Copyright Office, 1958 Includes Part 1 Number 1 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January December The Routledge Handbook of Translation and the City Tong King Lee, 2021-06-27 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and the City is the first multifaceted and cross disciplinary overview of how cities can be read through the lens of translation and how translation studies can be enriched by an understanding of the complex dynamics of the city Divided into four sections the chapters are authored by leading scholars in translation studies sociolinguistics and literary and cultural criticism They cover contexts from Brussels to Singapore and Melbourne to Cairo and topics from translation as resistance to translanguaging and urban design This volume explores the role of translation at critical junctures of a city's historical transformation as well as in the mundane intercultural moments of urban life and uncovers the trope of the translational city in writing This Handbook is critical reading for researchers scholars and advanced students in translation studies linguistics and urban studies Relaunching Titanic William Neill, Michael Murray, Berna Grist, 2013-07-18 Relaunching Titanic critically considers the invocation of Titanic heritage in Belfast in contributing to a new post conflict understanding of the city The authors address how the memory of Titanic is being and should be represented in the place of its origin from where it was launched into the collective consciousness and unconscious of western civilization Relaunching Titanic examines the issues in the context of international debates on the tension between place marketing of cities and other alternative portrayals of memory and meaning in places Key questions include the extent to which the goals of economic development are congruous with the contemplative city and especially the need for mature and creative reflection in the post conflict city whether development interests have taken precedence over the need for a deeper appreciation of a more nuanced Titanic legacy in the city of Belfast and what Belfast shares with other places in considering the sacred and profane in memory construction While Relaunching Titanic focuses on the conflicted history of Belfast and the Titanic it will have lessons for planners and scholars of city branding tourism and urban re imaging Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 Juvenile Author-title Catalog Orange County Public Library (Calif.), 1971 Touring Cultures Chris Rojek, John Urry, 2002-09-11 This collection brings together some of the most influential writers in the field to examine the complex connections between tourism and cultural change and the relevance of tourist experience to debates on space time and identity The Publishers Weekly, 1922 Frankenstein Urbanism Federico Cugurullo, 2021-05-16 This book tells the story of visionary urban experiments shedding light on the theories that preceded their development and on the monsters that followed and might be the end of our cities The narrative is threefold and delves first into the eco city second the smart city and third the autonomous city intended as a place where existing smart technologies are evolving into artificial intelligences that are taking the management of the city out of the hands of humans The book empirically explores Masdar City in Abu Dhabi and Hong Kong to provide a critical analysis of eco and smart city experiments and their sustainability and it draws on numerous real life examples to illustrate the rise of urban artificial intelligences across different geographical spaces and scales Theoretically the book traverses philosophy urban studies and planning theory to explain the passage from eco and smart cities to the autonomous city and to reflect on the meaning and purpose of cities in a time when human and non biological intelligences are irreversibly colliding in the built environment Iconoclastic and prophetic Frankenstein Urbanism is both an examination of the evolution of urban experimentation through the lens of Mary Shelley s Frankenstein and a warning about an urbanism whose product resembles Frankenstein s monster a fragmented entity which escapes human control and human understanding Academics students and practitioners will find in this book the knowledge that is necessary to comprehend and engage with the many urban experiments that are now alive ready to leave the laboratory and enter our cities The Cumulative Book Index ,1922 Homes and Haunts Alison Booth,2016-09-08 This is the first full length study of literary tourism in North America as well as Britain and a unique exploration of popular response to writers literary house museums and the landscapes or countries associated with their lives and works An interdisciplinary study ranging from 1820 1940 Homes and Haunts Touring Writers Shrines and Countries unites museum and tourism studies book history narrative theory theories of gender space and things and other approaches to depict and interpret the haunting experiences of exhibited houses and the curious history of topo biographical writing about famous authors In illustrated chapters that blend Victorian and recent first person encounters that range from literary shrines and plaques to guidebooks memoirs portraits and monuments Alison Booth discusses pilgrims such as William and Mary Howitt Anna Maria and Samuel Hall and Elbert Hubbard and magnetic hosts and guests as Washington Irving Wordsworth Martineau Longfellow Hawthorne James and Dickens Virginia Woolf s feminist response to homes and haunts shapes a chapter on Mary Russell Mitford Gaskell and the Bront s and another on the Carlyles house and Monk s House Booth rediscovers collections of personalities haunted shrines and imaginative re enactments that have been submerged by a century of academic literary criticism Of Papers and Protests: Hong Kong responds to Occupy Central Volume 2 Guy Breshears,2016-03-06 The protests continued and both sides settled into a siege mentality and refused to compromise The protests ended not with an agreement nor a truce but with the court that ordered the streets be cleared Later with the Legislative Council s vote about Beijing s election proposal a return to the status quo was enforced but did nothing for the lingering distrust between both sides This book deals with the government reactions to those protests It shows the various government public announcements court injunctions and US reports which were strongly criticized by the Hong Kong government Also included are the events of the Mong Kok riot during the 2016 Lunar New Year
