King Deng The Original Lost Boy Of Sudan:

King Deng, the Original Lost Boy of Sudan Makur Abiar, Guy-Luce Fenelon, 2010-06-25 A first person perspective of the perilous quest for freedom for the original lost boy of Sudan The author details the truth regarding the war in southern Sudan and the historical events that led to this conflict The Lost Boys of Sudan Mark Bixler, 2006 In 2000 the United States began accepting 3 800 refugees from one of Africa's longest civil wars They were just some of the thousands of young men known as Lost Boys who had been orphaned or otherwise separated from their families in the chaos of a brutal conflict that has ravaged their home country of Sudan since 1983 This book focuses on four of these refugees Theirs however is a typical story one that repeated itself wherever the Lost Boys were found across America It is a story of the countless challenges of making it in a strange new place after years on the run in Sudan or in refugee camps in Kenya and Ethiopia As we immerse ourselves in the Lost Boys daily lives we also get to know the social services professionals and volunteers celebrities community leaders and others who guided them with occasional detours toward self sufficiency Along the way the author looks closely at the ins and outs of U S refugee policy the politics of international aid the history of Sudan and the radical Islamist underpinnings of its government Dust jacket Seed of South Sudan Majok Marier, Estelle Ford-Williamson, 2014-05-14 One of the most detailed books on the Lost Boys of Sudan since South Sudan became the world's newest nation in 2011 this is a memoir of Majok Marier an Agar Dinka who was 7 when war came to his village in southern Sudan During a 21 year civil war 2 million lives were lost and 80 percent of the South Sudanese people were displaced Tens of thousands of boys like Majok fled from the Sudanese Army that wanted to kill them Surviving on grasses grains and help from villagers along the way Majok walked nearly a thousand miles to a refugee camp in Ethiopia Majok and 3 800 like him emigrated to the United States in 2001 while the civil war still raged His story is joined to others in this book The Coretta Scott King Awards, 1970-2009 Henrietta M. Smith, 2009-06-29 Gathers together the best African American children's literature Representing (Post)Human Enhancement Technologies in Twenty-First Century US Fiction Carmen Laguarda-Bueno, 2022-10-07 This work studies three twenty first century novels by Richard Powers Dave Eggers and Don DeLillo as representative of a new trend of US fiction concerned with the topic of the technological augmentation of the human condition The different chapters provide from the double perspective of the optimistic transhumanist philosophy and the more balanced approach of critical posthumanism an overview of the narrative strategies used by the writers to explore the possibilities that biotechnology digital technologies and cryonics open up to transcend our human limitations while also warning their readers of their most nefarious consequences Ultimately the book puts forward the claim that even if the writers approach the subject from a variety of perspectives and using different narrative styles and techniques they all share a critical posthumanist fear that an unrestrained and unquestioned use of technology for enhancement purposes may bring about disembodiment and dehumanization They Poured Fire on Us From the Sky Benjamin Ajak, Benson

Deng, Alephonsion Deng, Judy A. Bernstein, 2015-08-11 The inspiring story of three young Sudanese boys who were driven from their homes by civil war and began an epic odyssey of survival facing life threatening perils ultimately finding their way to a new life in America Between 1987 and 1989 Alepho Benjamin and Benson like tens of thousands of young boys took flight from the massacres of Sudan's civil war They became known as the Lost Boys With little more than the clothes on their backs sometimes not even that they streamed out over Sudan in search of refuge Their journey led them first to Ethiopia and then driven back into Sudan toward Kenya They walked nearly one thousand miles sustained only by the sheer will to live They Poured Fire on Us from the Sky is the three boys account of that unimaginable journey With the candor and the purity of their child's eye vision Alephonsian Benjamin and Benson recall by turns how they endured the hunger and strength sapping illnesses dysentery malaria and yellow fever how they dodged the life threatening predators lions snakes crocodiles and soldiers alike that dogged their footsteps and how they grappled with a war that threatened continually to overwhelm them Their story is a lyrical captivating timeless portrait of a childhood hurled into wartime and how they had the good fortune and belief in themselves to survive The Readers' Advisory Guide to Nonfiction Neal Wyatt, 2007-05-14 Navigating what she calls the extravagantly rich world of nonfiction renowned readers advisor RA Wyatt builds readers advisory bridges from fiction to compelling and increasingly popular nonfiction to encompass the library's entire collection She focuses on eight popular categories history true crime true adventure science memoir food cooking travel and sports Within each she explains the scope popularity style major authors and works and the subject's position in readers advisory interviews Wyatt addresses who is reading nonfiction and why while providing RAs with the tools and language to incorporate nonfiction into discussions that point readers to what to read next In easy to follow steps Wyatt Explains the hows and whys of offering fiction and nonfiction suggestions together Illustrates ways to get up to speed fast in nonfiction Shows how to lead readers to a variety of books using her read around and reading map strategies Provides tools to build nonfiction subject guides for the collection This hands on guide includes nonfiction bibliography key authors benchmark books with annotations and core collections It is destined to become the nonfiction bible for readers advisory and collection development helping librarians library workers and patrons select great reading from the entire library collection Public Library Catalog, 2004 First Raise a Flag Peter Martell, 2019 A beautifully written first hand account of how bitter and deadly rivalries dashed the hopes of the world's newest nation Integration and Fragmentation of the Sudan Mawut Achiecque Mach Guarak, 2011 The most comprehensive profound and accurate book ever written in the history of modern Sudan Integration and Fragmentation of the Sudan An African Renaissance is an encyclopedia of ancient and modern history as well as the politics of Sudan It is a library of data that discusses Sudan from its economic political and social standpoint since the Arab discovery and use of the term Bilad es Sudan up through the modern republic of the Sudan after which South and North Sudan collided in 1947 Although written to correct fabrications this book is a foundation on which future Sudans shall live on It is full of useful information that discusses and provides feasible solutions to the fundamental problem of the Sudan that ruptured the country from the Berlin Conference to the post independence era For centuries Sudanese and the international community have been fed with idealistic information as if Sudan started with the coming of the Arabs in the fourteenth century This persisted due to the lack of resources and formal education among African natives Khartoum s unreasonable diversion of genuine history is one among the many causes of mistrust and division in Sudan The indigenous Africans found themselves peripheral to Khartoum where economic and political power is concentrated Integration and fragmentation of Sudan An African Renaissance is a great source of knowledge for the public and students of Sudanese politics With the referendum and popular consultation approaching this book is a head start for the marginalized Black Africans to make an informed decision between oppression and liberty Examples and testimonies provided in the text are reasons for the affected regions to permanently determine their future For freedom diehards this book lays the foundation on which to celebrate the birth of Africa s newest sovereign nation along the Nile River The Publishers Weekly ,2005

