It Takes A Village We Were Once Children:

The Plight of the African-American Male MDiv Larry McCullum, 2009-08 This book addresses the internal and external forces that work to prevent the African American male from fully engaging positively in society It addresses openly sensitive issues that are surely discussed privately within the confines of our African American Hispanic Caucasian etc homes The hope is that this book will help to create a space for dialogue as it is my belief that if we talk openly and honestly about these issues without fear of reprisal or retaliation we will begin to create pathways that lead to healing not just fixing socio cultural pathologies I attempt to present methods and life events that will help the reader to deconstruct destructive social constructs that pervade society with the hope that re construction toward positive social behaviors that work for the common good will begin to take place in the reader s life This book begins with a lay approach to addressing issues that work to divide and defeat and that work to the demise of the African American male his family and community It journeys much of my life in rural Mississippi as a means for illustrating the impact of these issues on the psychological behavioral and relational capacity of the African American male then transitions to an educational and academic approach to identifying analyzing addressing and overcoming these issues Subsequently it addresses first hand internal forces that work against the African American male in being positive contributors to family in particular and to his community at large such as our attitudes towards sexuality and gender identity based cultures Lastly it examines the role and effectiveness of the African American church as an instrument of healing as spirituality is central to the African American community This is a book for everyone Please approach it with an open mind and you will experience increasing liberation with each page that you read Humanizing the Education Machine Rex Miller, Bill Latham, Brian Cahill, 2016-10-24 A clear roadmap for the new territory of education Education in the U S has been under fire for quite some time and for good reason The numbers alone tell a very disconcerting story according to various polls 70% of teachers are disengaged Add to that the fact that the United States ranks last among industrialized nations for college graduation levels and it s evident there s a huge problem that needs to be addressed Yet the current education system and its school buildings with teachers standing in front of classrooms and lecturing to students have gone largely unchanged since the 19th century Humanizing the Education Machine tackles this tough issue head on It describes how the education system has become ineffective by not adapting to fit students needs learning styles perspectives and lives at home This book explains how schools can evolve to engage students and involve parents It serves to spread hope for reform and equip parents educators administrators and communities to Analyze the pitfalls of the current U S education system Intelligently argue the need to reform the current landscape of education Work to make a difference in the public education system Be an informed advocate for your child or local school system If you re a concerned parent or professional looking for a trusted resource on the need for education reform look no further than Humanizing the Education Machine This illuminating resource provides the information you need to become a full partner in the new human centered learning revolution We're So Blessed CAIN, Jared Johnson, 2025-02-18 We re So Blessed is a 40 day family oriented devotional to help your family take the time to recognize God s hand in your everyday lives and to realize how truly blessed you are as children of God CAIN the band is made up of three siblings Taylor Cain Matz Madison Cain Johnson and Logan Cain Growing up in the Cain family was a unique and beautiful experience one that offered many childhood memories family traditions and spiritual guidance from their parents Today CAIN travels around the world to perform their songs and inspire people everywhere and no song has inspired others like their hit single I m So Blessed The impact of this song on listeners of all ages motivated CAIN to take the song s central message and craft it into a devotional that can help foster intimacy with God and one s family This heartfelt honest and motivating 40 day devotional offers a personal glimpse into the Cain family dynamic It includes relatable personal stories from the entire Cain family their spouses and their children as well as insights into their hopes fears and dreams all to inspire your own family memories and nurture spiritual growth in your household Each day you ll be encouraged to cultivate your own deep conversations and God centered traditions while helping you realize how blessed you really are to have each other and a God that truly loves you So don t wait start creating unforgettable moments of your own as you study scripture together participate in daily activities as a family and learn about God s incredible lasting love for each of you You will laugh cry and be filled with encouragement and gratefulness from the stories of hope inspiration and faith that fill these pages Consumed by One Another D.S. Walker, 2015-04-30 The black struggle is not our enemy it is our strength We must each take ownership of and be accountable for our daily lives in order to stop the downward slide When blacks whites and others fight each other it only distracts us from enemies that do not discriminate in how they destroy human life The bigger picture involves us as Americans more so than what color we are D S Walker tells inspiring stories about personal triumphs conflicts and he also shares the concerns he has about whats holding back the black community Along the way he considers important questions such as Are we ready to commit ourselves to what we need to do to get out of our present situation Have we abandoned our moral mission and moved farther away from our moral center Can the black community give its suffering positive and lasting meaning by how it responds to it Our children are watching us What one generation accepts the next generation will embrace Our legacy is in question Without deep thought difficult conversations and a commitment to change well continue to be Consumed by One Another One Step Back - Two Steps Forward LeCount R. Davis CFP®, 2020-01-06 In my search to find a career and to help others while so doing I had to take a step back and realize my blessings family and those who helped me along my journey If I wanted to achieve my mission I had to first reach the underserved population and help guide them in their financial journey It is my belief in this mission that greatly influenced me to choose my financial planning career and write this book My experiences and employment history could be repeated by many people who will not choose to pursue a career in the financial services industry but could benefit from the advantages of financial planning in caring for their families and community My mission includes inspiring motivating and preparing the next generation of financial planners who truly care to help others while pursuing a successful career 10 Year-wise AILET Previous Year Solved Papers (2024 - 2015) 5th Edition | All India Law Entrance Test PYQs | Must for SLAT, LLB, Law Exams Disha Experts Disha Experts, The updated and revised 5th edition of the book 10 Year wise AILET Previous Year Solved Papers contains Past 10 Year wise Solved Papers 2024 2015 of the AILET Entrance Test The papers are provided Year wise which can also be attempted as Mock Tests The detailed solution to each paper is provided immediately after the Paper Each paper covers the 5 sections General Knowledge Mathematics Legal Aptitude Reasoning English Bottom Set Citizen Paula

