

The Infidels' REVENGE

The background of the book cover is a dramatic illustration of a volcanic eruption. A massive, dark, and jagged volcano dominates the center, with bright yellow and orange lava flows cascading down its slopes. Plumes of white smoke or ash rise from the crater. In the lower right foreground, the dark, metallic hull of a ship is visible, partially obscured by the lower edge of the frame. The overall color palette is dominated by the fiery oranges, yellows, and reds of the lava, contrasting with the dark tones of the volcano and ship.

Infidels Revenge William Keefe:

Infidels' Revenge William a. Keefe, 2015-12-13 Challenging the assertion that the death of Osama bin Laden rendered al Qaeda and other terrorist groups incapable of mounting attacks within the continental United States of America is The Infidels Revenge a work of realistic fiction that will open your eyes to new possibilities Two separate groups of Islamic Terrorists comprising less than fifty people decimate the forests in the western U S and take down enough of the electrical power grid to send the country back into the 19th century The Government responds by enacting sensible policies strategies and laws and it captures and disposes of the perpetrators The Infidels Revenge The reality is that infrastructure of the United States such as forests water supplies bridges pipelines and the electrical power grid are virtually undefended The Internet makes this situation even worse Google Maps street views and satellite views show every detail of critical facilities The Forest Service s website publishes weekly updates of where woodlands are most susceptible to fire Al Qaeda and other terrorist groups have a history of planning and conducting successful assaults ranging from the attacks on the Twin Towers and World Trade Center in New York City to blowing a large hole in the USS Cole killing and injuring U S sailors These decentralized organizations lend themselves to carrying out small tactical operations that frequently do not require central control or coordination by the terrorist organization and can be carried out by relatively few jihadists this is that story
