History Beyond Trauma:

History Beyond Trauma Francoise Davoine, Jean-Max Gaudilliere, 2013-03-26 In the course of nearly thirty years of work with patients in psychiatric hospitals and private practice Francoise Davoine and Jean Max Gaudilliere have uncovered the ways in which transference and countertransference are affected by the experience of social catastrophe Handed down from one generation to the next the unspoken horrors of war betrayal dissociation and disaster in the families of patient and analyst alike are not only revived in the therapeutic relationship but when understood actually provide the keys to the healing process The authors present vivid examples of clinical work with severely traumatized patients reaching inward to their own intimate family histories as shaped by the Second World War and outward toward an exceptionally broad range of cultural references to literature philosophy political theory and anthropology Using examples from medieval carnivals and Japanese No theater to Wittgenstein and Hannah Arendt to Sioux rituals in North Dakota they reveal the ways in which psychological damage is done and undone With a special focus on the relationship between psychoanalysis and the neurosciences Davoine and Gaudilliere show how the patient analyst relationship opens pathways of investigation into the nature of madness whether on the scale of History world wars Vietnam or on the scale of Story the silencing of horror within an individual family In order to show how the therapeutic approach to trauma was developed on the basis of war psychiatry the authors ground their clinical theory in the work of Thomas Salmon an American doctor from the time of the First World War In their case studies they illustrate how three of the four Salmon principles proximity immediacy and expectancy affect the handling of the transference countertransference relationship The fourth principle simplicity shapes the style in which the authors address their readers that is with the same clarity and directness with which they speak to their patients

Beyond Trauma Rolf J. Kleber, Charles R. Figley, Berthold P.R. Gersons, 2013-06-29 The editors of Beyond Trauma Cultural and Societal Dynamics have created a volume that goes beyond the individual's psychological dynamics of trauma exploring its social cultural political and ethical dimensions from an international as well as a global perspective In the opening address as International Chair of the First World Conference of the International Society for Traumatic Stress Studies on Trauma and Tragedy The Origins Management and Prevention of Traumatic Stress in Today's World June 22-26 1992 Amsterdam The Netherlands the conference that formed the foundation for the collected chapters in this volume 1 commented This meeting is a landmark in accomplishing the Society's universal mission Our distinguished International Scientific Advisory Committee and Honorary Committee whose membership was drawn from over 60 countries the cooperation of six United Nations bodies and the participation and endorsement of numerous nongovernmental organizations and institutions attest to the Society's emerging presence as a major international forum for professionals of all disciplines working with victims and trauma survivors

