 Forth,2018-09-18 Sir Humphrey's Last Stand takes readers on a medieval romp in a story with a tenuous grasp on reality and history Despite the doom and gloom everyone seems pretty perky indeed and there is a scattering of buffoonery throughout The King of France has routed the incompetent English who can't decide whether to fall asleep on the job or shoot themselves in the foot first with an arrow of course Only Sir Humphrey and his men at Mont St Bernard remain on French soil French spies have infiltrated the Mont but their dashing looks attract the attention of the lust struck women of the castle
 The local Mayor can't make up his mind whether he supports the English or French depending on who is holding a knife to his throat at the time A gallant young knight and a lady in waiting find themselves unwittingly trying to save the day as they encounter colourful characters and a pirate or two along the way Unfortunately despite his military might battles won and being ordained by God no one seems to take King Louis very seriously But perhaps his greatest threat to defeating the English are the two dimwit conscripts who slowly but surely cause havoc in everything they touch DREAM William C.
 Troge,2005-07-20 Everyone has dreams but only a select few people have enough drive and dedication to make their dreams a reality At the age of 18 William C Troge Captain Bill to those who know him best began working on his Dream a twelve foot long sailboat he built himself from the ground up He intended to break four world records by sailing around the world alone Before his Dream could become a reality Bill met a variety of people who would lend him their support Eventually he met a group of men willing to back his venture with their own kind of support 50 000 worth With his financing in place Captain Bill set off on his amazing voyage sailing out of Oyster Bay into the sunset just like he'd dreamed The experience and the lessons learned at sea became a part of him are still a part of him and shaped the man he was to become years later His experiences are captivating and inspiring creating a story meant to be shared with anyone who has ever had a dream or ever wanted to

 Records as the longest canoe trip in history an eighteen month 7 865 mile saga of two young men and a canoe named Muriel
 The year was 1936 The place was New York City where two young office workers weary of the depression embarked on one of history's most remarkable expeditions They left New York City at the foot of 42nd street and paddled their canoe across the uncharted wilds of Canada to Nome Alaska This is their true story of the people they met of hunting fighting ice bears

 Troost who had been pushing the snooze button on the alarm clock of life by racking up useless graduate degrees and
