New York Magazine , 1992-05-04 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Index to Handicraft Books, 1974-1984 Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh. Science and Technology Department, 1986 Handicrafts and do it yourself projects have always been a library's most popular and heavily requested subject And for more than a decade a definitive index to handicraft books has not been published To fill this gap the Science and Technology Department at Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh has compiled the Index to Handicraft Books listing more than 900 books and over 12 400 subject entries covering books published from 1974 to 1984 The Index to Handicraft Books is an essential reference tool for librarians who want to help someone find instructions for a varied range of do it yourself projects providing quick access to craft projects in books more recent than previous handicraft index books have listed Each entry in the index consists of a subject heading the name of the project as listed in the book the author and title of the book and the page numbers on which the project can be found The author and title correspond to those in the List of Works Cited section which gives full bibliographic information in order to help librarians find the book on their shelves or obtain the book through inter library loan Because this index developed from a card file index of craft books acquired by Carnegie Library since 1974 the list concentrates mainly on medium priced books that most libraries buy Dictionary of Textiles Louis Harmuth,1920 Walking Next To Cancer Mariya A. Taneva,2018-10-15 In May of 2015 a holistic lifestyle coach is hired to help the post operative recovery of a successful tough as nails business woman determined to defeat cancer with the same aggressive strong willed determination that had served her so well this far But what soon becomes clear is that much of Jocelyn s success has been driven by internal hurt and emotional dysfunction and that what had once passed for happiness and peace of mind was in Jocelyn s case predicated on dark unresolved issues While her past experiences had forged Jocelyn into a success they are now getting in the way of her recovery At war with herself she is driven to compete with everyone around her Unfortunately the tactics and strategies that have served her so well in business are impotent when matched against a disease like cancer and so Jocelyn slowly and inexorably gives up ground in a fight for the first and last time in her life Walking Next to Cancer is a clarion call for us to look within and resolves the issues that are constraining us and eroding our internal resources One Family's Journey Through Ten Centuries William Lilly,2024-01-05 We trace one family generation by generation throughout the one thousand years of the second millennium The trilogy sets the family within its social environment describing its migration from the continent and across England Scotland and Ireland to settle in the New World From that we get a vivid picture of what affected motivated worried and encouraged this Saxon family and how they coped Since the migration of this family was typical for the time this study is relevant to millions of people in the United Kingdom Canada and the United States whose ancestors followed the same general migratory path Book I specifically covers the feudal period in the Middle Ages 1000 1560 where a feudal autocrat and an avaricious pope between them owned and controlled everything Throughout the family became our witnesses to many of the historic events of the feudal period the Battle of Hastings Anglo Saxon resistance the plague the Little Ice Age the Great Starvation Guilds the building of great cathedrals and castles and the gradual decline in the king s power and control In 1067 William the Conqueror appointed Honfroi de Insula de Llle as the Dominus of the area around the feudal village of Combe Wiltshire He permitted Honfroi to live and build a motte and bailey castle there to assist in keeping the peace The front image is Castle Combe as it appears today
