

Lesson 1

Dance, Dance, Dance

Grade Levels: K-2

Subjects: Math, Language Arts, Art

Learner Outcomes: The students will add whole numbers from 0-10 using manipulatives, pictures, and mental math.

Duration of Lesson: 45 minutes

Materials: CD or cassette player, Song One Elephant by Sharon, Lois, and Brahm

Technology Tools/Courseware: Computer, Scan Converter or LCD Display, Internet access

Teacher Notes: It is a good idea to make sure all students have an internet permission form on file. Although the children are not accessing the internet directly in this initial introduction, they will be doing so in the following sessions.

Procedures:

- Utilize the web site Sign of Plus and display to the entire group using the scan converter or LCD. Help children understand what the words of the song mean. Get them excited! Energized! Allow them to dance in place as you replay the song.
- Demonstrate the addition process using the children. Have 1 child come forward. Point out that there is ONLY 1 child there. Have another child come forward and call to their attention that adding one more child to one child equals two children. Continue to add one more until you have five children.
- Call to their attention the classification system used. For example you used only boys. Do the activity again and use only girls. Do the activity for a third time and use a mixture.

come alive for your students The standards in this book are an outcomes based version of the original seven standards created by the National Dance Association in 1994 The updated standards are also more action oriented and the tools that the many experienced contributors provide will help you to more easily implement the standards The chapters guide you in using new benchmarks to reflect desired student outcomes at grades 2 5 8 and 12 you can also use these benchmarks as a framework for developing state standards and local curricula In addition Implementing the National Dance Education Standards offers 32 ready to use learning experiences to incorporate in your lesson and unit planning tables of learners developmental characteristics for four grade levels based on learner domains psychomotor cognitive and affective along with their implications for your teaching and a three step standards based assessment cycle This resource also contains a CD ROM with the updated standards new benchmarks developmental characteristics and a blank template for planning of learning experiences The CD ROM contains the 32 sample learning experiences and assessment suggestions You can print these standards benchmarks sample plans and other materials as you need them so you don t always need to tote the book around with you as you plan and teach The book covers all you need to know in order to implement the standards Besides the revised standards and the new benchmarks themselves you ll learn about the relationship between learners developmental characteristics and the benchmarks and you ll explore the impact that various teaching and curriculum environments have on learning You ll also delve into how to design plan and implement a standards based dance curriculum how to assess students progress and how to make technology choices that strengthen the curriculum and challenge students learning processes Each chapter includes overviews and summaries to help you focus on the key points A glossary defines dance and educational terms and references provide additional sources of information for you to consider With its wealth of practical tools Implementing the National Dance Education Standards will help you stay on the cutting edge as you develop a comprehensive standards based dance curriculum one that develops the whole child engages students in developmentally appropriate learning experiences and makes dance fun and exciting for every student

Dance, Creative/rhythmic Movement Education ,1981 Rhythms for the kindergarten Herbert E. Hyde,1916 The Course Reflection Project

Nicole Schonemann,Emily Metzgar,Andrew Libby,2015-05-01 Service learning is entering a post initiatory phase At tertiary institutions of all types and sizes service learning programs are common and service learning requirements for graduation are growing in popularity Taken together alongside continued faculty interest in effective teaching these factors have raised the visibility and popularity of service learning Now the greater need in service learning is not to prove the need for or efficacy of service learning but to turn the focus squarely back on practice Following established best practice is not enough instructors also need to reflect on how this fits within the specific context and application of each unique course and service learning partnership While there are many excellent resources that detail best practice and showcase exemplary service learning courses faculty reflection and course revision often goes unmentioned In response to the lack of attention on the role of reflection and course revision we convened groups of faculty from a variety of disciplines to reflect deeply on their courses paying specific attention to obstacles and challenges These conversations were converted to articles for this edited collection each chapter representing the process of reflection and revision and serving as a guide to develop effective practice in varied curricular contexts This text contributes to the body of literature on service learning in a unique and practical manner Faculty teaching or interested in teaching service learning classes would benefit from this text as well as university administrators and community service directors involved in service learning at a programmatic and institutional level This book should be marketed to faculty teaching disciplinary service learning classes and service learning pedagogy classes and administrative offices involved in service learning This could be a supplementary text for graduate level pedagogy courses Higher education institutional libraries would benefit from this text as well as the national and state campus compact offices
