuals to connect with themselves and their environment Divided into five parts this innovative volume explores the enmeshments between emotions The material locates emotions within the context of nonverbal developmental somatic embodiment eco political and psychosocial engagement gender and LGBTQ Shadow phenomenology history myth and the effects of war are likewise explored in depth Each theme expertly stimulates a resurgence of Jungian and non Jungian clinical and academic interest in the role that emotions play in contemporary thought and in the impetus for eco socioeconomic change This volume will be of great interest to Jungian analysts and trainees psychotherapists and interdisciplinary cultural theorists It will aid scholars in Jungian academic studies and related fields interested in metaphor symbols gender and LGBTQ perspectives The Perverse Feminine Kalen Aradia,2025-11-06 The

Perverse Feminine resurrects a long buried psychic figure The Perverse Feminine Archetype Grounded in Intuitive Inquiry this work builds on Jungian theory feminist psychology and myth to illuminate the archetypal constructs of forbidden power deviant desire and inherited shame shaping the collective psyche of cisgender women Across careers relationships and inner lives women in this study enliven the perverse through acts of subversion refusal creative expression and sexual exploration Through their stories a meditation on the unconscious unfolds unveiling the archetypal dimension as a portal to healing and integration Distilled from the data a four stage framework maps the psychological journeys of research participants across the evolving inner landscapes where pain power and transformation intertwine Through evocative narratives that generate tools for archetypal engagement this study offers individuals theorists and clinicians a guide to identity self discovery and psychic wholeness within a rapidly changing cultural landscape Amputated Souls Anthony James,2012-12-20

Amputated Souls explores the subject of psychiatry and psychiatric practices and the assault upon human rights and human freedom constituted by these practices tracing the history of lobotomy ECT and antipsychotic drugs and their use from 1935 to the present day Lost Souls Diana Peschier,2019-11-28 How did the Victorians view mental illness After discovering the case notes of women in Victorian asylums Diana Peschier reveals how mental illness was recorded by both medical practitioners and in the popular literature of the era and why madness became so closely associated with femininity Her research reveals the plight of women incarcerated in 19th century asylums how they became patients and the ways they were perceived by their family medical professionals society and by themselves Outsiders Lyndall Gordon,2019-03-19 Prodigy visionary outlaw orator and explorer As society's outsiders the exceptional subjects of this study inspired a new breed of women and one another Finalist of the PROSE Award for Best Book in Literature by the Association of American Publishers Mary Shelley Emily Bront George Eliot Olive Schreiner and Virginia Woolf they all wrote dazzling books that forever changed the way we see history In Outsiders award winning biographer Lyndall Gordon shows how these five novelists shared more than talent In a time when a woman's reputation was her security each of these women lost hers They were unconstrained by convention writing against the grain of their contemporaries prophetically imagining a different future We have long known the individual greatness of each of these writers but in linking their creativity to their lives as outcasts Gordon throws new light on the genius they share All five lost their mothers in childbirth or at a young age With no female role model present they learned from books and sometimes from an enlightened mentor Crucially each had to imagine what a woman could be in order to invent a voice of her own The passion in their own lives infused their fiction Writing with passionate intelligence of her own Gordon reveals that these renegade writers inspired a new breed of women who wished to change a world locked in war violence exploitation and sexual abuse Gordon's biographies have always shown the indelible connection between life and art an intuitive exciting and revealing approach that has been highly praised In Outsiders she crafts nuanced portraits of Shelley Bront Eliot Schreiner and Woolf naming each of these writers as prodigy visionary outlaw orator and explorer and shows how they came they saw and they left us changed Today following the tsunami of women s protest at widespread abuse we do more than read them we listen and live with their astonishing bravery and eloquence

Medicine and Maladies ,2018-07-03 Medicine and Maladies explores the aesthetic medical and socio political contexts that informed depictions of illness and disease in nineteenth century France Eleven essays by specialists in nineteenth century French literature and visual culture probe the acts of writing reading and viewing corporeal afflictions across the works of medical practitioners surgeons pharmacists novelists and artists Tracing scientific discourse in literary narratives and signalling references to fiction in medical texts the contributions to this interdisciplinary volume invite us to rethink the relationship between the humanities and the medical sciences

Critical Inquiries for Social Justice in Mental Health Marina Morrow,Lorraine Halinka Malcoe,2017-06-30 An exceptional showcase of interdisciplinary research Critical Inquiries for Social Justice in Mental Health presents various critical theories methodologies and methods for transforming mental health research and fostering socially just mental health practices Marina Morrow and Lorraine Halinka Malcoe have assembled an array of international scholars activists and practitioners whose work exposes and disrupts the dominant neoliberal and individualist practices found in contemporary mental research policy and practice The contributors employ a variety of methodologies including intersectional decolonizing indigenous feminist post structural transgender queer and critical realist approaches in order to interrogate the manifestation of power relations in mental health systems and its impact on people with mental distress Additionally the contributors enable the reader to reimagine systems and supports designed from the bottom up in which the people most affected have decision making authority over their formations Critical Inquiries for Social Justice in Mental Health demonstrates why and how theory matters for knowledge production policy and practice in mental health and it creates new imaginings of decolonized and democratized mental health systems of abundant community centred supports and of a world where human differences are affirmed

