A bold new conceptualization of Islam that reflects its contradictions and rich diversity What is Islam How do we grasp a human and historical phenomenon characterized by such variety and contradiction What is Islamic about Islamic philosophy or Islamic art Should we speak of Islam or of islams Should we distinguish the Islamic the religious from the Islamicate the cultural Or should we abandon Islamic altogether as an analytical term In What Is Islam Shahab Ahmed presents a bold new conceptualization of Islam that challenges dominant understandings grounded in the categories of religion and culture or those that privilege law and scripture He argues that these modes of thinking obstruct us from understanding Islam distorting it diminishing it and rendering it incoherent What Is Islam formulates a new conceptual language for analyzing Islam It presents a new paradigm of how Muslims have historically understood divine revelation one that enables us to understand how and why Muslims through history have embraced values such as exploration ambiguity aestheticization polyvalence and relativism as well as practices such as figural art music and even wine drinking as Islamic It also puts forward a new understanding of the historical constitution of Islamic law and its relationship to philosophical ethics and political theory A book that is certain to provoke debate and significantly alter our understanding of Islam What Is Islam reveals how Muslims have historically conceived of and lived with Islam as norms and truths that are at once contradictory yet coherent Islamic Studies in the Twenty-first Century Léon

Ariela Marcus-Sells, 2022-03-07 Sorcery or Science examines how two Sufi Muslim theologians who rose to prominence in the western Sahara Desert in the late eighteenth century Sidi al Mukhtar al Kunt d 1811 and his son and successor Sidi Muhammad al Kunt d 1826 decisively influenced the development of Sufi Muslim thought in West Africa Known as the Kunta scholars Mukhtar al Kunt and Muhammad al Kunt were influential teachers who developed a pedagogical network of students across the Sahara In exploring their understanding of the realm of the unseen a vast invisible world that is both surrounded and interpenetrated by the visible world Ariela Marcus Sells reveals how these theologians developed a set of practices that depended on knowledge of this unseen world and that allowed practitioners to manipulate the visible and invisible realms They called these practices the sciences of the unseen While they acknowledged that some Muslims particularly self identified white Muslim elites might consider these practices to be sorcery the Kunta scholars argued that these were legitimate Islamic practices Marcus Sells situates their ideas and beliefs within the historical and cultural context of the Sahara Desert surveying the cosmology and metaphysics of the realm of the unseen and the history of magical discourses within the Hellenistic and Arabo Islamic worlds Erudite and innovative this volume connects the Islamic sciences of the unseen with the reception of Hellenistic discourses of magic and proposes a new methodology for reading written devotional aids in historical context It will be welcomed by scholars of magic and specialists in Africana religious studies Islamic occultism and Islamic manuscript culture

Meditation in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Halvor Eifring, 2013-10-24 Meditative practices have flourished in widely different parts of Eurasia yet historical research on such practices is limited Research to date has focused on contexts rather than actual practices and within individual traditions For the first time in one volume the meditative practices of the three traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam are examined They are viewed in a global perspective considering both generic and historical connections to practices in other traditions particularly in India and East Asia Their cultural and historical peculiarities are examined comparing them both to each other and to Asian forms of meditation The book builds on a notion of meditation as self administered techniques for inner transformation a definition which focuses on transformative practice rather than notions of meditative states and mystical experiences It proposes ways of studying meditative practice historically and concludes with an essay on the modern scientific interest in meditation
