Holy Conversation Talking About God In Everyday Life:

Holy Conversation Richard Peace, 2009-08-20 Richard Peace teaches you how to engage in easy and comfortable conversation about the good news of Jesus Explaining the gospel in plain language and offering practical suggestions for sharing your faith with friends neighbors and colleagues he provides twelve study and discussion sessions perfect for small groups to work through and try out together

Subversive Spirituality L Paul Jensen, 2011-06-30 Subversive Spirituality links the practice and study of Christian spirituality with Christian mission It develops a twofold thesis grace spiritual disciplines and mission practices are inseparably linked in the mission of Jesus of the early church and of several historical renewal movements as well as in a contemporary field research sample and amidst the collapse of space and time evidenced by our culture s increasingly hurried pace of life more time and space are needed for regular solitary and communal spiritual practices in church mission and leadership structures if Christian mission is to transform people and culture in our time This requires a subversion of the collapsed spatial and temporal codes that have infected our Christian institutions Jensen employs methods and approaches from a variety of academic disciplines to explore both spirituality in terms of space and time and mission in terms of deed and word Specifically Jensen examines the spirituality and mission of Jesus the early church the apostolic fathers Origen the Devotio Moderna the early Jesuits David Brainerd and several women in 19th century Protestant missions He considers the spirituality and mission that have arisen within the postmodern generations born after 1960 Based on the theological historical cultural and field analyses of this study a model for spirituality and mission is proposed The model addresses the contemporary collapse of space and time and appears to have widespread applicability to diverse cultures and eras Jensen s model is applied to the pluralistic and postmodern milieu of North America with recommendations for spirituality and mission in church mission and educational structures A derivative model for teaching and practicing spirituality and mission in the academy which also has application for non formal leadership development structures is also proposed

Mission in Malawi: Essays in Honour of Klaus Fiedler S. Nkhoma, 2021-10-29 The first four essays in Mission in Malawi reassess the meaning nature and place of mission in a postmodern world Subsequent essays examine various issues that missionaries and the Church in Malawi have and continue to struggle with These range from the problem of administering church discipline the challenge of Bible translation the question of how to deal with corruption in the corridors of power to the challenges of dealing with initiation rites HIV AIDS patriarchy gender inequality the exercise of the Church s prophetic role lack of contextualized theology and the difficult task of creating an inclusive church and society The last three essays are an attempt to describe a contextual theology appropriate for the African church construct a theology for Malawi and project a future for mission in Malawi in the context of a changing world These essays offer a rare window into the life and struggles of the Malawian Church even as it faces the postmodern future The essays are not only informative but also challenging and thought provoking Scholars students and other readers who share an interest in mission and the life of the Church in Malawi will find this collection of essays indispensable in the many years to come

Protestant Spiritual Traditions, Volume Two Frank C. Senn, 2020-07-24 There is no single Protestant spirituality but rather Protestant spiritual traditions usually embedded in denominational families that share some basic Protestant principles These two volumes of Protestant Spiritual Traditions offer essays on twelve traditions written by scholars within those traditions plus a concluding essay that gathers a number of Protestant contributions to Christian spirituality and Western culture under the category of the body These thirteen essays discuss the contributions of significant spiritual figures from Martin Luther to Martin Luther King Jr and offer insights on a range of topics from the theology of the cross to physical fitness

The Study of Evangelism Paul W. Chilcote, Lacey C. Warner, 2008-02-13 Christians and communities of faith today are rediscovering evangelism as an essential aspect of the church's mission Many of the resulting books in the marketplace however have a hands on orientation often lacking serious theological engagement and reflection Bucking that how to trend The Study of Evangelism offers thirty groundbreaking essays that plumb the depths of the biblical and theological heritage of the church with reference to evangelistic practice Helpfully organized into six categories these broad diverse writings lay a solid scholarly foundation for meaningful dialogue about the church's practice of evangelism

Mission Foundations and other Essays S. Nkhoma, 2020-07-09 The first two essays in this book examine the biblical and philosophical basis for mission in the post modern world emphasising the experiential quality of mission over against the rational Subsequent essays discuss various aspects of mission with a focus on the Malawian context They highlight the impact of missionary work on the formation shaping and developments of Malawi as a national state Other essays examine various issues in New Testament scholarship including images of the Historical Jesus and how these relate to wisdom and apocalyptic traditions

The Annunciation Larry Hart, 2017-03-10 The Annunciation is an in depth look at how the Christian message can be communicated in a way that is comprehensible to the postmodern world and yet remain within the classical faith