Finding Life Beyond Trauma Victoria M. Follette, 2010-02 The mystery of life is not a problem to be solved but a reality to be experienced Zen saying While the pain and suffering of trauma can seem unbearable every day we see examples of people who have found a way not only to survive their experiences but also to really live their life to the fullest This book is about finding your way back to your valued life In Finding Life Beyond Trauma we hope to help you to move toward living a vital rich and awake life History through Trauma Tiffany Houck-Loomis, 2018-04-11 Our sacred texts have the potential to become texts of torture or texts of liberation History through Trauma explores the symbolic function of religious political and national symbols that aid in the construction of historical narratives and the psychological effects of trauma on their creation and dissolution The Deuteronomic Covenant paramount in the construction of a biblical history of Israel is analyzed with regard to Israel's history of exile What is proffered is the book of Job as a symbolic history of Israel that stands as a counter history beside the dominant history constructed in the canon's historical books a counter history whose function works to re-enliven the symbol of covenant History through Trauma brings consciousness to the effects of exile on the dominant historical narratives in the Hebrew canon and to the eradicated affective experiences of trauma that surface in counter texts such as the book of Job This work offers a valuable new understanding of the impact of trauma on history making in general an understanding that brings light to biblical studies practical theology pastoral psychology and psychoanalysis Beyond Trauma Victor R. Volkman, 2005-01-01 Victor Volkman has created a tool that takes the mystery out of one of the more remarkably effective clinical procedures in a way that can help millions of people revitalize and improve their lives To those desperate people who have experienced trauma or tragedy this process is a pathway to dealing with their feelings and getting on with their lives In the new book Beyond Trauma Conversations on Traumatic Incident Reduction Volkman presents a series of conversations with a wide range of people from many different backgrounds and experiences Each provides his or her perspective on Traumatic Incident Reduction or TIR for short The book explains the techniques used by professionals and patients to help people sort out resolve and overcome the negative effects of painful suffering Untold countless people have to deal with trauma in a wide variety of situations Soldiers who experience war or injury families dealing with death chemical or substance abuse parental neglect child or sexual abuse terrorism crime and punishment Beyond Trauma Conversations on Traumatic Incident Reduction TIR is unique in that it addresses both people suffering from the effects of traumatic stress and the practitioners who help them This method has been effective in dealing with many areas of trauma including Post Traumatic Stress Disorder PTSD in such diverse groups as veterans children 9/11 survivors motor vehicle accident and sexual abuse survivors TIR is a brief one on one non hypnotic person centered simple and highly structured method for permanently eliminating the negative effects of past traumas Contributors include world renowned experts in traumatology including Windy Dryden Ph D Joyce Carbonell Ph D and TIR's developer Frank A Gerbode M D Beyond Trauma highlights stories of TIR helping survivors to regain control of their lives This book will be life changing not only for survivors of traumatic incidents but also for the professionals committed to helping them Not in 30 years of practice have I used a more remarkably effective clinical procedure Robert H Moore Ph D What people are saying about this book Beyond Trauma Conversations on Traumatic Incident Reduction is an excellent resource to begin one's mastery in this area of practice Michael G Tancus LCSW DCSW Augusta Behavioral Health I have found Beyond Trauma to be EXCEPTIONALLY HELPFUL in understanding and practicing TIR in broad and diverse areas of practice not just in traditional trauma work The information from various points of view is really priceless Gerry Bock Registered Clinical Counsellor B C Canada Beyond Trauma offers PTSD sufferers a glimpse at a light at the end of the tunnel while providing mental health workers with a revolutionary technique that could increase their success rate with traumatized clients Jeni Mayer Body Mind Spirit Magazine Having read the book I feel that I have already become better at working with distressed clients Bob Rich Ph D

Trauma in Contemporary Literature Marita Nadal, Mónica Calvo, 2014-03-26 Trauma in Contemporary Literature analyzes contemporary narrative texts in English in the light of trauma theory including essays by scholars of different countries who approach trauma from a variety of perspectives The book analyzes and applies the most relevant concepts and themes discussed in trauma theory such as the relationship between individual and collective trauma historical trauma absence vs loss the roles of perpetrator and victim dissociation nachträglichkeit transgenerational trauma the process of acting out and working through introjection and incorporation mourning and melancholia the phantom and the crypt postmemory and multidirectional memory shame and the affects and the power of resilience to overcome trauma Significantly the essays not only focus on the phenomenon of trauma and its diverse manifestations but above all consider the elements that challenge the aporias of trauma the traps of stasis and repetition in order to reach beyond the confines of the traumatic condition and explore the possibilities of survival healing and recovery Trauma's Labyrinth: Reflections of a Wounded Healer Laura K. Kerr, 2022-03-28 2022 Bronze Living Now Book Award 2022 Foreword INDIES Book of the Year Award Trauma can feel like a labyrinth twisting on itself like a maze of despair without end or exit This seems particularly true in today's chaotic world of pandemics climate change social conflict and systemic violence Increasingly the conditions of the larger world aggravate if not cause the traumas in our individual lives However as Laura K Kerr explores in this wide ranging collection of essays not only can we heal from trauma but we can use it as an opportunity for growth and transformation changing ourselves and the world for the better Drawing from her experiences as researcher trauma survivor and psychotherapist she examines various causes of trauma details how to understand and treat trauma's effects and explores the role society plays in activating traumatic defenses Despite the weightiness of the topic Dr Kerr brings hope for lasting positive change As Dr Kerr shows the key lies in removing rigid divides like those between wounded and healer self and society When they are integrated healing becomes transformative and enduring not only for ourselves but for the increasingly traumatized world in which we live Radical Justice Luis Martín-Cabrera, 2011-08-16 Radical Justice investigates the convoluted relationship between memory and justice as it is portrayed in political documentaries and detective fiction from Spain and the Southern Cone It argues that the possibility of achieving justice in these regions lies beyond market and state and is yet to come Rather than focusing on high literature Radical Justice uses popular culture as a site from which to question both the inability of the State and the transnational market to come to terms with the dictatorial past and to deliver justice This book will interest a wide range of scholars from national literature and film specialists of Argentina Chile and Spain to philosophers and students of ethics human rights and questions of justice Trauma and Literature in an Age of Globalization Jennifer Ballengee, David Kelman, 2021-01-28 While globalization is often associated with economic and social progress it has also brought new forms of terrorism permanent states of emergency demographic displacement climate change and other natural disasters Given these contemporary concerns one might also view the current time as an age of traumatism Yet what or how does the traumatic event mean in an age of global catastrophe This volume explores trauma theory in an age of globalization by means of the practice of comparative literature The essays and interviews in this volume ask how literary studies and the literary anticipate imagine or theorize the current global climate especially in an age when the links between violence amorphous traumatic events and economic concerns are felt increasingly in everyday experience Trauma and Literature in an Age of Globalization turns a literary perspective upon the most urgent issues of globalization problems of borders language inequality and institutionalized violence and considers from a variety of perspectives how such events impact our lived experience and its representation in language and literature

