Going Wild Adventures With Birds In The Suburban Wilderness:

Going Wild Robert Winkler, 2003-10-01 Armchair travelers can journey with author and naturalist Robert Winkler as he experiences amazing wildlife encounters all within reach of his own backyard An avid nature writer with field experience spanning more than 25 years Winkler writes about his beloved New England where he has logged more than 20 000 miles on foot exploring the woods fields and shores he knows so well This beautifully lyrical book describes Winkler s firsthand encounters with goshawks copperheads flying squirrels Kinglets Chickadees Nuthatches and other birds and animals as he travels into areas many may have overlooked or forgotten Winkler weaves anecdotes and stories about his own life into each chapter how he discovered nature why he watches birds and why his suburban surroundings have held his interest To quote the author Living in society s overpopulated paved over world with all its rules regulations and traffic jams I think we envy the birds wild freedom We want that freedom and wildness for ourselves And so we birders watch listen to identify count list house feed and photograph birds Going Wild is an irresistible invitation to follow in Winkler s footsteps and revel in the wonders on our own doorsteps

words Are we home yet were a remarkably fitting coda to the career of a writer so closely identified with his native Catskill region of New York State In many of his essays Burroughs explores the woods and fields of home and in doing so like Henry Thoreau and his explorations of Concord Massachusetts he transcends the local and examines the universal theme of our relation with nature and our native landscape Burroughs s emphasis on place and the local now seems modern once again as the current interest in bioregionalism and climate change demonstrates it has become increasingly evident that thinking locally is thinking globally Since 1992 the SUNY College at Oneonta has hosted the biannual John Burroughs Nature Conference and Seminar Sharp Eyes which honors the influence of Burroughs on American nature writing Distinguished keynote speakers who have addressed the conference include John Elder John Tallmadge Joy Harjo Robin Wall Kimmerer Edward Kanze James Perrin Warren and Edward J Renehan Jr The scope of the conference is not limited solely to Burroughs however as each year the writers and scholars in attendance direct their attention toward a particular issue of significance to contemporary nature writers and scholars of environmental literature The theme of this collection Writing the Land John Burroughs and his Legacy was featured in the 2006 conference and includes essays on John Burroughs as well as essays on the work of other writers who like Burroughs are linked closely through their work to a particular landscape or region The third and final section of this book features invited essays by three distinguished scholars John Tallmadge Robert Beuka and Charlotte Zo Walker who consider the topic of what writing about the land and nature means from three different perspectives urban suburban and rural