Prevenge Andrew Graves,2021-11-16 Prevenge 2016 is an entertainingly dark 21st century horror movie detailing the serial killing journey of heavily pregnant Ruth It s a cleverly crafted narrative full of stark social commentary traversing the delicate line between comedy and tragedy by fusing together a kitchen sink approach with a supernatural revenge plot This book as part of the Devil s Advocates series examines how the film deconstructs the slasher mythology and the sexism therein and upends stereotypical representations of the weak woman and delicate mother With new exclusive input from writer director and star Alice Lowe the text also looks at the production s inception and development assesses its debts to cult British cinema and inspects its umbilical connections to Rosemary s Baby Alien Village of the Damned and many other Monstrous Child silver screen features

Portrait of the Psychiatrist as a Young Man Allan Beveridge,2011-08-25 RD Laing remains one of the most famous psychiatrists of the last 50 years In the 1960s he enjoyed enormous popularity and received much publicity for his controversial views challenging the psychiatric orthodoxy He championed the rights of the patient and challenged the often inhumane methods of treating the mentally ill Based on a wealth of previously unexamined archives relating to his private papers and clinical notes Portrait of the Psychiatrist as a Young Man sheds new light on RD Laing and in particular his early formative years a crucial but largely overlooked period in his life The first half of the book considers Laing s intellectual journey through the world of ideas and his development as a psychiatric theorist An analysis of his notebooks and personal library reveals Laing s engagement not only with psychiatric theory but also with a wide range of other disciplines such as philosophy literature and religion This part of the book considers how this shaped Laing s writing about madness and his evolution as a clinician The second half draws on a rich and completely unexplored collection of Laing s clinical notes which detail his encounters with patients in his early years as a psychiatrist firstly in the British Army subsequently in the psychiatric hospitals of Glasgow and finally in the Tavistock Clinic in London These notes reveal what Laing was actually doing in clinical practice and how theory interacted with therapy The majority of patients who were to appear in Laing s first two books The Divided Self and The Self and Others have been identified from these records and this volume provides a fascinating account of how the published case histories compare to the original notes There is a considerable mythology surrounding Laing partly created by himself and partly by subsequent commentators By a careful examination of primary sources Allan Beveridge both a psychiatrist and an historian examines the many mythological narratives about Laing and provide a critical but not unsympathetic account of this colourful and contradictory thinker who addressed questions about the nature of madness which are still being asked today This book will be of interest to mental health workers and social historians alike as well as anybody interested in the philosophy of psychiatry

The Hysteric Eleanor Bowen, Laura González, 2023-04-01 Examining historical clinical and artistic material in both written and visual form this book traces the figure of the contemporary hysteric as she rebels against the impossible demands made upon her Exploring five traits that commonly characterise the hysteric as an archetype a specific body mimetic abilities a shroud of mystery a propensity to disappear and a particular relationship to voice the authors shed light on what it means to be hysterical as a form of rebellion and resistance This is important reading for scholars of sociology gender studies cultural studies and visual studies with interests in psychoanalysis art and the characterisation of mental illness

Mothers, Criminal Insanity and the Asylum in Victorian England Alison C. Pedley, 2023-07-13 Tracing the experiences of women who were designated insane by judicial processes from 1850 to 1900 this book considers the ideas and purposes of incarceration in three dedicated facilities Bethlem Fisherton House and Broadmoor The majority of these patients had murdered or attempted to murder their own children but were not necessarily condemned as incurably evil by medical and legal authorities nor by general society Alison C Pedley explores how insanity gave the Victorians an acceptable explanation for these dreadful crimes and as a result how admission to a dedicated asylum was viewed as the safest and most human solution for the madwomen as well as for society as a whole Mothers Criminal Insanity and the Asylum in Victorian England considers the experiences treatments and regimes women underwent in an attempt to redeem and rehabilitate them and return them to into a patriarchal society It shows how society s views of the institutions and insanity were not necessarily negative or coloured by fear and revulsion and highlights the changes in attitudes to female criminal lunacy in the second half of the 19th century Through extensive and detailed research into the three asylums archives and in legal governmental press and genealogical records this book sheds new light on the views of the patients themselves and contributes to the historiography of Victorian criminal lunatic asylums conceptualising them as places of recovery rehabilitation and restitution