Traumatic Pasts in Asia Mark S. Micale, Hans Pols, 2021-09-17 In the early twenty first century trauma is seemingly everywhere whether as experience diagnosis concept or buzzword Yet even as many scholars consider trauma to be constitutive of psychological modernity or the post Enlightenment human condition historical research on the topic has overwhelmingly focused on cases such as World War I or the Holocaust in which Western experiences and actors are foregrounded There remains an urgent need to incorporate the methods and insights of recent historical trauma research into a truly global perspective The chapters in Traumatic Pasts in Asia make just such an intervention extending Euro American paradigms of traumatic experience to new sites of world historical suffering and in the process exploring how these new domains of research inform and enrich earlier scholarship Gender, Work and Community After De-Industrialisation V. Walkerdine, L. Jimenez, 2012-01-17 How does an industrial community cope when they are told that closure is inevitable What if this is only the last in a 200 year long line of threats insecurities and closure How did people weather the storms and how do they face the future now While attempts to regenerate communities are everywhere we do not often hear from the people themselves just how they managed to create safe collective spaces or how the fall of the whole house of cards brought with it effects which can be felt by young people who never knew the town when it was an industrial heartland We hear the story of how men and women tried to cope and still want to retain their community in the face of its destruction What can they and will they have to pass to the next generation and where will that leave the young people themselves who have nothing to stay for but are unable to leave This book examines these crucial questions facing post industrial societies

History and Presence Robert A. Orsi, 2018-06-11 A Choice Outstanding Academic Title of the Year Beginning with metaphysical debates in the sixteenth century over the nature of Christ's presence in the host the distinguished historian and scholar of religion Robert Orsi imagines an alternative to the future of religion that early moderns proclaimed was inevitable Orsi's evoking of the full reality of the holy in the world is extremely moving shot through with wonder and horror Caroline Walker Bynum Common Knowledge This is a meticulously researched humane and deeply challenging book The men and women studied in this book do not belong to a world we have lost They belong to a world we have lost sight of Peter Brown Princeton University A brilliant theologically sophisticated exploration of the Catholic experience of God's presence through the material world On every level from its sympathetic honest and sometimes moving ethnography to its astute analytical observations this book is a scholarly masterpiece A W Klink Choice Orsi recaptures God's breaking into the world The book does an excellent job of explaining both the difficulties and values inherent in recognizing God in the world Publishers Weekly This book is classic Orsi careful layered humane and subtle a thought provoking expertly arranged tour of precisely those abundant excessive phenomena which scholars have historically found so difficult to think Sonja Anderson Reading Religion

Wounds of History Jill Salberg, Sue Grand, 2016-12-08 Wounds of History takes a new view in psychoanalysis using a trans generational and social political cultural model looking at trauma and its transmission The view is radical in looking beyond maternal dyads and Oedipal triangles and in its portrayal of a multi generational world that is no longer hierarchical This look allows for greater clinical creativity for conceptualizing and treating human suffering situating healing in expanding circles of witnessing The contributors to this volume look at inherited personal trauma involving legacies of war genocide slavery political persecution forced migration unwelcomed immigration and the way attachment and connection is disrupted traumatized and ultimately longing for repair and reconnection The book addresses several themes such as the ethical social turn in psychoanalysis the repetition of resilience and wounds and the repair of these wounds the complexity of attachment in the aftermath of trauma and the move towards social justice In their contributions the authors remain close to the human stories Wounds of History will be of interest to psychoanalysts psychologists and other mental health professionals as well as students or teachers of trauma studies Jewish and gender studies and studies of genocide

