Industrialization, Urbanization, and Immigration

During the Gilded Age, two transforming experiences changed many aspects of American life – industrialization and urbanization.

Four primary factors contributed to the rapid industrialization of America: improved transportation and communication; new inventions and technology; new marketing and merchandizing techniques; and plentiful labor. Technology fuels most political, social, and economic change.

Industrialization-

occurs when a nation's economic system decreases its reliance upon producing goods by hand and increases its reliance upon producing goods by machine.

Factors contributing to the rise of Industrialization

- Improved transportation and communication.
- A growing number of entrepreneurs.
- New inventions and technology.
- New marketing

Urbanization-

occurs when a community takes on the characteristics of a city. A city is a relatively large and permanent settlement of people who generally have some type of system for sanitation, utilities, land usage, housing, and transportation and more.

By 1870, the nation had only 25 cities with more than 50,000 people.

with a total population of 5 million. By 1890, there were 58 cities that size with nearly 12 million people. Most were in

Immigration is the process of moving from one nation to another nation to permanently resettle.

Emigration is the process of moving from one nation to another, with the possibility of returning to one's original homeland.

Migration is the process of moving from one location within a nation to another location within that same nation.
