Making Supervision Work for You Jerry J Wellington, 2010-04-16 Amongst the plethora of advice and guidance books and articles now available for postgraduate researchers, I would advise my students to select this one as providing insight not simply on what to do but also on why and how in relation to developing an effective working relationship with their supervisors. Since it addresses most of the new demands emerging in the doctoral world as well as those standard ones that have impacted previously, I would also recommend it to new or less experienced supervisors. Professor Pam Denicolo, University of Reading. Making Supervision Work For You discusses the entire supervision process from the student's perspective as well as considering the supervisor's viewpoint and constraints. The author covers all phases of the student's journey from induction through to final completion and examination of the thesis and the viva voce. The book illustrates many of the key issues in supervision by drawing upon extensive material from recent interviews with a range of supervisors and students. This book presents new ideas, regulations, and codes of practice and offers practical suggestions for students. It emphasizes students' experiences and needs whilst also maintaining a focus on the supervisor's perspective and the demands of assessment at postgraduate level. The book is primarily aimed at Postgraduate students but will also be useful for undergraduates in their final year and equally for new or experienced supervisors. SAGE Study Skills are essential study guides for students of all levels. From how to write great essays and succeeding at university to writing your undergraduate dissertation and doing postgraduate research, SAGE Study Skills help you get the best from your time at university. Visit the SAGE Study Skills hub for tips, quizzes, and videos on study success.

Doctoral education in context Jan Botha, Liezel Frick, Nompilo Tshuma, 2025-09-29 Doctoral Education in Context: Perspectives from Africa shares lived experiences and insights of doctoral supervisors from 16 different countries in Africa. The book's originality lies also in the contributors' profiles as practicing novice doctoral supervisors. All of them graduated from the Training Course for Supervisors offered by the Centre for Research on Evaluation Science and Technology (CREST) at Stellenbosch University in South Africa with the support of the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD), German Rectors' Conference (HRK) through the DIES Programme The authors commitment to doctoral supervision in their particular context is shown in each chapter Many edited volumes bring together the voices of often established researchers in this book we hear first hand the voices of novice supervisors who are willing to learn and share their insights and experiences in doctoral supervision This perspective makes the unique strength and originality of the book This book is for anyone involved in the research and practice of doctoral supervision in Africa and the global context Readers and doctoral supervisors outside Africa will learn much about the challenging world of doctoral supervision in Africa minds