Ambrossi,2024-03-19 While research evidence shows the negative impact of ability grouping on children this book suggests that the reason the practice is still embraced is the unspoken allegiance to the values of empire that governments schools and many parents still uphold promoting competition and hierarchies over and above ethical principles on the education of society s most vulnerable our children The practice which happens across social class humiliates children deemed less academically able by rounding them up in front and in opposition to their better intellectual peers Wielding knowledge as a weapon of humiliation warps children s relationship to organized forms of knowledge making them antagonistic or indifferent towards it This book responds to Michael Young s The Rise of the Meritocracy by focusing on the plight of those who are educationally placed in opposition to the intellectual elites the bottom set citizen rich or poor and ready to vote This book will appeal to anyone concerned with democracy and children s rights in education including the rich on whom I shine the light of deficit for a change Thus Donald Trump and Nigel Farage exemplify the bottom set citizen in all his facilitated glory Other more vulnerable BSCs are not as lucky Diary of Annie's War - The Diary of an Englishwoman in Germany During WW1 Annie Droege,2012-10-19 Annie s War tells the story of an Englishwoman held under virtual house arrest in Germany during the First World War Annie Drummond Dr ege had moved from the United Kingdom to Germany when her husband Arthur inherited lands and estates in the Rhineland But their dream life turned into a nightmare when the Kaiser went to war with Britain And Annie s life was turned upside down as Arthur was interned and she was instructed to sign on daily at the police station This is Annie s story of the war years in her own words 3rd Generation Country BeNeca Ward

,2009-09-16 BeNeca Ward highlights the practices that were once used to set the American standards on raising children to be kind respectful and responsible adults Shedding light on the timely topic of how to instill great values into today s children this book focuses on GETTING BACK TO THE BASICS OF PARENTING utilizing the lessons that were used for at least three generations but for many reasons are no longer being taught Subtle and informative this book infuses humor and wit as readers reflect upon their own experiences and are tuned into the experiences of others It also spotlights how much was once taught through the simplest lessons With chapters like Hold My Hand The Patience of a Pomegranate The Makings of a Man and Family Ties readers are in for a memorable illuminating experience As Ward states it is never too late to mold America s children into kind respectful and responsible adults Excerpts Growing up we became very familiar with the words structure and discipline They were blended into the cement that was laid on the foundation of our lives which ultimately held all our values together As children we were not given the most but taught to appreciate the least I learned how to accept the fact that everyone will not think that I am the most beautiful person but just as I found beauty within myself someone else would find beauty in me as well Being neighborly was a bit like mandatory community service Bedtime was a regular vocabulary word in our household A man s name was ultimately viewed as the mirror image of his legacy It was looked at as something similar to a bowl of life Everything that he did during his lifetime was put inside of his name Being Human Fazil Moradi,2024-01-12 Being Human Political Modernity and Hospitality in Kurdistan Iraq is a unique work of anthropological hospitality that draws on historical sources eyewitness testimonies perpetrator testimony archival documents trial records artwork novels and poetry to engage with one of political modernity s acts of genocide in Iraq under the Iraqi Ba th state

