provocative and authoritative compendium of writings on leadership in education from distinguished scholar educators worldwide What is educational leadership What are some of the trends questions and social forces most relevant to the current state of education What are the possible futures of education and what can educational leadership contribute to these futures To address these questions and more editors Duncan Waite and Ira Bogotch asked distinguished international thought leaders on education to share their insights observations and research findings on the nature of education and educational leadership in the global village The Wiley International Handbook of Educational Leadership brings together contributions from authors in twenty one countries spanning six continents Topics examined include leadership and aesthetics creativity eco justice advocacy Big Data and technology neoliberalism emerging philosophies and theories critical democracy gender and radical feminism political economies emotions postcolonialism and new directions in higher education A must read for teachers researchers scholars and policy makers this Handbook Champions radical pluralism over consensus and pseudoscientific or political solutions to problems in education Embraces social economic and political relevance alongside the traditions of careful and systematic rigor Challenges traditional epistemological cultural and methodological concepts of education and educational leadership Explores the field s historical antecedents and ways in which leadership can transcend the narrow disciplinary and bureaucratic constraints imposed by current research designs and methods

Advances radically new possibilities for remaking educational leadership research and educational institutions Mentoring for School Quality Bruce S. Cooper, Carlos R. McCray, 2015-10-21 Making Mentoring Work should help educators to mentor or to be mentored effectively in our schools We all have had mentors those key adults from family work or schools who have assisted us in learning and becoming good adults skilled and able professionals and contributing member of community and society Although it s not easy it does occur is doable and this book seeks to help everyone educators in particular both to be mentored and to be a mentor In fact the authors believe and show that everyone needs mentoring and many have the capacity knowledge and savvy to be a helpful mentor to others in their field school and world Much Promise:

Teaching Stressed and Anxious Learners in Grades 4-8 Barbara E. Oehlberg, 2006-01-06 Offers those of us who interact with students an opportunity to respond with sensitivity and reflective action Barbara Oehlberg not only identifies the issues but also provides activities that can help us gain greater insight into the child s world and provide opportunities for empowerment and healing Susan Ross Coordinator of Health Services Canton City Schools OH With the wisdom in this important work we can help our children develop new strategies for successful living in a stressful world Stephen Canneto Director Art for a Child s Safe America Foundation Links sound neurological research with practical activities for educators and youth workers Martha de Acosta Director Education and Training Programs Milton S Eisenhower Foundation From trauma stress and hopelessness to safety challenge and optimism Not all children cope equally well with the stresses and traumas life throws their way and every educator recognizes that deer in the headlights look some children get when current events and past traumas combine to trigger a fight or flight stress response No matter how safe the classroom may be in reality trauma deactivates cognitive skills and learning cannot resume until the child s equilibrium has been restored This important new resource helps educators understand how trauma and stress interfere with cognitive skills and how classroom and school activities can be used to restore feelings of safety empowerment and well being Topics include Neurobiology of the developing child and how cognitive lock out from the neocortex occurs during stress responses Strategies for reactivating cognitive skills memory and the ability to learn following stress responses How acting out behaviors are linked to stress and trauma How to generate a united effort on school safety and violence prevention issues Teachers counselors principals and administrators will find that these innovative strategies enhance feelings of safety and optimism in all learning environments and programs transforming hopelessness and anxiety into resiliency and hope
