Happier Endings A Meditation On Life And Death:

Happier Endings Erica Brown, 2013-04-02 We are all going to die but some of us will die better As a spiritual teacher based in the Washington D C area Erica Brown has attracted a strong following among those looking for practical wisdom based on the world's most revered and treasured religious texts Here she shares stories and reflections on one of life's most essential topics how we pack each day with love and meaning precisely because we will not live forever Erica helps us confront our fears about death for ourselves and our loved ones and demonstrates how the last days of life can be among the most inspiring if we learn to leave a legacy of words and values to forgive and apologize and to make important decisions about our last hours Praised by New York Times columnist David Brooks for combining extreme empathy with extreme tough mindedness Erica Brown is a leading religious scholar with a sense of humor and a gift for storytelling In Happier Endings she meets people of all faiths who deal with death in enlightening ways including a mother who arranged for her children to sprinkle her ashes on a favorite ski slope an ex nun who prepares people to die a group of women who ritually wash the dead and a family whose grandfather's Ethical will is read by his survivors each year Brown leads readers on an emotional journey to prepare for and accept death drawing on the wisdom found in many spiritual traditions The crucial step Brown writes is becoming comfortable discussing death and not just in the abstract This kind of honesty allows for important conversations from financial wills to last words that reinforce to those you love most what matters most to you After reading Happier Endings you will have a greater understanding of what a good death can be and what a life well lived looks like Happier Endings Erica Brown, 2013 The author of the National Jewish Book Award finalist Inspired Jewish Leadership presents an affirming meditation on living fully and preparing for death that guides readers on an emotional journey that draws on the wisdom of myriad spiritual traditions covering a range of practical issues while sharing compassionate illustrative stories

Facing Death Sarah K. Pinnock, 2016-12-05 What do we learn about death from the Holocaust and how does it impact our responses to mortality today Facing Death Confronting Mortality in the Holocaust and Ourselves brings together the work of eleven Holocaust and genocide scholars who address these difficult questions convinced of the urgency of further reflection on the Holocaust as the last survivors pass away The volume is distinctive in its dialogical and introspective approach where the contributors position themselves to confront their own impending death while listening to the voices of victims and learning from their life experiences Broken into three parts this collection engages with these voices in a way that is not only scholarly but deeply personal The first part of the book engages with Holocaust testimony by drawing on the writings of survivors and witnesses such as Elie Wiesel Jean Améry and Charlotte Delbo including rare accounts from members of the Sonderkommando Reflections of post Holocaust generations the children and grandchildren of survivors are housed in the second part addressing questions of remembrance and memorialization The concluding essays offer intimate self reflection about how engagement with the Holocaust impacts the contributors' lives faiths and ethics In an age of
