DILEMMA OF LIFE-DEATH, FATE AND MIRACLES Dr. Muhammad Shoaib Shahid,2025-10-13 Due to the impact of capitalism abrupt global changes are emerging in human life Irrespective of age race gender or social ranks everyone is under spell of temptation and rivalry to proceed ahead for hoarding maximum in minimum time through fair or foul sources As a result the new generation is at stake because parents avoid taking the serious psychological responsibility of providing love security respect belongingness and appreciation for developing an integrated personality as a citizen People are enchanted under temptation and competition so religious rule as well as moral ethical values and mannerism are at stake This trend has gained global momentum so the underdeveloped countries are equally affected and their lifestyles political social and religious authorities are at the mercy of this trend Job markets and local politics are indirectly under the grip of the super powers who have hampered peace and triggered psychological sufferings In fact there is a precise social moral derailment and variant complicated mental health problems are triggering So it is an alarming dilemma for human beings

The Game of Life and Death Lincoln Colcord,1914

Euthanasia, Abortion, Death Penalty and Religion - The Right to Life and its Limitations Hans-Georg Ziebertz,Francesco Zaccaria,2018-11-16 This book considers how the termination of life might be accepted in the view of a general obligation to protect life It features more than 10 papers written by scholars from 14 countries that offer international comparative empirical research Inside readers will find case studies from such areas as India Chile Germany Italy England Palestine Lithuania Nigeria and Poland The papers focus on three limitations of the right to life the death penalty abortion and euthanasia The contributors explore how young people understand and evaluate the right to life and its limitations The book presents unique empirical research among today's youth and reveals that among other concepts religiosity matters It provides insight into the acceptance perception and legitimation of human rights by people from different religious and cultural backgrounds This investigation rigorously tests for inter individual differences regarding political and judicial rights on religious grounds while controlling for other characteristics It will help readers better understand the many facets of this fundamental yet controversial philosophical question The volume will be of interest to students researchers as well as general readers searching for answers

Into the Jaws of Yama, Lord of Death Karma Lekshe Tsomo, 2006-07-20 A fascinating look at Buddhist especially Tibetan views of death and their implications for a Buddhist bioethics

Killing in Self-Defence Fiona Leverick, 2006-12-07 This book is a comprehensive analysis of the criminal defence of self defence from a philosophical legal and human rights perspective The primary focus is on self defence as a defence to homicide as this is the most difficult type of self defensive force to justify Although not always recognised as such self defence is a contentious defence permitting as it does the victim of an attack to preserve her life at the expense of another If one holds that all human life is of equal value explaining why this is permissible poses something of a challenge It is particularly difficult to explain where the aggressor is for reasons of non age or insanity for example not responsible for her actions The first part of the book is devoted to identifying the proper theoretical basis of a claim of self defence It examines the classification of defences and the concepts of justification and excuse in particular and locates self defence within this classification It considers the relationship between self defence and the closely related defences of duress and necessity It then proceeds critically to analyse various philosophical explanations of why self defensive killing is justified before concluding that the most convincing account is one that draws on the right to life with an accompanying theory of forfeiture The book then proceeds to draw upon this analysis to examine various aspects of the law of self defence There is detailed analysis of the way in which on a human rights approach it is appropriate to treat the issues of retreat imminence of harm self generated self defence mistake and proportionality with a particular focus on whether lethal force is ever permissible in protecting property or in preventing rape The analysis draws on material from all of the major common law jurisdictions The book concludes with an examination of the implications that the European Convention on Human Rights might have for the law of self defence especially in the areas of mistaken belief and the degree of force permissible to protect property

Summa Theologica, Volume 3 (Part II, Second Section) St Thomas Aquinas, 2013-01-01 The Summa Theologica is the best known work of Italian philosopher scholar and Dominican friar SAINT THOMAS AQUINAS 1225 1274 widely considered the Catholic Church's greatest theologian Famously consulted immediately after the Bible on religious questions at the Council of Trent Aquinas's masterpiece has been considered a summary of official Church philosophy ever since Aquinas considers approximately 10 000 questions on Church doctrine covering the roles and nature of God man and Jesus then lays out objections to Church teachings and systematically confronts each using Biblical verses theologians and philosophers to bolster his arguments In Volume III Aquinas addresses faith and heresy charity peace and war mercy anger and justice prayer truth and much more This massive work of scholarship spanning five volumes addresses just about every possible query or argument that any believer or atheist could have and remains essential more than seven hundred years
