Political Spirituality in the Face of Climate Collapse James W. Perkinson, 2024-07-08 This book takes its motive force from our contemporary climate crisis It seeks to reorient human and especially Christian understanding towards a more ecologically focused indigenously informed way of living James W Perkinson argues that our current eco climatic and socio political emergency is the culmination of a 5 000 year history of supremacist settlement in which city states first emergent in Mesopotamia and Egypt not only begin coercively organizing labor into surplus production and ecosystems into inordinate and destructive yields of goods but in the process also simultaneously deform the Spirit World haloing of natural phenomenon into outsized service of imperial reach Perkinson recognizes globalized humanity as an emerging monstrosity destroying both human culture and the world How we re envision and revalue at our critical juncture our inescapable interdependence with the more than human world as peer and teacher and even elder is the central theme that throbs below the surface of the very disparate topics commanding attention in each chapter

The Trauma of Everyday Life Dr. Epstein, 2014-07-07 Trauma does not just happen to a few unlucky people it is the bedrock of our psychology Death and illness touch us all but even the everyday sufferings of loneliness and fear are traumatic In The Trauma of Everyday Life renowned psychiatrist and author of Thoughts Without a Thinker Mark Epstein uncovers the transformational potential of trauma revealing how it can be used for the mind's own development Epstein finds throughout that trauma if it doesn't destroy us wakes us up to both our mind's own capacity and to the suffering of others It makes us more human caring and wise It can be our greatest teacher our freedom itself and it is available to all of us Western psychology teaches that if we understand the cause of trauma we might move past it while many drawn to Eastern practices see meditation as a means of rising above or distancing themselves from their most difficult emotions Both Epstein argues fail to recognize that trauma is an indivisible part of life and can be used as a tool for growth and an ever deeper understanding of change When we regard trauma with this perspective understanding that suffering is universal and without logic our pain connects us to the world on a more fundamental level Guided by the Buddha's life as a profound example of the power of trauma Epstein's also closely examines his own experience and that of his psychiatric patients to help us all understand that the way out of pain is through it Be Like the Wind Ellen Kohn, 2024-10-29 Ellen Kohn has been communicating with animals since childhood Her calling with horses began at age four when a dude ranch wrangler allowed her to join a routine trail ride Enthralled by her mount Ellen was unphased when he took off at a gallop heading back to the ranch but rather than freeze her with fear this auspicious moment revealed her life path Spiritual study and practice have since graced Ellen's life for the last 20 years Besides having a healing touch and reiki and Meridian certifications Ellen is an accredited spiritual counselor aromatherapist and tuning fork practitioner The combination of these tools has created a unique skill set that enables Ellen to access her client's psychic profile with physical emotional and mental aspects of their energy fields Healing and spiritual readings are Ellen's passion Esoteric Traditions of the World: 105 Secret Paths to Buried Wisdom: Book I of VII: Bon, Kalasha, Kogi, San, Dreamtime, Sámi, Ainu, Tengerism, Mapuche, Ifá, Kemet, Vedic, Huna, Zoroastrian, Mandaean Laing Z. Matthias, 2015-07-14 Teaching is hard External pressures are steadily increasing leading to high rates of attrition and burnout Unlike other resources that attempt to address those external factors The Cry of the Teacher's Soul offers hope by focusing on the key factor of good education the teacher It does so by examining the teacher's inner life mental emotional and spiritual For the Christian teacher paradoxes in teaching such as idealism reality and performance authenticity often parallel similar paradoxes in the Christian faith By embracing these paradoxes that probe the depths of issues around identity and purpose the teacher can sustain the difficult vocation of teaching even thriving instead of just surviving Each chapter focuses on a cry of the teacher s soul features a teacher s story that illustrates that cry and then explores the paradoxes embedded in teaching and in Christianity Little Girl, Arise! Thandeki Umlilo,2002 For too many years have I lived in the valley of dead bones Incest and abuse violated the essence of me and held me bound in deadly shame guilt and self rejection a human being that housed a withdrawn timid and vulnerable child Today however I experience myself as alive able to take risks eager to LIVE life to the fullest knowing the joy of freedom deeply appreciating the woman that I am the person whose very Source is the Giver of all life This transformation is the hope I hold out to all people who have been abused or victimised in any way My story in its very frankness is to tell all victims of abuse that we are not our experience Within us is the power to transcend any trauma and to rise victoriously in the glory and splendour of New Life The second purpose is to make as many people as possible especially the perpetrators aware of the devastating effect of abuse My hope is that this awareness raising will enable perpetrators to treat themselves and all persons with the respect and dignity that is rightfully theirs Healing with Spiritual Practices Thomas G.
