Hard Truths The Art Of Thornton Dial:

Hard Truths Thornton Dial, David C. Driskell, Greg Tate, 2011 Thornton Dial has lived his entire life in the American South Incorporating salvaged objects into his art he creates epic works including haunting reflections on homelessness global conflict the tragedy of 9 11 and African American history Thornton Dial Bernard L. Herman, 2012-03-01 Thornton Dial 1928 2016 one of the most important artists in the American South came to prominence in the late 1980s and was celebrated internationally for his large construction pieces and mixed media paintings It was only later in response to a reviewer's negative comment on his artistic ability that he began to work on paper And it was not until recently that these drawings have received the acclaim they deserve This volume edited by Bernard L Herman offers the first sustained critical attention to Dial's works on paper Concentrating on Dial's early drawings the contributors examine Dial's use of line and color and his recurrent themes of love lust and faith They also discuss the artist's sense of place and history relate his drawings to his larger works and explore how his drawing has evolved since its emergence in the early 1990s Together the essays investigate questions of creativity and commentary in the work of African American artists and contextualize Dial's works on paper in the body of American art The contributors are Cara Zimmerman Bernard Herman Glenn Hinson Juan Logan and Colin Rhodes

My Soul Has Grown Deep Cheryl Finley, Randall R. Griffey, Amelia Peck, Darryl Pinckney, 2018-05-21 My Soul Has Grown Deep considers the art historical significance of contemporary Black artists and quilters working throughout the southeastern United States and Alabama in particular Their paintings drawings mixed media compositions sculptures and textiles include pieces ranging from the profoundly moving assemblages of Thornton Dial to the renowned quilts of Gee's Bend Nearly sixty remarkable examples originally collected by the Souls Grown Deep Foundation and donated to The Metropolitan Museum of Art are illustrated alongside insightful texts that situate them in the history of modernism and the context of the African American experience in the twentieth century South This remarkable study simultaneously considers these works on their own merits while making connections to mainstream contemporary art Art historians Cheryl Finley Randall R Griffey and Amelia Peck illuminate shared artistic practices including the novel use of found or salvaged materials and the artists' interest in improvisational approaches across media Novelist and essayist Darryl Pinckney provides a thoughtful consideration of the cultural and political history of the American South during and after the Civil Rights era These diverse works described and beautifully illustrated tell the compelling stories of artists who overcame enormous obstacles to create distinctive and culturally resonant art p p1 margin 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px font 14 0px Verdana We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger, 2022-10-04 A richly illustrated history of self-taught artists and how they changed American art Artists without formal training who learned from family community and personal journeys have long been a presence in American art But it wasn't until the 1980s with the help of trailblazing advocates that the collective force of their creative vision and bold self-definition permanently changed the mainstream art world In We Are Made of Stories Leslie

Umberger traces the rise of self taught artists in the twentieth century and examines how despite wide ranging societal racial and gender based obstacles they redefined who could be rightfully seen as an artist and revealed a much more diverse community of American makers Lavishly illustrated throughout We Are Made of Stories features more than one hundred drawings paintings and sculptures ranging from the narrative to the abstract by forty three artists including James Castle Thornton Dial William Edmondson Howard Finster Bessie Harvey Dan Miller Sister Gertrude Morgan the Philadelphia Wireman Nellie Mae Rowe Judith Scott and Bill Traylor The book centralizes the personal stories behind the art and explores enduring themes including self definition cultural heritage struggle and joy and inequity and achievement At the same time it offers a sweeping history of self taught artists the critical debates surrounding their art and how museums have gradually diversified their collections across lines of race gender class and ability Recasting American art history to embrace artists who have been excluded for too long We Are Made of Stories vividly captures the power of art to show us the world through the eyes of another Published in association with the Smithsonian American Art Museum Exhibition Schedule Smithsonian American Art Museum Washington DC July 1 2022 March 26 2023

Beyond Constraint Shona N. Jackson, 2024-10-11 In Beyond Constraint Shona N Jackson offers a new approach to labour and its analysis by demonstrating the fundamental relation between black and Indigenous People's sovereign free and coerced labour in the Americas Through the writings of Cedric Robinson Walter Rodney C L R James and Sylvia Wynter Jackson confronts the elision of Indigenous People's labour in the black radical tradition She argues that this elision is an effect of the structural relation of antiblackness to anti indigeneity through which native and black bodies are arranged on either side of a split between unproductive labour and productive work necessary for capital accumulation and for how we read capital in political economic critique This division between labour and work forces the radical tradition to sustain the break between black and Indigenous peoples as part of its critical strategies of liberation To address this impasse Jackson reads the tradition against the grain for openings to indigeneity and a method for recovering lost labours

Flyboy 2 Greg Tate, 2016-08-04 Since launching his career at the Village Voice in the early 1980s Greg Tate has been one of the premiere critical voices on contemporary Black music art literature film and politics Flyboy 2 provides a panoramic view of the past thirty years of Tate's influential work Whether interviewing Miles Davis or Ice Cube reviewing an Azealia Banks mixtape or Suzan Lori Parks's Topdog Underdog discussing visual artist Kara Walker or writer Clarence Major or analyzing the ties between Afro futurism Black feminism and social movements Tate's resounding critical insights illustrate how race gender and class become manifest in American popular culture Above all Tate demonstrates through his signature mix of vernacular poetics and cultural theory and criticism why visionary Black artists intellectuals aesthetics philosophies and politics matter to twenty first century America

The Forge of Vision David Morgan, 2015-10-20 Religions teach their adherents how to see and feel at the same time so learning to see is not a disembodied process but one hammered out on the forge of human need social relations and material practice Therefore religions may be studied through the lens of salient visual themes This book tells a history of Catholic and Protestant Christianity since the sixteenth century by selecting visual themes that have shaped the development of the religion throughout the modern era Chapters examine a variety of visual practices including imagination envisioning nationhood the likeness of Jesus modern art as a spiritual quest the material life of words and the importance of images for education devotion worship and domestic life Provided by publisher