Listening to Trauma, 2014-11-25 Interviews and intimate photographic portraits of witnesses to the collective and cultural significance of trauma This new collection from Cathy Caruth features interviews with a diverse group of leaders in the theorization of and response to traumatic experience in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Crossing the boundaries of discipline and profession Caruth's subjects include literary theorists and critics psychoanalysts psychiatrists psychologists political activists filmmakers public intellectuals institutional leaders and researchers Exploring the intertwining of the intellectual and personal dimensions of experience each interview is accompanied by Caruth's intimate photographic portrait of its subject Caruth chose her subjects because of their impact on her thinking as well as their significant role as witnesses to the collective and cultural significance of trauma The individuals profiled here are innovators in the theory of trauma Part I in the clinical activist or testimonial interventions in trauma Part II or in the creation or modification of institutions that provide therapeutic artistic or legal responses to traumatic events Part III Two of the interviews first appeared in Caruth's landmark 1995 work Trauma Explorations in Memory The rest were conducted between 2011 and 2013 after the field of trauma studies expanded significantly Representing both the foundation of trauma research and cutting edge approaches to the topic this collection will be useful to practitioners with an interest in post traumatic stress disorder as well as scholars exploring the multiple dimensions of profound human experience A portion of the proceeds from sales of this book will go to the Grady Nia Project for abused suicidal and low income African American women

The Consulting Room and Beyond Therese Ragen, 2010-04-15 The Consulting Room and Beyond is not a typical example of clinical writing in the field of psychoanalysis Therese Ragen pushing the boundaries of the genre thoughtfully explores in a very immediate way the intersubjective nature of psychoanalysis particularly looking at the role of the psychoanalyst's subjectivity both how it influences and is influenced by the psychoanalytic relationship The profound ways in which analyst and patient affect each other are captured as the author moves from a moment with a patient to one of her own memories to a dream to a professional consultation and back to the session with the patient Ragen's detailed descriptions of her subjective experiences and clinical skill help to weave the anecdotes into a compelling narrative worthy of the attention of theorists academics and clinicians alike

History, Literature, Critical Theory Dominick LaCapra, 2013-04-12 In History Literature Critical Theory Dominick LaCapra continues his exploration of the complex relations between history and literature here considering history as both process and representation A trio of chapters at the center of the volume concern the ways in which history and literature particularly the novel impact and question each other In one of the chapters LaCapra revisits Gustave Flaubert pairing him with Joseph Conrad Other chapters pair J M Coetzee and W G Sebald Jonathan Littell's novel The Kindly Ones and Saul Friedlander's two volume prizewinning history Nazi Germany and the Jews A recurrent motif of the book is the role of the sacred its problematic status in sacrifice its virulent manifestation in social and political violence notably the Nazi genocide its role or transformations in literature and art and its multivalent expressions in postsecular hopes anxieties and quests LaCapra concludes the volume with an essay on the place of violence in the thought of Slavoj Žižek In LaCapra's view Žižek's provocative thought at times has uncanny echoes of earlier reflections on or apologies for political and seemingly regenerative even sacralized violence

