

A romantic close-up photograph of a man and a woman. The woman, on the left, has long, dark, wavy hair and is looking down towards the man. The man, on the right, has short dark hair and a light beard, and is looking up at the woman. They are positioned as if about to kiss. The woman's hand is resting on the man's bare shoulder. The overall tone is warm and intimate.

Graham Ryken,2019-02-14 We live in a world where sexuality is ruined by sin its beauty obscured by our brokenness We need a divine vision for the way love was meant to be with a gospel that offers forgiveness for sin and grace to live in the way that God has made us to be In the Song of Songs we encounter a love story that is part of the greatest love story ever told Philip Ryken walks through this biblical love poem verse by verse reflecting on what the Bible says about God's design for love intimacy and sexuality and offering insights into not only human relationships but also our relationship to God himself learning more about the One who has loved us with an everlasting love

Happily Ever After Catherine M.

Roach,2016-03-31 Find your one true love and live happily ever after The trials of love and desire provide perennial story material from the Biblical Song of Songs to Disney's princesses but perhaps most provocatively in the romance novel a genre known for tales of fantasy and desire sex and pleasure Hailed on the one hand for its women centered stories that can be sexually liberating and criticized on the other for its emphasis on male female coupling and mythical happy endings romance fiction is a multi million dollar publishing phenomenon creating national and international societies of enthusiasts practitioners and scholars Catherine M Roach alongside her romance writer alter ego Catherine LaRoche guides the reader deep into Romancelandia where the smart and the witty combine with the sexy and seductive to explore why this genre has such a grip on readers and what we can learn from the romance novel about the nature of happiness love sex and desire in American popular culture

Erisman,Randy Pope,2024-06-04 Western culture is increasingly polarized and Christians often feel they are under siege by the dominant secular culture Compounding the problem is that Christians cannot agree among themselves how to respond to a culture that is increasingly post Christian The authors have observed five basic responses by Christians to this feeling of exile 1 assimilation and acceptance of the new cultural norms 2 withdrawal from cultural engagement 3 anger directed toward society and toward other Christians who don t see the issues as they do 4 fear or 5 seeking power to take back the culture Scripture calls us to a different way speaking into the world with a new voice Micah calls us to seek justice love mercy and walk humbly with God Jeremiah calls us to seek the good of the city and Jesus calls us to be salt and light while knowing that in this world we will have trouble In short we are to engage the culture we live in as disciples of Jesus But how practically is that done In this book the authors look carefully at the lives of twelve biblical characters who also lived in challenging times for guidance in navigating our post Christian world Rejecting assimilation withdrawal anger fear and power seeking we are challenged today with the ancient words of Mordecai to Esther