Lost Boy, Lost Girl John Bul Dau,Martha Arual Akech,2010 One of thousands of children who fled strife in southern Sudan John Bul Dau survived hunger exhaustion and violence His wife Martha endured similar hardships In this memorable book the two convey the best of African values while relating searing accounts of famine and war There s warmth as well in their humorous tales of adapting to American life For its importance as a primary source for its inclusion of the rarely told female perspective of Sudan s lost children for its celebration of human resilience this is the perfect story to inform and inspire young readers Contemporary Security Issues in Africa William A. Taylor,2018-12-07 As a comprehensive resource for readers interested in contemporary security issues in Africa this compelling book details the impact of complex challenges in Africa and explains why addressing them grows increasingly important Presenting both general overviews and specific case studies this book introduces contemporary security issues in Africa home to more than thirty of the fifty most fragile nations in the world It covers the past three decades of conflict on the continent focusing on such topics as weak and failing states ethnic conflict and civil wars natural resources and environmental security political violence and terrorism piracy and maritime security food security and poverty international responses and future prospects The core of the book comprises detailed analysis of the nexus between culture politics and security in Africa while the volume as a whole examines key regional and transnational security issues affecting Africa and their implications at the state regional and international levels The book explores the dynamic role that African nations play in influencing international security and investigates and articulates factors heightening the importance of Africa s role in international affairs A Story of Hope Lisa Frankel Wade,Deng Ajak Jongkuch,2011-04-01 This is a beautifully illustrated poignant story about Deng Jongkuch on his harrowing journey as one of the Lost Boys of Sudan With hope and courage he survived many hardships such as walking over 1 year in the desert and nearly 14 years in refugee camps when he was displaced from his family and village during the Sudan Civil war Proceeds from the sale of this book go to ImpactAVillage Inc a non profit whose mission is to improve education and healthcare in rural villages in South Sudan and other communities around the world Disturbed in Their Nests

Alephonsion Deng, Judy A. Bernstein, 2018-11-06 Nineteen year old refugee Alephonsion Deng from war ravaged Sudan had great expectations when he arrived in America three weeks before two planes crashed into the World Trade Towers Money he d been told was given to you in pillows Machines did all the work Education was free Suburban mom Judy Bernstein had her own assumptions The teenaged Lost Boys of Sudan who d traveled barefoot and starving for a thousand miles needed a little mothering and a change of scenery a trip to the zoo perhaps or maybe the beach Partnered through a mentoring program in San Diego these two individuals from opposite sides of the world began an eye opening journey that radically altered each other s vision and life Disturbed in Their Nests recounts the first year of this heartwarming partnership the initial misunderstandings the growing trust and ultimately their lasting friendship Their contrasting points of view provide of the moment insight into what refugees face when torn from their own cultures and thrust into entirely foreign ones Alepho struggles to understand the fast paced supersized way of life in America He lands a job but later is viciously beaten Will he ever escape violence and hatred Judy faces her own struggles Alepho and his fellow refugees need jobs education housing and health care Why does she feel so compelled and how much support should she provide The migrant crises in the Middle East Central America Europe and Africa have put refugees in the headlines Countless human tragedies are reduced to mere numbers Personal stories such as Alepho s add a face to the news and lead to greater understanding of the strangers among us Readers experience Alepho s discomfort fears and triumphs in a way that a newscast can t convey This timely and inspiring personal account will make readers laugh cry and examine their own place in the world Black Newspapers
