God Is Not A Christian And Other Provocations:

God Is Not a Christian Desmond Tutu, 2011-05-03 Archbishop Desmond Tutu's unofficial legacy will be his life and the story of how this tiny pastor with a huge laugh from South Africa became our global guardian. Time magazine Biographer John Allen collects the Archbishop Desmond Tutu's most profound, controversial and historic words in this inspiring anthology of speeches, interviews and sermons that have rocked the world. An unforgettable look at the South African pastor's deeply rooted empathy and penetrating wisdom. God Is Not a Christian is perfect for anyone moved by Martin Luther King Jr's 'I Have a Dream' speech or Nelson Mandela's stirring autobiography. Conversations with Myself brilliantly connects readers with the courageous and much needed moral vision that continues to change countless lives around the globe. The Limits of Forgiveness Maria Mayo, 2021-05-06 Demystifying an unrealistic ideal Maria Mayo questions the contemporary idealization of unconditional forgiveness in three areas of contemporary life: so-called Victim Offender Mediation involving cases of criminal injury; the work of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in post-apartheid South Africa; and the pastoral care of victims of domestic violence. She shows that an emphasis on unilateral and unconditional forgiveness puts disproportionate pressure on the victims of injustice or violence and misconstrues the very biblical passages especially in Jesus' teaching and actions on which advocates of unconditional forgiveness rely. No Compromise (eBook) Errol Naidoo, 2012-10-26 It often happens that people compromise their faith to suit their lifestyle. Their black and white sense of right and wrong gets trapped in a gray area. In NO COMPROMISE, founder and president of Family Policy Institute (FPI), Errol Naidoo maintains that the major reason for the moral decline in the world today is the lack of conviction and commitment of Christians to be salt and light in society. Even though prayer is the foundation of everything a Christian does, NO COMPROMISE states that Christians shouldn't just pray and not engage in politics and social issues. Naidoo spurs readers on not only to be people of prayer but also people of action. They should adjust their lifestyle according to their faith, no compromise.

Edwin Cameron: Influences and impact Nurina Ally, Leo Boonzaier, 2025-07-13 An outstanding collection of essays written by some of the leading scholars of South African law, which has resulted in a fitting tribute to Edwin Cameron's contribution to our constitutional project. Kate O'Regan, Former Justice of the Constitutional Court of South Africa. Edwin Cameron's life and incomparable contribution to the law are justly celebrated in this thoughtfully curated set of essays penned by people who have walked parts of the path with him. Jason Brickhill, Member of the Johannesburg Bar.

Missional: Impossible! Francis Rothery, 2014-01-07 Mainline Christianity in the West is dying. Addiction to hierarchical and bureaucratic power is killing it. A management god and a mission god have usurped the Way of Christ. In the midst of decline, the missional movement is attempting to reboot the church. Its goal is to remake a New Christian West through mission leadership, mapping and planning. Yet it is trapped in the language and methods of modernity. Its final solution is a polarizing vision of cultural domination by one social group: the Christians. The Way of Life and Truth has been forgotten.

Christ is not a conquering King a written Word or an absolute Idea but a divine Human Being Social wholeness can only be realized through a rediscovery of Conversation Reconciliation and Empowerment These reflect Christ s practices of eternal dialogue and reciprocal giving in small communities Through this mutual Way of Life people of all faiths and none can discover deep within themselves Our Un Known G d A gentle voice is whispering in the heart of all humanity I am the Way

Introducing Christian Theologies, Volume Two Victor I. Ezigbo,2015-12-31 Should Christianity s theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with voices of Christian communities from across the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from around the world highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine Women's Rights and Religious Law

