Best Creative Nonfiction of the South, Volume I: Virginia Casey Clabough,Thorpe Moeckel,2016-12-30 Best Creative Nonfiction of the South of which this Virginia collection is the first volume serves as a valuable resource for scholars students writers and general readers interested in creative nonfiction both from specific areas of the South and across the region as a whole The writers included in each volume come from diverse backgrounds generations and artistic traditions Most if not all volumes in the series indirectly reflect literary changes over time and or how literary variations have manifested themselves in a given state In some cases publisher permissions and other factors have foiled the editors from including the work of deserving writers Nevertheless the abundant literary talent across the South has lessened the impact of the occasional unfortunate omission TRP has for years now published an annual collection of poetry from each of our Southern states and these anthologies have done very well for us both inside and outside university classrooms We welcome this new series on Southern nonfiction and look forward to visiting these fine essayists state by state Paul Ruffin Director Texas Review Press
