JACOB LAWRENCE: THE HARLEM, HARRIET TUBMAN AND MIGRATION SERIES., 1989 The Complete Jacob Lawrence Peter T. Nesbett, 2000 Jacob Lawrence Stephanie E. Dickinson, 2016-07-15 Jacob Lawrence was a talented painter whose work became an important part of the Harlem Renaissance and modern art Learn about his life influences and impact Imagery of Lynching Dora Apel, 2004 Outside of the classroom and scholarly publications lynching has long been a taboo subject Nice people it is felt do not talk about it and they certainly do not look at images representing the atrocity In Imagery of Lynching Dora Apel contests this adopted stance of ignorance Through a careful and compelling analysis of over one hundred representations of lynching she shows how the visual documentation of such crimes can be a central vehicle for both constructing and challenging racial hierarchies She examines how lynching was often orchestrated explicitly for the camera and how these images circulated on postcards but also how they eventually were appropriated by antilynching forces and artists from the 1930s to the present She further investigates how photographs were used to construct ideologies of whiteness and blackness the role that gender played in these visual representations and how interracial desire became part of the imagery Offering the fullest and most systematic discussion of the depiction of lynching in diverse visual forms this book addresses questions about race class gender and dissent in the shaping of American society Although we may want to avert our gaze Apel holds it with her sophisticated interpretations of traumatic images and the uses to which they have been put John Brown Still Lives! R. Blakeslee Gilpin, 2011-11-14 From his obsession with the founding principles of the United States to his cold blooded killings in the battle over slavery s expansion John Brown forced his countrymen to reckon with America s violent history its checkered progress toward racial equality and its resistance to substantive change Tracing Brown s legacy through writers and artists like Thomas Hovenden W E B Du Bois Robert Penn Warren Jacob Lawrence Kara Walker and others Blake Gilpin transforms Brown from an object of endless manipulation into a dynamic medium for contemporary beliefs about the process and purpose of the American republic Gilpin argues that the endless distortions of John Brown misrepresentations of a man and a cause simultaneously noble and terrible have only obscured our understanding of the past and loosened our grasp of the historical episodes that define America s struggles for racial equality By showing Brown s central role in the relationship between the American past and the American present Gilpin clarifies Brown s complex legacy and highlights his importance in the nation s ongoing struggle with the role of violence the meaning of equality and the intertwining paths these share with the process of change The Power of Art Caroline Campbell, 2024-01-02 An epic work of art history that will transform our understanding of the world by unlocking the human stories behind millennia of art Taking readers from ancient Babylon to contemporary Pyongyang the eminent curator Caroline Campbell explains art s power to illuminate our lives and inspires us to benefit from its transformative and regenerative power Unlike the majority of contemporary art history this book is about much more than the cult of artists personalities Instead each chapter is structured around a city at a particularly vibrant moment in its history describing what propelled its creativity and innovation The emotions and societies she evokes are highly recognizable revealing how great art resonates powerfully by transcending the boundaries of time Unruly Visions Gayatri Gopinath, 2018-10-25 In Unruly Visions Gayatri Gopinath brings queer studies to bear on investigations of diaspora and visibility tracing the interrelation of affect archive region and aesthetics through an examination of a wide range of contemporary queer visual culture Spanning film fine art poetry and photography these cultural forms which Gopinath conceptualizes as aesthetic practices of queer diaspora reveal the intimacies of seemingly disparate histories of post colonial dwelling and displacement and are a product of diasporic trajectories Countering standard formulations of diaspora that inevitably foreground the nation state as well as familiar formulations of queerness that ignore regional gender and sexual formations she stages unexpected encounters between works by South Asian Middle Eastern African Australian and Latinx artists such as Tracey Moffatt Akram Zaatari and Allan deSouza Gopinath shows how their art functions as regional queer archives that express alternative understandings of time space and relationality The queer optics produced by these visual practices creates South to South region to region and diaspora to region cartographies that profoundly challenge disciplinary and area studies rubrics Gopinath thereby provides new critical perspectives on settler colonialism empire military occupation racialization and diasporic dislocation as they indelibly mark both bodies and landscapes