Rumberg,2014-06-28 5 Five extraordinary stories that will take you on an unforgettable ride The Golden Bracelet A dying man finds a bracelet that changes his life or does it The Edge An abused woman finds a way to get even but what price must she pay The Valley at the End of the Earth A Native American man and woman fight for the right to love but are forced to run and hide What happens when fate catches up with them Modern Antiquities What happens when two people discover the distant past and try to live in it If you could go back in time would you Escape from Malaysia Two people fall in love and brazenly go against the traditions of their family and country Could they have done anything differently Experience these five exciting stories stories that will stretch your imagination and force you to examine what you believe The Boys Martin Gilbert,1998-09-15 Relates the experiences of a group of Jews male and female from Poland and Hungary who survived the concentration camps as teenagers It Took A Broken Leg Dr. Hamid Charm,2009-03-28 When Western education then called the white man s school first came to the town of Dubayabia in the land of Romron at the heels of the abolition of the transatlantic slave trade horribly frightening stories about that dreadful trade still lingered in the minds of some parents Those stories made some parents terrified of sending their children to a white man s school when they reached school going age hiding them instead or sending only strangers Also troubling for some residents of Dubayabia region in those days called the Traditionalists was the advent of foreign religions preaching against and indiscriminately branding their African tribal customs and cultural practices including their safest and most cherished music and dances as unreligious or worse as pagan practice For one child named Mawudor in particular his father Mordibor an ultraconservative Muslim of the Tukolor tribe decided to send him and his elder brother Baba to a faraway remote rural village called Futa in a neighboring foreign country to study the Qur'an and acquire aspects of their Tukolor culture instead of sending them to school When Mordibor shared his secret plan for his sons with his friend Pa Manika along with his other concerns about what he perceived as the un-Tukolor customs and practices of his sons' maternal relatives in Dubayabia his friend tried unsuccessfully to talk him out of it Mawudor's grandparents also tried and failed in their own way to stop Mordibor from sending their beloved grandson away While Mordibor wanted to send his sons away to acquire Islamic and Tukolor values instead of Western education his son Mawudor on the other hand liked and dreamed about attending the white man's school and he also admired the customs and practices of his maternal relatives Even fate it seemed was not on his father's side After just two years in that Koranic school in Futa Mawudor and his brother Baba had an accident a fall in which Mawudor broke his leg When Mawudor was sent home following the accident and his father saw his broken leg he was devastated Mawudor's life it seemed had been changed Even the region of Dubayabia's most famous herbalist Mawudor's grandmother couldn't fix his broken leg to its original form Mordibor realizing how handicapped his son Mawudor had become changed his original plan and finally decided to send him to a white man's school together with his younger brothers It Took a Broken Leg is a family story in which this author chronicles the eventful experiences of the main character Mawudor back in time through a maze of raw African tribal beliefs customs and practices characterizing his people practicing Muslims with keen interests and beliefs in secret societies spiritual devils and witchcraft

We Bleed for Each Other Benjamin D. Copple, 2019-06-07 In a world where her peers are too busy monitoring their social media accounts one young woman decides to be different In an effort to live beyond herself she moves away from the comforts of 21st Century America to the wild untamed jungles of the Central African Republic to work in a small village of refugees fleeing violence Once there amongst squalid conditions and back-breaking labor she must face mercenaries renegade militia wild animals and an old flame who left her behind But as she cooks meals tends crops explores the jungle and teaches Sunday School she learns what true love truly means Exciting and beautiful yet thought-provoking We Bleed For Each Other is for those readers looking for an adventure story with a heart of gold

Kin Sophie Lucido Johnson, 2025-11-11 Discover a transformative reframing of intimate relationships with practical steps to build community and combat the loneliness epidemic in this bold and warmhearted blend of memoir and social science in the vein of When You Care and Big Friendship Doesn't it seem like there simply isn't enough time to take care of ourselves our families and our to-do lists Even when we're partnered and surrounded by friends we're often too afraid of burdening others to ask for help So how do we survive today's age of overwork and stress and who can we turn to for the support we need to stay afloat Now writer and cartoonist Sophie Lucido Johnson offers a radical answer to our age of overwhelm in Kin With richly reported stories and insights from psychology and sociology Lucido Johnson explores the importance of our closest relationships beyond the nuclear family and provides the tools to forge kinship relationships built on emotional support physical care and shared resources From asking for help on a grocery run to choosing to have roommates later in life to combat loneliness to living in modern day mommunes of single mothers sharing bills and responsibilities Kin shows the vast range of kinship structures she and others are thriving in and how to build your own community of support

Children and Families in Israel Arie Jarus, Joseph Marcus, Joseph Oren, Chanan Rapaport, 2023-08-09 Originally published in 1970 this title was intended to describe a wide and complex network of historical social psychological and medical issues It starts with an overview of Israel as a society and how it is similar yet differs from that the reader may be familiar with Divided into three parts the first looks at the basic fabric and main patterns of social and psychological issues in Israel and provides the background for specific mental health problems The second part deals with selected groups of population or problem areas which are of special interest from the viewpoint of mental health issues and that receive special attention by the society itself This includes the child outside his family the immigrant child absorbed by the program of Youth Aliyah socially deprived or vulnerable children those with disabilities and delinquency The final part deals with ways and means of providing service and care for those who eventually need attention This includes descriptions of the mental health professions the available psychiatric services the role of voluntary agencies in providing care and finally a discussion of issues in planning and research Today it can be read in its historical context
