TIMES BOOK OF THE YEAR A New York Times bestseller the incredible true story of a couple that escaped slavery in the South and eventually made their way to the UK Africa and beyond The remarkable true story of Ellen and William Craft who escaped slavery through daring determination and disguise with Ellen passing as a wealthy disabled White man and William posing as his slave In 1848 a year of international democratic revolt a young enslaved couple Ellen and William Craft achieved one of the boldest feats of self emancipation in history Posing as master and slave while sustained by their love as husband and wife they made their escape together across more than 1 000 miles riding steamboats carriages and trains that took them from bondage in Georgia to the free states of the North Along the way they dodged slave traders military officers and even friends of their enslavers who might have revealed their true identities The tale of their adventure soon made them celebrities and generated headlines around the country Audiences could not get enough of this charismatic young couple who travelled the country drawing thunderous applause as they spoke alongside some of the greatest abolitionists of the day But even then they were not out of danger With the passage of an infamous new Fugitive Slave Act in 1850 all Americans became accountable for returning refugees like the Crafts to slavery Then yet another adventure began as the Crafts fled to England to embark upon a new life With three epic journeys compressed into one monumental bid for freedom Master Slave Husband Wife recounts both a ground breaking quest for liberty and justice and an unforgettable love story A Study

Toll,2020-09-01 New York Times Bestseller No one has told the story of World War II in the Pacific from beginning to bitter end better than Ian W Toll This final volume concludes a brilliant trilogy Alex Kershaw New York Times best selling author of The First Wave and Avenue of Spies In June 1944 the United States launched a crushing assault on the Japanese navy in the Battle of the Philippine Sea The capture of the Mariana Islands and the accompanying ruin of Japanese carrier airpower marked a pivotal moment in the Pacific War No tactical masterstroke or blunder could reverse the increasingly lopsided balance of power between the two combatants The War in the Pacific had entered its endgame Beginning with the Honolulu Conference when President Franklin Delano Roosevelt met with his Pacific theater commanders to plan the last phase of the campaign against Japan Twilight of the Gods brings to life the harrowing last year of World War II in the Pacific when the U S Navy won the largest naval battle in history Douglas MacArthur made good his pledge to return to the Philippines waves of kamikazes attacked the Allied fleets the Japanese fought to the last man on one island after another B 29 bombers burned down Japanese cities and Hiroshima and Nagasaki were vaporized in atomic blasts Ian W Toll s narratives of combat in the air at sea and on the beaches are as gripping as ever but he also reconstructs the Japanese and American home fronts and takes the reader into the halls of power in Washington and Tokyo where the great questions of strategy and diplomacy were decided Drawing from a wealth of rich archival sources and new material Twilight of the Gods casts a penetrating light on the battles grand strategic decisions and naval logistics that enabled the Allied victory in the Pacific An authoritative and riveting account of the final phase of the War in the Pacific Twilight of the Gods brings Toll s masterful trilogy to a thrilling conclusion This prize winning and best selling trilogy will stand as the first complete history of the Pacific War in more than twenty five years and the first multivolume history of the Pacific naval war since Samuel Eliot Morison s series was published in the 1950s
