What with science being able to explain almost everything about us and about the world we live in there didn't seem much point to believing in God any more. But then came the day Sam was exploring the Internet and stumbled across God's website. At least that was what it claimed to be. Sam decides to investigate and becomes engrossed in conversations with the mysterious person on the other end. Together they explore the great questions arising out of evolution, astronomy, cosmology, the laws of nature and the possibility of miracles. Not that Sam knew much science. Fortunately the stranger was able to explain the science from scratch in a way that Sam could understand. They also tackled the problems of evil, suffering and death that really set Sam thinking. Readers will be challenged to form their own personal responses to the issues raised based on a listing of forty questions at the back of the book. Sample questions include: What do you hope to achieve in your lifetime? Does belief in God play a part in that? Do you believe in evolution that you came from animals? Do you think there is life on other planets? If so, does that make human beings less important? Do the world religions contradict each other or are they simply talking about the same God in somewhat different ways? How should belief in an afterlife affect the way you live this life? First Thirteen Books of the Odyssey of Homer Homer, 1896 WE ARE NOT THE BAD GUYS David Goff, 2019-07-16 Like so many others Mark and Zoe have reasons to despise Sir Nigel Percy and his crooked business practices. They have a plan to extract revenge that's so brilliant it's certain to make them heroes down the Coach and Horses. When it all goes wrong they spend the next thirty-six hours wishing they had never heard of Arsen Facen or his pet kakapo. With professional thieves, hired henchmen and the forces of law and order chasing them around the streets of South Manchester they are forced to rely on the protection of new friends and unlikely allies. Can a collection of society's bad guys help them stay free of their pursuers long enough for them to figure out what is going on? Or will they have to pay the price for refusing to get used to the way things are? Underground Mudrooroo, 2018-10-01 By the firelight a mysterious storyteller weaves a captivating tale of sea journeys, vampire women and Aboriginal Dreaming. Around the campfire the gold diggers listen and journey with George as he plunges underground to rescue his ship's captain from the horrific and mesmerising vampire woman Jangamuttuk. The Master of the Ghost Dreaming sends his son George to rescue Wadawaka from the ghost vampire woman who has taken him as her Dark Lord and imprisoned him in her underground kingdom. Will George in either his human form or as his Dreaming animal self Dingo be able to withstand Amelia's powers? Will he survive the underground caverns? Can he tear Wadawaka and himself from the violent but seductive power of the vampire woman? And who is the strange but familiar ghost woman accompanying the new colonial governor? Underground is the 3rd in the Master
