

Glory Movie Questions

1. How does the attitude of Colonel Robert Gould Shaw toward African-Americans change and why?

Colonel Shaw's attitude toward African-Americans changes over the course of the movie. At first, he is a white supremacist who believes that African-Americans are inferior and should not be allowed to fight in the military. However, as he sees the bravery and sacrifice of the men of the 54th Massachusetts, he begins to change his mind and becomes a more progressive leader.

2. What differences exist among the black soldiers who make up the 54th Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry? What does this tell you about the different experiences of blacks in 19th-century America? What about their regions of origin, former status (enslaved), and educational background?

The 54th Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry is a diverse group of men from different backgrounds and regions. Some were formerly enslaved, while others were free. They come from different parts of the country, including the South and the North. This diversity reflects the different experiences of African-Americans in 19th-century America.

3. What attitudes did white soldiers have about the 54th? Did these attitudes change and why?

At first, the white soldiers of the 54th are prejudiced against the African-American soldiers. They believe that they are inferior and should not be allowed to fight alongside them. However, as they see the bravery and sacrifice of the 54th, their attitudes begin to change.

4. Were blacks treated equally to whites in the Union army? Explain.

No, African-Americans were not treated equally to whites in the Union army. They were paid less than white soldiers and were often given the most dangerous and difficult assignments. However, their bravery and sacrifice helped to change the way that the Union army viewed African-Americans.

5. What is significant about Colonel Shaw's decision to refuse to surrender?

Colonel Shaw's decision to refuse to surrender is significant because it shows that he is willing to die for his men and for the cause of freedom. It also shows that he is a brave and courageous leader.

6. Did that incident end as you expected? What feelings or thoughts come over you as you watch?

The incident ends as I expected. The 54th Massachusetts is killed, but their bravery and sacrifice are remembered. As I watch, I feel a sense of pride and admiration for the men of the 54th. I also feel a sense of sadness for the fact that they were killed for a cause that was not fully supported by the Union at the time.
