Advice to the Serious Seeker James S. Cutsinger, 2012-06-06 Two books in one Advice to the Serious Seeker is an introduction for scholars to the perennialist school of comparative religious philosophy and at the same time a guidebook for the general reader who is looking for intellectually serious but accessible answers to questions about the spiritual life. Scholars will find a comprehensive introduction to the work of Frithjof Schuon the leading contemporary figure in the perennialist or traditionalist school of comparative religion. Written by James S. Cutsinger one of the world's foremost academic authorities on the perennial philosophy the book provides a detailed commentary on the full range of Schuon's spiritual writings. But the book is also intended for inquisitive and searching readers in general. Composed in a style that is simple and conversational it reads as an open letter to the author's students. The aim is to cut through the banality of much that passes for spiritual instruction today and to provide intellectually serious but accessible answers to questions typically posed by cynics and skeptics, conservative believers and persons attracted to the so-called new age religions. The author's Advice takes the form of a series of meditations on Truth, Virtue, Beauty and Prayer which Schuon regards as the fundamental elements in every authentic spiritual path. Covering a range of issues both theoretical and practical topics include proofs of God, the problem of evil, classical virtues, predestination and freedom, symbolism and cosmic hierarchy, sacred art, the relationship between spiritual method and grace, techniques of concentration and meditation, the role of the spiritual master and human destiny. The book concludes with an epilogue on Schuon's well-known thesis concerning the transcendent unity of religions.

In Search of the Sacred Seyyed Hossein Nasr, Ramin Jahanbegloo, 2010-07-14. In this book a series of interviews offers an accessible, revealing human and intellectual biography of leading Islamic scholar Seyyed Hossein Nasr. Seyyed Hossein Nasr is one of the preeminent philosophers writing today. Sure to be a key resource for decades to come. In Search of the Sacred: A Conversation with Seyyed Hossein Nasr on His Life and Thought illuminates Nasr's experiences and shares his insights on topics from religion and philosophy to science and the arts. Based on a series of interviews the book combines traditional autobiography with an exploration of the intellectual and spiritual trajectories of the author's thought during key periods of his life. In doing so it presents a fascinating panorama not only of the life and ideas of one man but also of major events ranging from intellectual life in Iran during the Pahlavi period and the Iranian Revolution to some of the major religious and intellectual debates between Islam and modernism. Nasr writes that his whole life has been a quest for the sacred. This work connects that quest with some of the most important issues of the day in encounters between Islam and the West.

Traditionalism Kenneth Oldmeadow, Harry Oldmeadow, 2000. This book explains why no one engaged in religious and cultural studies can afford to disregard the urgent message of the traditionalists who have reminded a forgetful world in a manner which can be ignored but not refuted of those principles which everywhere and always remain true. It also demonstrates why any reassessment of contemporary values now increasingly called into question must take into account the profound traditionalist critique of the modern Western worldview.

Pakistan Primary focus was laid on the practice of interfaith dialogue which given the draconic blasphemy laws differs from interfaith dialogue as conceived of in the West Additionally other peacebuilding measures as offered by various non governmental organizations were taken into account be they advocacy promotion of human rights and unbiased education or policy negotiation with the government Heike Ruhland holds two master s degrees one in Islamic Studies University of Zurich and one in International Information Management University of Hildesheim She attained her PhD from the Academy of World Religions University of Hamburg