History and Its Limits Dominick LaCapra, 2011-02-23 Dominick LaCapra's History and Its Limits articulates the relations among intellectual history cultural history and critical theory examining the recent rise of Practice Theory and probing the limitations of prevalent forms of humanism LaCapra focuses on the problem of understanding extreme cases specifically events and experiences involving violence and victimization He asks how historians treat and are simultaneously implicated in the traumatic processes they attempt to represent In addressing these questions he also investigates violence s impact on various types of writing and establishes a distinctive role for critical theory in the face of an insufficiently discriminating aesthetic of the sublime often unreflectively amalgamated with the uncanny In History and Its Limits LaCapra inquires into the related phenomenon of a turn to the postsecular even the messianic or the miraculous in recent theoretical discussions of extreme events by such prominent figures as Giorgio Agamben Eric L Santner and Slavoj Žižek In a related vein he discusses Martin Heidegger s evocative if not enchanting understanding of The Origin of the Work of Art LaCapra subjects to critical scrutiny the sometimes internally divided way in which violence has been valorized in sacrificial regenerative or redemptive terms by a series of important modern intellectuals on both the far right and the far left including Georges Sorel the early Walter Benjamin Georges Bataille Frantz Fanon and Ernst J nger Violence and victimization are prominent in the relation between the human and the animal LaCapra questions prevalent anthropocentrism evident even in theorists of the posthuman and the long standing quest for a decisive criterion separating or dividing the human from the animal LaCapra regards this attempt to fix the difference as misguided and potentially dangerous because it renders insufficiently problematic the manner in which humans treat other animals and interact with the environment In raising the issue of desirable transformations in modernity History and Its Limits examines the legitimacy of normative limits necessary for life in common and explores the disconcerting role of transgressive initiatives beyond limits including limits blocking the recognition that humans are themselves animals

Performing the Wound Niki

Tulk,2022-05-15 This book offers a matrixial feminist centered analysis of trauma and performance through examining the work of three artists Ann Hamilton Ren e Green and Cecilia Vicu a Each artist engages in a multi media or combination performance practice this includes the use of site embodied performance material elements film and writing Each case study involves traumatic content including the legacy of slavery child sexual abuse and environmental degradation each artist constructs an aesthetic milieu that invites rather than immerses this allows an audience to have agency as well as multiple pathways into their engagement with the art The author Niki Tulk suggests that these works facilitate an audience performance relationship based on the concept of ethical witnessing wit h nessing in which viewers are not positioned as voyeurs nor made to risk re traumatization by being forced to view traumatic events re played on stage This approach also allows agency to the art itself in that an ethical space is created where the art is not objectified or looked at but joined with Foundational to this investigation are the writings of Bracha L Ettinger Jill Bennett and Diana Taylor particularly Ettinger s concepts of the matrixial carriage and border linking These artists and scholars present a capacity to expand and articulate answers to questions regarding how to make performance that remains compelling and truthful to the trauma experience but not re traumatizing This study will be of great interest to students and scholars of performance studies art history visual arts feminist studies theatre film performance art postcolonialism rhetoric and writing

Psychoanalysis, History, and Radical

Ethics Donna Orange, 2019-09-23 Psychoanalysis History and Radical Ethics Learning to Hear explores the importance of listening being able to speak and those who are silenced from a psychoanalytic perspective In particular it focuses on those voices silenced either collectively or individually by trauma culture discrimination and persecution and even by the history of psychoanalysis Drawing on lessons from philosophy and history as well as clinical vignettes this book provides a comprehensive guide to understanding the role of trauma in creating silence and the importance for psychoanalysts of learning to hear those silenced voices

Letters to a Young Psychoanalyst Heitor O'Dwyer de Macedo, 2016-10-04 Written in the form of letters from an experienced analyst to a young colleague Letters to a Young Psychoanalyst expands the psychoanalytic frame to include South American French and British theory and examine a wide variety of theoretical and clinical topics Letters to a Young Psychoanalyst is ground breaking in more than one respect It re examines major psychoanalytic theories in the light of rich clinical practice and in the light of the practice of friendship whilst portraying the practice of analysis as the choice of a personal code of ethics Covering such core issues as transference trauma hysteria the influence of the mother and love and hate and drawing on the work of notable analysts such as Winnicott McDougall Pankow and Ferenczi the book explores the many facets of healing function of psychoanalysis in practice and discloses the workings of the psyche in human existence This book considers psychoanalysis a humanist endeavour focussing on its healing function and using captivating examples to illustrate different modes of commitment on the part of the analyst Rejecting a view of psychoanalysis as a painful and laborious process the book insists instead on the joyous and passionate nature of the work of psychic elaboration Uniquely the transmission of knowledge and skill which it provides constituting a veritable training is not at all didactic in tone It places the two interlocutors as well as the reader on the same level people who share the desire to remain attentive to themselves and to others and who believe that empathy heals within the setting of therapy and in human relations in general Written in a remarkably engaging and accessible style Letters to a Young Psychoanalyst will appeal to psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists students of all levels studying in these fields as well as lay readers wishing to understand fundamental psychoanalytic concepts