Fareeda Banda,Lisa Fishbayn Joffe,2016-02-12 The three Abrahamic faiths have dominated religious conversations for millennia but the relations between state and religion are in a constant state of flux This relationship may be configured in a number of ways Religious norms may be enforced by the state as part of a regime of personal law or conversely religious norms may be formally relegated to the private sphere but can be brought into the legal realm through the private acts of individuals Enhanced recognition of religious tribunals or religious doctrines by civil courts may create a hybrid of these two models One of the major issues in the reconciliation of changing civic ideals with religious tenets is gender equality and this is an ongoing challenge in both domestic and international affairs Examining this conflict within the context of a range of issues including marriage and divorce violence against women and children and women s political participation this collection brings together a discussion of the Abrahamic religions to examine the role of religion in the struggle for women s equality around the world The book encompasses both theory and practical examples of how law can be used to negotiate between claims for gender equality and the right to religion It engages with international and regional human rights norms and also national considerations within countries This book will be of great relevance to scholars and policy makers with an interest in law and religion gender studies and human rights law Social-Ethical Challenges of Digitalization in a

Developing Country Valentine Ihim, The study is the result of a theological research and is based on current discussions on digitalization in Christian Social Ethics The book answers questions such as How can the Church use digitalization to advance her mission in the modern world Since digitalization has redefined the landscape of evangelization and is now very much favoured by young people how can the Church use digitalization to engage the young people in her mandate to evangelize the world This work also examines how digitalization could be used to combat corruption especially in the Nigerian public and private sectors It suggests various measures by which internet fraud and corruption could be reduced using digital tools It stresses however that these measures can only have a positive outcome if the government and its institutions are sincere and resolute in their determination to curb such corruption Change Agent Church in Black Lives Matter Times Valerie A. Miles-Tribble,2020-05-29 Volatile social dissonance in America s urban landscape is the backdrop as Valerie A Miles Tribble examines tensions in ecclesiology and public theology focusing on theoethical dilemmas that complicate churches public justice witness as prophetic change agents She attributes churches reticence to confront unjust disparities to conflicting views for example of Black Lives Matter protests as mere politics and disparities in leader and congregant preparation for public justice roles As a practical theologian with experience in organizational leadership Miles Tribble applies adaptive change theory public justice theory and a womanist communitarian perspective engaging Emilie Townes s construct of cultural evil as she presents a model of social reform activism re envisioned as public discipleship She contends that urban churches are urgently needed to embrace active prophetic roles and thus increase public justice witness Black Lives Matter times compel churches to connect faith with public roles as spiritual catalysts of change In the Face of Difference William L. Sachs,2014-11-20 Encounters with difference are the measure of faith as how a person of one faith approaches persons of other faiths reveals the heart of religious conviction Christian congregations are often ill equipped to respond to differing religious perspectives Most are hesitant many are prejudiced In the Face of Difference offers a basis for constructive response demonstrating how one can honor people of another faith by living fully into one s own faith William Sachs examines how Christians can maximize their spiritual growth through a genuine exchange of ideas and inspiration with those of others faiths focusing on encounters between Christians and Muslims By providing a clear and concrete blueprint for congregational leadership in new social circumstances Sachs charts a course for overcoming major religious prejudice He demonstrates how bridges can be built by applying the ideals of love of God and love of neighbor and how faithful people can translate religious ideals into reconciling realities Who Is an African? Roderick R. Faith and the Fragility of Justice Meredith Whitnah, 2025-04-15 South Africa has repeatedly made international headlines because of its high rates of gender based violence In the midst of a wide range of responses to the problem an important voice has been largely absent Why are the religious groups that had famously protested the racial violence of apartheid faltering in their response to gendered violence in the democracy Faith and the Fragility of Justice answers this question through a deep dive into the public discourse of three Protestant Christian organizations that had been adamant about a theological mandate to challenge apartheid but have varied in their responses to gender based violence in the democracy The central argument of the book is that the organizations theological convictions intersect with their posture toward various social groups to shape their actions In making this argument Meredith Whitnah demonstrates that religious beliefs are a central dimension of institutional processes that sustain or challenge social inequality and violence
